Prayer by the Reverend J. D. Bowen, Chaplain:

Our Father, we stand in awe at the brevity of time. With the week and the month gone, we are at the crossroads with our record for these brief days and our conscience. Are there hidden truths we haven't revealed? Are there mistakes we haven't admitted making? Must we bear the consequences? On the other hand, Lord, if we've put weightier matters above the frivolous; if we've put the future above the momentary; if we've put the good of all above the exacting few, wilt thou reward us for this also. Amen.
