SCR 878—A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION expressing deep sympathy and regret over the passing of Ernest C. Welch.

The Senate of the State of Florida does hereby pause in its deliberations and takes notice of the recent death of Ernest C. Welch. Having been born in Cottondale, Jackson County, Florida, on the 2nd day of September, 1885, in the same year that the Constitution of Florida was adopted by the members of the Constitutional Convention, Ernest C. Welch devoted his life toward upholding the contents of said Constitution and in this endeavor trained his mind by attending the public schools of Jackson County, Florida State College (now Florida State University) at Tallahassee, Florida, and Bowling Green Law School, Bowling Green, Kentucky. He was admitted to practice law in the states of Kentucky and Florida in the year 1907 and began practicing in Marianna, Florida in said year. During the years that he served at the Bar of Florida, he was recognized by his brethren as an able student of the law and an aggressive advocate. In 1920 Ernest C. Welch was elected by the citizens of Jackson County, Florida, as their County Judge in which capacity he served until 1926 when he returned to the practice of law. He served as County Attorney of Jackson County during the period 1930-1934. In 1934, Ernest C. Welch was elected by the citizens of the 14th Judicial Circuit of Florida to the office of Circuit Judge and served the people of Florida in this capacity until his retirement on October 1, 1959. Even in retirement, he continued to serve as Circuit Judge pursuant to interim appointments. The law was truly Judge Welch's mistress. The jurisprudence of this State reflects his devotion to law and justice, and his paramount concern for a sound constitutional government.

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida, the House of Representatives Concurring:

That speaking for the people of the sovereign State of Florida, we lament the loss of this distinguished son of Florida, and by means of this instrument convey to the family of Ernest C. Welch our sincere regret as to his passing.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution certified by the Secretary of State of the State of Florida under the Great Seal of the State of Florida be forwarded to the bereaved family of Judge Ernest C. Welch.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be spread upon the pages of the journal of the Senate and the journal of the House of Representatives of the State of Florida and made a permanent record of this legislature.

Was read the first time in full. On motion of Senator Williams, the rules were waived by two-thirds vote and the Concurrent Resolution was placed on the Calendar.

By Senators Connor, Askew, Barber, Barron, Bronson, Carlton, Carraway, Clarke, Cleveland, Covington, Cross, Daniel, Davis, Dressler, Edwards, Friday, Gautier, Gibson, Griffin, Haverfield, Henderson, Hollahan, Johns, Johnson (19th), Johnson (6th), McCarty, McDonald, McLaughlin, Mapoles, Mathews, Melton, Pearce, Pope, Price, Roberts, Ryan, Spottswood, Stratton, Tapper, Thomas, Usher, Whitaker, Williams and Young—

SR 879—A Senate Resolution Dedicated To The Mothers Of Our State And Nation And Reverently Commemorating The Role Of Motherhood.

Who can fathom the depth of a Mother's love? Her love is deeper than the depths of the Ocean; higher than the Peak of the loftiest mountain; broader than the span of the universe, and lasting as the Rock of Ages.

Every Mother idolizes her child. From the moment the precious mite of humanity opens its eyes to the light, her care and affection guide and nourish it. She is the Guardian Angel whose tender care and solicitude are ever with it. Her prayers and tears; her hopes and fears; in the long vigil of the years, are all for her offspring.

The Boy's best friend is his Mother. To her he will never grow up. He is always her baby. In the eyes of the world he may not measure up to the highest pinnacle of performance, but to the melting eyes of Mother's love he is always her hero. She will find excuses for his failures, defense for his delinquencies, and forgiveness for his every act. Like the Prodigal, he may travel the wide world over; endure the buffeting of outrageous fortune; sleep in the gutter, and eat husks with the swine, but her love will ever welcome him home and compass him about as the shadow of a rock in a weary land.

And when the end comes to her, and death touches her eyelids down in dreamless sleep, her last imploring look will fall like a benediction on his face.

Mothers, we salute you through the misty haze of the far gone years when you held our hands in parting. Your knees were the truest altar we have ever found; your hands the fairest and strongest that have ever led us, and your faith has kept us faithful in spite of ourselves.

The years are many, the years are long; but Oh, Mothers, we know that somewhere you'll wait to welcome us like that Mother of Old who was last at the Cross and earliest at the Tomb.

"Backward, Turn backward, Oh Time in thy flight;
Make me a child again, just for tonight.
Mother, come back from that echoless shore;
Take me again in your arms as of yore;
Over my slumbers your loving watch keep—
Rock me to sleep, Mother, rock me to sleep."

Red Carnations for the Living; White for the Dead. Mothers of Men; Your Lives shall live forever enshrined in Loving Memory.

Was read the first time in full and unanimously adopted.
