Prayer by the Reverend J. D. Bowen, Chaplain:

Dear Lord, as thou dost look down upon this scene, reveal to each of us what thou dost see in us. Let us see that where we are weak, thou art strong where we are mere human beings, thou art divine; where our efforts meet with failure at times, thou canst cause us to live victoriously. Let our personality clashes turn into glowing admiration for each other. Help us to forgive the other fellow's faults, so that ours might be forgiven. May all wrongs be made right in thy presence as we worship this next Lord's day. Keep us from accident as we journey to and from our homes. For Christ's sake. Amen.
