Prayer by the Reverend J. D. Bowen, Chaplain:

Our heavenly Father, we have so much to be thankful for this morning; for loved ones, for friends back home, for friends here, for the garden spot of the world in which to live and to serve—favored Florida. May the most important bill introduced this session be a sincere love for our fellow man and for thee. May the amendments and the amendments to the amendments be "more love to thee", and may it pass without opposition. For Christ's sake. Amen.

The reading of the Journal was dispensed with.

Sir:

I am directed to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has adopted—

By Representative Usina of St. Johns—

HCR 1489—A concurrent resolution directing the legislative council and/or board of commissioners of state institutions to inventory and study the need for nursing home care or other programs for the protection, care and well-being of our senior citizens and to present recommendations to the 1967 legislature as to how these needs can best be met.

WHEREAS, it is recognized that a large measure of the growth and development of Florida, dramatic as it has been, is due to the efforts of dedicated citizens who now have reached retirement age, and

WHEREAS, many of these senior citizens, having contributed so much to this land they love, now find themselves hard pressed through shrinking retirement incomes to provide the care to which they are entitled from an affluent society in which they live, and

WHEREAS, many of these senior citizens, because of age alone, are committed to state hospitals and other institutions at great cost to the people of Florida, and where rightfully they should not be, and

WHEREAS, this state has never developed adequate nursing home care or other programs for the protection, care and well-being of our senior citizens, and

WHEREAS, it is desired that such programs as will assure the proper protection, care and well-being of our senior citizens be developed out of concern for them, as well as a concern to insure maximum benefit from public funds allocated for these purposes, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida, the Senate Concurring:

That the legislative council and/or the board of commissioners of state institutions are directed to inventory and study the needs for such programs as will properly benefit our senior citizens, and to present recommendations to the 1967 legislature as to how these needs can best be met.

—and requests the concurrence of the Senate therein.

I am directed to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has adopted—

By Representative Roberts of Palm Beach and others—

HCR 1606—A concurrent resolution directing the legislative council to make a study of the problem of soil depletion in the agricultural areas of the state, and to make recommendations concerning possible solutions to the problem to the 1967 session of the legislature; authorizing the establishment of a committee to make such study and for the appointment of members of such committee; authorizing the establishment of an advisory committee to assist in such study; and providing for the payment of expenses of said committee.

WHEREAS, the Everglades agricultural area consists of six hundred fifty thousand (650,000) acres of the richest agricultural lands in the world, and

WHEREAS, the soil of this area is being depleted at a rate in excess of one (1) inch per year, and

WHEREAS, the continuation of this rate of depletion could result in the loss of extremely valuable soils of the area within thirty-five (35) years, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida, the Senate Concurring:

Section 1. The legislative council shall make a study and an analysis of the problem of soil depletion and subsidence in the Everglades agricultural area and other agricultural areas of the state. In carrying on such study the committee will confer with and work with the department of agriculture, Florida agricultural experiment station, statutory revision department of the attorney general's office and any committee which may be appointed for the purpose of making such comprehensive study. The council shall report to the 1967 session of the legislature the results of its study, together with any recommendations it may have. In addition, the council shall prepare such bills for introduction at the 1967 session as it deems necessary to implement its recommendations.

Section 2. The legislative council is requested to conduct the study authorized by this resolution through its committee on agriculture, provided, however, that the limitation on the number of noncouncil members as specified in the above section shall not apply, and said committee shall have the authority to appoint an advisory committee to assist in this study as provided by section 11.285, Florida Statutes.

Section 3. The legislative council is authorized to expend such funds out of the legislative expenses as are necessary to effectuate the purposes of this resolution.

Senator McCarty offered the following amendment which failed:

In Section 1, page 1, insert the following: paragraph after the first paragraph:

The board of commissioners of state institutions is specifically authorized to acquire land between and bounded by Monroe Street on the East, Adams Street on the West, Pensacola Street on the South and Jefferson Street on the North, said block to be named and developed as "J. Edwin Larson Park" and have located thereon an archives and library building with parking facilities.

Senator Mathews offered the following amendment which was adopted:

In Section 2, strike: Section 2 in its entirety and insert the following: Section 2. Board of administration; issuance of revenue bonds and fiscal agent.—Upon request of the Board of Commissioners of State Institutions evidenced by a resolution duly adopted by said board, the State Board of Administration is authorized and empowered to issue and sell interest bearing bonds or certificates in its own name for and on behalf of the Board of Commissioners of State Institutions for the purpose of financing the acquisition and construction of land, buildings, and facilities within the capitol center. After deducting the cost of issuing and selling the bonds or certificates, any premium and accrued interest, and any capitalized interest or reserve provided for in the resolution authorizing the issuance of said bonds, the balance of the proceeds derived from the sale of the bonds shall be transferred to the credit of the Board of Commissioners of State Institutions in the Treasury of the State. Said funds shall be used by the Board of Commissioners of State Institutions solely for the purpose of planning, acquiring, constructing, and placing in operation the Capitol Center project described in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the revenue bonds or certificates.

The State Board of Administration and the Board of Commissioners of State Institutions are authorized and empowered to enter into a lease-purchase agreement covering the project and to pledge the rentals derived from the operation of the project and other legally available funds for the payment of the principal and interest on the bonds to be issued. The State Board of Administration shall be the fiscal agent of the Board of Commissioners of State Institutions for the issuance and sale of the bonds and for the administration of the debt service. The form, denominations, rate of interest, amount, place of payment, manner, place and price of sale, date of retirement, and terms of redemption or advance refunding prior to maturity of said bonds or certificates shall be fixed by the Board of Administration. In no case shall any such bonds or certificates mature later than thirty (30) years from date of issue or be sold at such price that the average net interest cost to the board shall exceed 4.5% nor shall the State Board of Administration borrow money for the purposes specified herein and issue and sell its bonds or certificates except after public competitive bidding and sale thereof to the highest bidder.

(1) The bonds or certificates herein authorized shall have all the qualities of negotiable instruments under the law merchant and the negotiable instruments law of Florida.

(2) Notwithstanding any other restrictions on investments contained in any law of this state, the state and all public officers, municipal corporations, political subdivisions and public bodies, all banks, bankers, trust companies, savings banks, building and loan associations, savings and loan associations, investment companies, insurance companies, insurance associations, and all persons carrying on an insurance business, and all executors, administrators, guardians, trustees, and other fiduciaries may legally invest any sinking funds, moneys, or other funds belonging to them or within their control in the bonds or certificates of the State Board of Administration herein authorized and such bonds or certificates shall be authorized security for all public deposits, including, but not restricted to, deposits as authorized in Section 18.10, Chapter 136, and Chapter 237, it being the purpose of this section to authorize any person, firm or corporation, association, political subdivision, body and officer, public or private, to use any funds owned or controlled by them, including, but not limited to, sinking, insurance, investment, retirement, compensation, pension and trust funds, and funds held on deposit, for the purchase of any such bonds or certificates, up to the amount as authorized by law to be invested in any type of security, including United States government bonds.

Senator Pope offered the following amendment which was adopted:

In Section 3, line 7, strike: period and insert the following: ; provided however no contract may be entered into without specific authorization of the Legislature for the project.

The President presiding.

Senator Ryan offered the following amendment which was adopted:
