Prayer by the Reverend J. D. Bowen, Chaplain:

Our gracious heavenly Father, we come before thee this morning with thanksgiving in our hearts for the manifold temporal blessings we have received from thy bountiful hand—life, health, food, raiment, shelter, loved ones, friends, to name just a few. Then, Lord, we are grateful for thy spiritual gifts—pity, compassion, love, mercy, forgiveness, and even eternal life, in exchange for surrendered hearts. O, help us to see the fallacy of ever being out of the center of thy will for our every day lives. May thy will, then, be done through us today. For Christ's sake, and in his name. Amen.

Senator Pope presented Miss Anne Carling, Publicity Director of St. Augustine and St. Johns County Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. Ina Skinner of St. Augustine. Mrs. Skinner wore a colorful costume from the wardrobe of the cast of the "Cross and Sword", depicting the story of St. Augustine's early history, which will be presented in the St. Augustine Amphitheatre June 27 through September 5. Miss Carling was dressed in a peasant costume customarily worn by the St. Johns Chamber of Commerce office staff. On motion of Senator Pope that a committee be appointed to escort the ladies to the rostrum, the President appointed Senators Pope, Bronson and Usher.
