Prayer by the Reverend J. D. Bowen, Chaplain:

As we bow our heads in reverence to thy matchless name, let us recall some of thy great compassion toward us. We find our indebtedness to thee more than we can repay. It is at this juncture that we rejoice because thy manifold blessings are free to us. Make us to understand that the only way we can give to thee in return, is to do for our fellow man. For apart from our neighbor, we cannot serve thee. May this philosophy be truly exemplified in us today. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

WHEREAS, such taxes and imposts should be compensatory for the use of the highways of the state, which is declared by statute in some cases, and

WHEREAS, despite such declarations and purposes, portions of said highway-user taxes are diverted to nonhighway purposes, and

WHEREAS, the diversion of such taxes for purposes other than highway use results in unfair tax discrimination against highway users, and

WHEREAS, only by a comparative study and review of the imposts and their purposes can the legislature arrive at the full understanding of the need for revision of such laws, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida, the House of Representatives Concurring:

Section 1. The legislative council is authorized and requested to study all types of taxes and imposts imposed by the state upon the ownership and operation of motor vehicles and their diversion to nonhighway purposes. The Committee on Privileges and Elections also offered the following amendment which was adopted on motion of Senator Ryan:

In Section 13, line 12, page 20, following "machine can accommodate" strike remainder of paragraph and insert in lieu thereof the following: either of the alternative methods of eliminating the casting of write-in ballots on a voting machine may be implemented:

(a) In general elections the first fifty (50) offices may be placed on the voting machine and the write-in slides on the voting machine shall be available for use as provided in section 101.44, Florida Statutes. Any excess over fifty (50) offices may be arranged on succeeding party rows either vertically or horizontally depending upon the machine and make up of the ballot. The county commissioners shall prepare a supplemental paper ballot in an amount deemed adequate by the supervisor with write-in spaces for use by any elector desiring to cast an irregular ballot for a candidate whose name does not appear on the ballot for any office not included in the first fifty (50) offices. The supplemental paper ballot shall be taken in the voting machine and cast by the elector while therein but upon the issuance of such a supplemental paper ballot all offices which also appear on the supplemental paper ballot shall be locked out to prevent overvoting.

(b) In general elections where the removal of all write-in spaces on the voting machine would permit the entire ballot to be placed upon the machine, then the supervisor of elections shall lockout all write-ins on the voting machine. Any elector desiring to cast an irregular ballot under such circumstances for a person whose name does not appear on the ballot may cast a write-in ballot on a separate paper ballot to be furnished by the clerk or inspector, upon the electors request.

(c) In the event either procedure described in subsections (a) or (b) above is used which will permit an elector to cast a supplemental paper ballot for some or all of the candidates in the general election, the electors shall be so notified at the time sample ballots are mailed or published as required by law so that each elector will be on notice that he will not be able to cast an irregular ballot for some or possibly all of the candidates listed on the printed ballot appearing on the voting machine. In addition there shall be adequate notice of the procedure published in the polling place in order to put the elector on notice that he cannot cast a write-in vote for some or all of the candidates whose names appear on the voting machine. An elector who wishes to cast an irregular ballot which must be voted on a separate supplemental paper ballot must request the supplemental paper ballot prior to entering the voting machine. In the event that the voting machine ballot is arranged so that some irregular or write-in ballots may be cast on the voting machine as described in subsection (a), the elector shall take the supplemental paper ballot into the machine with him at which time the inspector shall lockout those offices appearing on the machine which are also listed on the supplemental paper ballot to prevent overvoting. In those cases where no write-in spaces are available on the voting machine and an elector requests a complete paper ballot as authorized in subsection (b), he shall not enter the machine but rather a private voting booth shall be available in which the elector may cast his paper ballot. In those instances where supplemental paper ballots are used in connection with voting machines, the county commissioners shall furnish a supply of said paper ballots as described in subsection (a) or (b) above depending upon which procedure is used, in such amount as the supervisor of elections deems necessary. Such paper ballots shall meet the requirements of Section 101.141 or 101.151, Florida Statutes, whichever is applicable.

If the official ballot is still longer than the voting machine can accommodate, paper ballots may be used in conjunction with a voting machine, in which case the order of the offices on the voting machine ballot shall be the same as prescribed in sections 101.141 (4) and 101.151 (3), Florida Statutes. Where the machine ballot is filled in this order there shall be a continuation of the ballot in the same order on paper ballots, provided, however, no state or federal opposed office shall be placed upon a paper ballot.

(d) In any primary election, if the official ballot is longer than the voting machine can accommodate, then paper ballots may be used in conjunction with a voting machine in which case the order of the offices on the voting machine ballot shall be the same as prescribed in section 101.141 (4), Florida Statutes, provided, however, that no portion of a category of candidates as established in section 101.141 (4), Florida Statutes, shall be divided between the voting machine ballot and the paper ballot. In the event a category of candidates must be removed from the voting machine ballot because of the foregoing provision, the board of county commissioners in such county may, in its discretion, complete the balance of the voting machine ballot with some whole portion of another category of candidates out of its proper sequence, provided, however no state or federal office shall be placed upon a paper ballot.

The Committee on Privileges and Elections also offered the following amendment which was adopted on motion of Senator Ryan:

In Section 15, page 22, strike: "In precincts containing three-hundred fifty (350) or less registered electors there shall be one voting machine and in precincts containing more than three-hundred fifty (350) registered electors there shall be available one machine for every three-hundred fifty (350) registered electors or fraction thereof which are expected to participate in any election. Where a long ballot is split and placed on two machines for the purpose of this section, the two machines shall be counted as one machine." and insert the following:

In precincts containing six hundred (600) or less registered electors there shall be one (1) voting machine and in precincts containing more than six hundred (600) registered electors there shall be available one (1) machine for every six hundred (600) registered electors or fraction thereof, which are expected to participate in any election in the opinion of the board of county commissioners.

On motion of Senator Ryan, the rules were waived by two-thirds vote and HB 347, as amended, was read the third time in full and passed. The vote was: Yeas—41. Nays—None.
