Prayer by Senator John M. McCarty of the 12th Senatorial District:

Our heavenly Father strengthen us as we strive to seek a solution to the problem we face. Let us keep faith with each other and not turn coward before our difficulties. Protect us as we go to our homes for rest and meditation, and let us return refreshed to strive honestly to solve this task. Keep us free from stings to each other and remind us that this is not just for us as individuals, but a solution for the people and our great state. Guide us and forgive our shortcomings, we ask in thy name. Amen.

The reading of the Journal was dispensed with.
