44. A quorum present.

Excused: Senators Johnson, Gong, O'Grady and Ott.
 Senator Gunter after 11:00 a.m.
 Senator Thomas after 12:00 noon.

Prayer by Senator L. K. Edwards, Jr. of the Thirteenth Senatorial District:

Our Father, we believe that thou wilt hear our prayers, that thou wilt be sympathetic without coddling; thou wilt have mercy without condoning; thou wilt forgive, but not without a price. Thou thyself hast paid that price on Calvary's Hill, and we, too, must pay a price if we would know thy peace—the price of full confession, the price of real repentance, and the price of the crucifixion of the things within us that destroy our peace of mind. Make us willing, Lord Jesus, to pay that price, remembering that without the shedding of blood there is no remission of sin, that without hard work there is no accomplishment, that without real effort there can be no achievement, and without the crucifixion of our old selves there can be no victory. Amen.

The reading of the Journal was dispensed with.

The Journal of May 11 was corrected and approved as follows:

(1) Examinations and reports.—The commissioner shall examine the condition of each state bank at least two (2) times in each calendar year and each trust company at least once in each calendar year. The commissioner may accept a federal deposit insurance corporation or federal reserve examination in lieu of one of said bank examinations, and may furnish to the federal deposit insurance corporation or its representatives a copy of all examinations made of such banks. He shall require each bank or trust company to submit a report of its condition as of such date as he may fix at least twice in each calendar year, or as often as ordered by the commissioner, verified by the oaths or affirmations of the president or the vice-president and treasurer, secretary or cashier of such corporation and within ten (10) days after such report shall have been called for, shall publish in a newspaper published in the county in which said bank is located a statement of its assets and liabilities of the date of said report, and a copy of said publication, with an affidavit of the publication shall be filed with the commissioner, and a copy of said publication filed also with the county tax assessor. Every such bank or trust company which fails to transmit any report required under this section shall be subject to a penalty of one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each day of delinquency after the due date of the reports. The provisions of this section shall not apply to national banks and trust departments of national banks.

(2) Internal audit.—Each state bank and trust company shall have performed an internal audit within each eighteen (18) months and filed a copy of such audit with the state commissioner of banking, through one (1) of the following means:

(a) Each state bank and trust company wherein there exists an internal audit department, such audit to be conducted under the supervision of the board of directors.

(b) The board of directors, acting as an audit committee.

(c) An independent certified public accountant approved by the board of directors.

(d) The state commissioner of banking may, in his discretion, require an independent certified public accountant audit.

Section 2. This act shall become effective January 1, 1968.
