If any percentage less than 100 percent (100%) of said $63,500,000 becomes available pursuant to section 19, Article XII of the constitution of the state of Florida, each of the above allocations in this subsection shall be multiplied by such percentage in determining the amount of such allocation, provided that allocations to each institution under the board of regents may be changed by the board of regents in an amount not to exceed 5 percent (5%).

The board of regents shall supervise the planning and construction of buildings at the institutions under its supervision to require that the buildings are constructed within the overall plans for higher education and are within the role and scope of each institution.

(5) If the amount to complete any project authorized in sections 282.012 and 282.013, Florida Statutes, and certified forward to the budget commission is less than the specific sum certified forward for such project then, notwithstanding the provisions of section 282.081(3), Florida Statutes, the surplus amount unexpended may be used in addition to the amounts authorized in subsection (4) (c) of this section to finance any project authorized in subsection (3) of this section. The authorization of any projects authorized in section 282.013, Florida Statutes, and not certified forward on June 30, 1967, shall expire as of that date.

Section 2. The capital outlay projects approved herein are to be financed by appropriations from state sources, or in accordance with section 19 of Article XII of the constitution of the state of Florida, or from grants and donations and matching funds from sources other than state funds, or by a combination of such funds.

Section 3. The sums designated in subsections (1), (2) and (3) of section 1 are the maximum sums to be expended from state funds; provided, however, that grants and donations and matching funds from sources other than state funds may be added to any item or category.

Section 4. Any section of this act or any item herein contained if found to be invalid shall in no way affect other sections or other items contained in this act.

Section 5. This act shall take effect July 1, 1967.

On motion by Senator Askew, HB 2047 as amended by the Conference Committee Report was read in full and passed by the required Constitutional three-fifths vote of all members elected to the Senate. The vote was:

UNFINISHED BUSINESS

CS for SB 30—A bill to be entitled An act relating to the creation of a Florida commission of investigation; prescribing its functions, powers and duties; making an appropriation therefor; providing for the appointment of members thereof to be known as commissioners, and terms of office, duties and responsibilities; designating the scope and power of its investigations; providing for the taking of public or private testimony, the holding of hearings throughout the state, the granting of subpoena powers, both as to individuals and records; providing for the creation of a staff to serve said commission and providing an effective date hereof.

Was taken up, having been read the second time on June 8, together with an amendment offered by Senator Ott, which was pending consideration at the hour of adjournment.

On motion by Senator Askew, the Senate reconsidered the vote by which the following amendment offered by Senator Ott was adopted as amended on June 8:

In Section 2, line 9, beginning on page 2, strike: Subsections (1) through (6), and insert the following:

(1) There is hereby created the Florida commission of investigation.

(2) The commission shall consist of one (1) senator appointed by the president of the senate, one (1) member of the house of representatives appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives and three (3) members appointed by the governor. Each member of the commission shall be appointed for a term of four (4) years beginning July 1, 1967. The members appointed by the governor shall be subject to confirmation by the senate. No member or employee of the commission except the legislative members shall hold any other public office or public employment. Not more than three (3) members of the commission shall belong to the same political party. Any vacancy occurring in the membership of the commission shall be filled for the unexpired term in the same manner as the original appointment. If the legislative term of office of either of the legislative members of the commission expires prior to the expiration of said member's term the presiding officer of the branch of the legislature in which said member had served shall appoint a new member from said branch of the legislature.

(3) Commission members who are members of the legislature shall receive no salary for their services on the commission, but shall be entitled to reimbursement for travel expenses and per diem as provided by law. Commission members appointed by the governor shall receive a salary of six thousand dollars ($6,000) per year and per diem expenses as provided by law.

Renumber remaining subsections, in section 2: (7), (8), (9) and (10), to read (4), (5), (6) and (7) respectively.

On motion by Senator Shevin, the rules were waived and further consideration of CS for SB 30, with pending amendments, was deferred, the bill retaining its place on the Calendar.

The President presiding.

The Honorable Verle A. Pope
President of the Senate

June 9, 1967

Sir:

I am directed to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has admitted for introduction by the required two-thirds vote and adopted—

By Representative Matthews and others—

HCR 2905—A concurrent resolution requesting the governor of the state of Florida to declare the week of June 12 through June 19, 1967, Israel Freedom Week.

WHEREAS, there exists in the world today a constant struggle for freedom from communist tyranny, and

WHEREAS, the entire free world is duty-bound to support in word and deed those who find themselves enmeshed in this valiant struggle, and

WHEREAS, world events have embroiled the sole remaining bulwark of freedom in the middle east, the state of Israel, involuntarily into this violent conflict, and

WHEREAS, the support of the state of Israel is the manifest responsibility of all the followers of freedom, and

WHEREAS, the basic tenants of our own nation demand that we lend all support to the valiant citizens of Israel in their life and death struggle to preserve for us and for themselves, the freedoms we so cherish, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida, the Senate Concurring:

That the Honorable Claude R. Kirk, Governor, State of Florida, is respectfully requested to demonstrate the support, good wishes, and prayers for victory of all Florida citizens for the state of Israel in their struggle for freedom by declaring the week of June 12 through June 19, 1967, as ISRAEL FREEDOM WEEK.

—and requests the concurrence of the Senate therein.

Respectfully,
ALLEN MORRIS
Clerk, House of Representatives

By the required Constitutional two-thirds vote of the Senate, the following concurrent resolution was admitted for introduction and consideration:

By Senator Boyd—

SCR 1537—A concurrent resolution recognizing the contributions made by the Florida Community Junior College Program upon the final implementation of the state-wide master plan established by the 1957 Legislature.

WHEREAS, the 1955 Legislature established the community college council charging it with responsibility to develop a long-range plan for community junior colleges in Florida, and

WHEREAS, the 1957 Legislature approved this plan which was developed and subsequent legislatures have further implemented this plan each session, and

WHEREAS, Florida will be the "first state in the nation" to complete a state plan making community junior colleges available to all the people of the State, and

WHEREAS, since their establishment Florida community junior colleges have rendered educational services to over 500,000 persons, and

WHEREAS, these community junior colleges in partnership with the state university system have provided Florida citizens a program of higher education which is among the most comprehensive in the nation with respect to the needs of business, industry, and the communities of the state, and

WHEREAS, the 28 community junior colleges approved by the State Junior College Board and the State Board of Education will provide educational opportunity within commuting distance of over 99 percent of Florida's people, and

WHEREAS, the community junior colleges graduating classes often include father and son, and mother and daughter, indicating the diversity of opportunity available to the people of Florida, and

WHEREAS, almost two-thirds of the first-time-in-college students in Florida now attend community junior colleges, and

WHEREAS, many people in Florida now have greater opportunity for educational advancement than ever before, and

WHEREAS, the youth and adults of Florida will benefit from these educational opportunities for many years in the future, and

WHEREAS, these opportunities have been provided at low cost to the people of Florida and the benefits far outweigh the costs, and

WHEREAS, the community junior colleges have ably demonstrated their contributions to the economic and cultural life of the communities they serve, and

WHEREAS, community colleges offer programs in more than 90 occupational areas, as well as freshman and sophomore academic programs, and

WHEREAS, many new businesses and industries have been influenced in their selection of locations by the availability of community junior colleges in those areas of the state, and

WHEREAS, the State Junior College Board with Fred H. Kent, Sr., as Chairman, has provided citizen leadership in the state-wide coordination of the community junior college program, and

WHEREAS, because of the dedicated service and leadership of James L. Wattenbarger and the entire Division of Community Junior Colleges, Florida is recognized nationally for the excellence of its state-wide planning and coordination of junior colleges, and

WHEREAS, State Superintendents Thomas D. Bailey and Floyd T. Christian and the State Board of Education have provided leadership in the growth and development of these institutions, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida, the House of Representatives Concurring:

That the Legislature expresses its pride in the development of this program of post high school education and hereby recognizes the national leadership of the state in the planned and orderly development of a state-wide junior college system and the contributions this program of higher education is making to the people of Florida.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this concurrent resolution be sent to members of the State Junior College Board, the State Board of Education, and the several community junior colleges in the State of Florida.

Was read the first time in full. On motions by Senator Boyd, the rules were waived and SCR 1537 was read the second time by title, unanimously adopted and certified to the House.
