The bill was certified to the House.

Senator Haverfield requested the required Constitutional two-thirds vote of the Senate to admit for introduction and consideration, a proposed bill numbered SB 18-XX(67).

On motion by Senator Boyd, the President referred the bill to a Committee composed of Senators Mathews, Horne and Chiles to determine if it were within the purview of the Governor's call of the Extraordinary Session.

Senator Mathews subsequently reported that the Committee had examined the Proclamation of the Governor which extended the call to Friday, July 28, and examined the bill proposed for introduction and it was the unanimous decision of the Committee that the bill in its present form was not within the purview of the Governor's call since it did not provide an appropriation for junior colleges.

The bill failed to receive the required Constitutional two-thirds vote of the Senate for introduction. The vote was:
