Prayer by the Senate Chaplain, Reverend T. Newton Wise:

Eternal God, our Heavenly Father . . . In this important hour when people are waiting to respond to Godly leadership, may we be just as willing to respond to Thy guidance. Help us to know that if we seek Thy leadership, Thou canst give us the answers that we alone could never find.

Help us never to confuse separation of Church and State with leaving God out of government, but always remember that the basis upon which our great Nation was founded was faith in Thee! Through Jesus Christ, Our Lord. Amen.

The President presiding.

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

I have voted for SB 134 because I feel it is the best solution presented for the present dilemma Florida has to provide adequate casualty insurance to all our citizens. Because I believe the public is entitled to a disclosure of the interests of legislators on subjects on which they may be required to vote, I wish to state I am the president and a stockholder in a company which owns an insurance agency.
