Prayer by the Senate Chaplain, Reverend T. Newton Wise:

O thou, eternal God, who dost send the rain upon the just and unjust, with grateful hearts we acknowledge the beauty of the showers. As thou dost send down thy rains to refresh a parched earth, so may thy spirit come upon our souls today to refresh us with thy life giving power. May it give to us a renewed strength and freshness as we begin our day's work and new life that shall lead us through all eternity. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

The pledge of allegiance to the flag of the United States of America pursuant to Senate Rule 7.2:

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

The Committee on Rules and Calendar recommends that the following bills be placed on the Local Calendar:

HB 671	HB 1397	HB 1428	HB 1430
HB 935	HB 1427	HB 1429	HB 1431

The Committee Report was adopted.

The Committee on Rules and Calendar recommends that Rule Four be amended as follows:

RULE FOUR

Members and Code of Ethics

4.1—Every Senator shall be within the Senate Chamber during its sittings unless excused or necessarily prevented, and shall vote on each question put, except as otherwise provided for in these rules.

Attendance and Voting

Rules 4.2 through 4.6 unchanged.

4.7—Every Senator shall so conduct himself to justify the confidence placed in him by the people and by personal example and admonition to colleagues shall maintain the integrity and responsibility of his office.

Legislative
Conduct

4.8—A Senator shall not accept anything which will improperly influence his official act, decision, or vote.

Improper
Influence

4.9—A member of the Senate shall not allow his personal employment to impair his independence of judgment in the exercise of his official duties.

Conflicting Employment

4.10—A member of the Senate shall not use his influence as a Senator within a state board, commission, or public agency in any matter which involves substantial conflict between his personal interest and his duties in the public interest.

Undue
Influence

4.11(a)—A member of the Senate prior to taking any action or voting upon a measure in which he has a personal, private, or professional interest which would inure to his special private gain or the special gain of any principal to which he is obligated, shall disclose the nature of his interest as a public record in a memorandum filed with the Secretary of the Senate.

Disclosure

4.11(b)—Upon disclosure, a member may disqualify himself from voting on a measure in which he has a conflict of interest.

Disqualification

4.12—A member of the Senate shall hold the employees of his office and all the other legislative employees responsible to the Code of Ethics provided herein.

Legislative
Employees

4.13—A member of the Senate, when in doubt about the applicability and interpretation of this rule in a particular context, shall submit in writing the facts of the situation to the Committee on Ethics of the Senate with a request for an advisory opinion to establish the standard of public duty. An advisory opinion shall be rendered by the Committee, all of said opinions to be numbered, dated, and published in the Journal of the Senate. Said opinions shall not identify the member of the Senate seeking the opinion unless such member so requests.

Advisory Opinions

4.14—Any member requesting an opinion from the Committee on Ethics, after submitting the facts of the situation in writing, may appear in person before the Committee.

Appearance
Before
Committee

4.15—Separately from any prosecutions or penalties otherwise provided by law, any member of the Senate, determined to have violated the requirements of this rule may be censured, reprimanded, placed on probation, or expelled. Such determination and disciplinary action shall be taken by a two-thirds (2/3's) vote of the Senate, upon recommendation of the Committee on Ethics. The Committee on Ethics, before making said recommendation, shall conduct a hearing, after reasonable notice to the Senator alleged to have violated this rule and granting said Senator an opportunity to appear at the hearing.

Penalties for Violations

On motion by Senator Mathews, Rule Four as amended was adopted.

The Committee on Rules and Calendar recommends that Rule Twelve be amended to read as follows:

RULE TWELVE

Lobbying

12.1—All persons, except members of the Florida Legislature, or duly authorized aides designated in writing by such members, who seek to encourage the passage, defeat or modification of any legislation in the Senate or before its committees shall, before engaging in such activity, register with the Secretary of the Senate. Every registrant, in accordance herewith, shall also be required to state the extent of any direct business association or partnership with any current member of the Legislature.

Those required
to register

12.2—Every such person shall register on forms prepared by the Secretary and shall state under oath his name and business address, the name and business address of his principal or principals, the general and specific areas of his legislative interests, and the duration of his agency.

Method of Registration

The Secretary shall publish in the Journal, in tabulation form, a list of those filing the registration statements under this Rule together with the information contained therein, on the first Monday of the session and weekly thereafter.

No registered lobbyist shall be permitted upon the floor of the Senate while it is in session.

12.3—Any person who, on an isolated basis and without intent to continue beyond a single legislative day, merely appears before a committee or committees of the Senate in his individual capacity, or on behalf of a corporation, partnership or other business entity, with which such person is regularly associated as an employee, officer or partner without receiving additional salary or compensation, other than reasonable and ordinary travel expense, to express support of or opposition to any legislation, and who shall so declare to the Senators or committees with whom he discusses any proposed legislation, shall not be required to register as a lobbyist.

12.4—A lobbyist shall supply facts, information, and opinions of principals to legislators from the point of view from which he openly declares. A lobbyist shall not offer or propose anything to improperly influence the official act, decision, or vote of a legislator.

A lobbyist, by personal example and admonition to colleagues, shall uphold the honor of the legislative process by the integrity of his relationship with legislators.

A lobbyist shall not knowingly and willfully falsify a material fact or make any false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement or representation or make or use any writing or document knowing the same contains any false, fictitious, or fraudulent statements or entry.

12.5—A lobbyist shall submit to the Secretary of the Senate at the end of every second legislative week, commencing with the beginning of the session, a signed and certified statement listing all expenditures incurred and sources from which funds for making such expenditures have come. At the end of each calendar quarter, between the first and the tenth day of the ensuing month, each lobbyist, as long as his activity continues, shall submit to the Secretary of the Senate like reports covering those periods in which the legislature is not in session. Within thirty days after the adjournment of the legislature, every lobbyist shall file with the Secretary of the Senate a complete and detailed statement, verified under oath by person making the same, of all expenses paid or incurred in connection with their employment as lobbyist. Said statements shall be rendered in the form provided by the Secretary and shall be open to public inspection.

12.6—A lobbyist when in doubt about the applicability and interpretation of this Code in a particular context may submit in writing a statement of the facts involved to the Committee on Ethics and may appear in person before said Committee.

The Committee on Ethics may render advisory opinions to any lobbyist who seeks advice as to whether or not the facts in a particular case would constitute a violation of these Rules. All opinions shall delete names and be numbered, dated, and published in the Journal of the Senate.

12.7—The Secretary of the Senate shall keep a compilation of all advisory opinions of the Committee on Ethics as well as a current list of registered lobbyists and their respective reports required under these Rules, all of which shall be open to public inspection.

12.8—Separately from any prosecutions or penalties otherwise provided by law, any person determined to have violated the requirements of this Rule shall be censured, reprimanded, placed on probation or prohibited from lobbying for the duration of the session and from appearing before any committee of the Senate. Said determination shall be made by a majority of the Senate, upon recommendation of the Committee on Ethics. The Committee on Ethics, before making said recommendation, shall conduct a hearing, after notifying the person alleged to have violated this Rule and granting such person an opportunity to appear at the hearing.

12.9—(Former Rule 12.5) The Secretary shall provide blank affidavits for the convenience of registrants but the burden of compliance nevertheless always shall be upon the person required to register.

12.10—(Former Rule 12.6) Committees shall be diligent to ascertain whether those who appear before them in other than an obviously individual capacity have conformed with the requirements of this Rule, and to report violations. No committeeman knowingly shall permit an unregistered lobbyist to be heard.

Senator Young offered the following amendment:

In 12.5, Line 25, page 2, strike: the period after "come." and insert the following: , and the names of the legislators receiving directly or indirectly the benefit of those expenditures.

WHEREAS, it is recognized that the dramatic growth and development of Florida has increased the need on the part of government to participate in matters related to the health and welfare of its citizens, and

WHEREAS, the existence of this need has created an increase in governmental participation in matters relating to the health and welfare of Florida citizens, and

WHEREAS, it has become necessary to reevaluate and re-examine the manner of governmental participation in matters related to health and welfare, and

WHEREAS, it is the sense of the legislature of the state of Florida that the most efficient and effective method that can be used to achieve this goal is to provide for an interim study of all state agencies engaging in activities relating to the health and welfare of Florida citizens, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida, the Senate Concurring:

(1) That the legislative council is authorized and hereby directed to make a study of the activities, authority, jurisdiction, and administration of all state agencies charged with responsibilities related to the health and welfare of Florida citizens.

(2) The legislative council shall establish a select committee and engage a special staff for the purpose of conducting such study; provided, however, that the legislative council in the selection of such staff shall rely heavily on the staff of existing agencies subject to the study authorized by this resolution for assistance, including but not limited to professional, administrative, and clerical personnel.

Pursuant to the motion made by Senator Bell on May 19, the Senate took up for consideration as a—

SPECIAL AND CONTINUING ORDER OF BUSINESS

HB 290—A bill to be entitled An act relating to salt water fisheries and conservation; amending section 370.15(2) (a), Florida Statutes; extending regulation to small shrimp taken from within or without the waters of the state; providing certain exceptions; providing an effective date.

On motion by Senator Friday, the rules were waived and HB 290 was read the second time by title.

Senator Young offered the following amendment:

In Section 1, line 9, page 1, strike: "regardless of whether taken within or without the waters of this state." and insert the following: taken within the territorial waters of the state of Florida lying within the area described as follows:

From south point of Cape Romano due west to a water depth, at mean low tide, of eight (8) fathoms, forty-eight

(48) feet, thence in a southerly and westerly direction following the eight (8) fathom forty-eight (48) feet curve, the water depth being taken at mean low tide, approximately 75 miles to Smith Shoal, thence westerly to Rebecca Shoal 35 miles; thence eastwardly along the Florida Keys to the mainland; thence, along the western coast line of Florida in a northerly and westerly direction to the point of beginning.

When small shrimp or prawn are found in this described area the state board of conservation shall close this area to the taking of shrimp as prescribed in section 370.151(3)(c), Florida Statutes, amended to conform to the minimum sizes as set forth in this act.

For the purpose of enforcement, it is further provided that no shrimp boat may be in this described area except when traveling through the area to designated points outside the area or to port, and shall anchor in the area in cases of emergency only.

Senator Stone offered the following amendment to the amendment which was adopted:

At the end of the amendment insert the following: When the said area is closed and during the said term of closure the possession, processing or importation of such shrimp in the state shall be unlawful.

On motion by Senator Young, the amendment as amended was adopted. The vote was:
