Prayer by the Senate Chaplain, Reverend T. Newton Wise:

Our Heavenly Father, we pray that we may learn to use what we have for the best of thy kingdom. Though our knowledge may be limited, we know right from wrong. We need not be rich to be generous, nor have all wisdom to be understanding. Our influence may not be great, but it can be good. Our speech may not be eloquent, but it can be sincere. We may not have good looks, but we can enjoy good conscience. Help us to give all we have in thy service today. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

The pledge of allegiance to the flag of the United States of America pursuant to Senate Rule 7.2:

I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

SCR 1311—A concurrent resolution in memoriam of Luther Christopher Tucker.

WHEREAS, in the death of Honorable Luther Christopher Tucker, a former Senator from the Fifth Senatorial District, the State of Florida lost a valuable citizen, a successful business man and a capable legislator, dedicated to the services of the people of his district and the State in general, and

WHEREAS, out of an abundant appreciation for his unselfish services to the community in which he lived, to the people of his Senatorial District and to the State, and to whose good works and accomplishments we would pay tribute and in whose memory we would record this expression of bereavement in his going, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida, the House of Representatives Concurring:

That this Resolution in testimonial be spread upon the Journals of the Florida Senate and the House of Representatives.

IN MEMORIAM—LUTHER CHRISTOPHER TUCKER

Luther Christopher Tucker was born on February 21, 1911, at Hosford, Liberty County, Florida. He was the son of Marion Luther and Effie G. (Kyle) Tucker. The latter survives him and lives at Crawfordville, Florida.

He attended the public schools of Liberty County, but moved to Crawfordville, Florida, shortly after World War II. He early engaged in the road building and general contracting business, with offices located on the Crawfordville Road at Tallahassee. The firm of Tucker and Sons, Inc., which he established is still in operation.

His wife, who survives him, was Miss Grace M. Spears of Crawfordville, Florida, where she still lives. Their children are Luther, Jr., of Tallahassee, Donald, presently a member of the House of Representatives, 13th District, whose place of residence is Crawfordville, Janice (who predeceased him), and Stanford, who resides with his mother at Crawfordville.

He was a member of the Chamber of Commerce; member and Chairman of the Wakulla County Board of County Commissioners, 1954-1956; a World War II veteran, serving with the U. S. Navy, Construction Battalion, Southwest Pacific Theatre; member of the American Legion, and Veterans of Foreign Wars.

He was a member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, on Stadium Drive in Tallahassee, of which he was one of the founders, and to the development of which he was a devoted adherent. His free contribution of excavating, grading, blacktopping of spacious driveways, and church equipment aided greatly in the establishment of this church from which the first funeral service conducted was that of his own on August 1, 1966.

He was elected to the Senate from the Fifth Senatorial District in 1948 and served until 1952. He was again elected to the Senate in 1960 and served until 1964. Senator Tucker was an effective speaker, devoted to the interests of the people of his district, the ingress and egress from islands which dotted it and to their parks and memorials and was particularly instrumental in the development of the interesting museum at the site of the old Spanish fort first built some 300 years ago at St. Marks. Much of Florida's colorful history is thus preserved for the enjoyment of visitors and to posterity in general in the San Marcos de Apalache Historic Memorial. He was also instrumental in the establishment of the Saint Joseph Peninsular State Park for which ground breaking was held in 1965.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Concurrent Resolution under the Great Seal of the State of Florida be presented to the members of the family of Luther Christopher Tucker with the condolences of this Legislature in Session assembled.

Was read the first time in full. On motions by Senator Gibson, the rules were waived and SCR 1311 was read the second time by title, unanimously adopted, and certified to the House.

By Senators de la Parte, Askew, Bafalis, Barron, Barrow, Bell, Boyd, Broxson, Chiles, Clayton, Cross, Deeb, Edwards, Elrod, Fincher, Fisher, Friday, Gibson, Gong, Griffin, Gunter, Haverfield, Henderson, Hollahan, Horne, Johnson, Knopke, Lane, McClain, Mathews, O'Grady, Ott, Plante, Pope, Poston, Reuter, Saylor, Shevin, Slade, Spencer, Stockton, Stolzenburg, Stone, Thomas, Weber, Weissenborn, Wilson and Young—

SCR 1312—A concurrent resolution in memoriam of Patrick Crisp Whitaker.

WHEREAS, we would ever laud the persistent and consistent adherence to established standards of legal principles and practices, clearness of foresight, keen discernment in the analysis of problems and projects, genius for exactness and painstaking care in details, supplemented by calm deliberation in arriving at judgments and steadfast perseverance in the pursuit of an objective, untiring studiousness and unflagging family loyalty, and

WHEREAS, these traits were so mixed and evident in the life of the man, who answered to the nickname of "Pat" in all circles, that we would record this our testimonial to his true greatness in the years that he graced the bar and legislative halls of the State of Florida, and in bereavement that his fine talents are stilled in death, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida, the House of Representatives Concurring:

That this concurrent resolution be inscribed upon the pages of the Journals of the Senate of the State of Florida and the House of Representatives as a permanent record

IN MEMORIAM—PATRICK CRISP WHITAKER

Patrick Crisp Whitaker was born at Franklin, Georgia, on June 29, 1894, the son of Daniel Brittain and Minnie Beatrice (Armstrong) Whitaker. Upon completion of his primary education and his graduation from the Franklin High School, he decided upon the practice of law as his chosen profession. With set determination and tenacity of purpose he matriculated in 1912 at Georgetown University, Washington, D.C., at that time the foremost law college in the United States. In order to successfully finish his studies, which extended over a period of five years, he worked during the day and attended classes at night. He was proficient in shorthand, which stood him in good stead, for he became secretary to Congressman W. C. Adamson, from the Fourth Congressional District of Georgia, and father of the famous Adamson Bill, which Pat wrote, as secretary, at the Congressman's dictation. Pat was admitted to practice law in the State of Georgia in 1916. When Congressman Adamson retired, after twenty-two years' continuous service, Pat went to Tampa, Florida, to engage in the practice of law. He was admitted to the Florida Bar in 1916. He and his brothers, D. B. and Tom, Sr., formed the law firm of Whitaker Brothers, a member of which firm he remained until the time of his death on September 14, 1965.

He was a member of the Florida House of Representatives 1925-1926 and a member of The Florida Senate 1927-1934, 1939-1942.

In his chosen profession, Pat specialized in criminal law. He was a hard student and when he appeared before a court the eloquence of his oratory, in which he was without peer, was supported by a thorough knowledge of his case and the possession of any and all precedents that might be brought to bear upon it or be offered in support of his argument. The clarity with which he presented any subject at hand, and the force and power of his dynamic utterances won for him recognition as one of Florida's most successful criminal lawyers. He brought to the Legislature the same marked ability that he carried to the courts and in 1931 was elected President of The Florida Senate.

His great abilities as a lawyer and a statesman were unsurpassed and coupled therewith was the laudable and unswerving quality of loyalty to his family and to his friends. No man ever worked harder for or had more intense interest in the members of his family, both immediate and remote, and no man was ever a truer or more loyal friend than was Pat Whitaker to those he called "friend". Through success and adversity, whether financial, political or otherwise, these qualities ever marked him. Likewise, there was no equivocation in his attitude toward one he deemed not in the latter category.

In 1924, he married Pearl Chancey, whose brother, R. E. L. Chancey, was for some years Mayor of the City of Tampa and quite a colorful figure in those days of the city's growth. His gentle and gracious helpmate predeceased Pat in his declining years and the sorrow of this loss intensified the ravages of maladies that inflicted complete invalidism upon him in the last years of his life. Their children are: one daughter, Gloria, now Mrs. William Rex of Belyeu, Venezuela, and two sons, Patrick Crisp and William Brittain. The sons are actively engaged in the practice of law at Tampa as members of the law firm their father helped to establish.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this concurrent resolution, signed by the President and the Secretary of the Senate and by the Speaker and the Clerk of the House of Representatives be forwarded to his family and to Mr. D. Hoyt Woodberry, President of the Havatampa Cigar Company, Tampa, Florida.

Was read the first time in full. On motions by Senator de la Parte, the rules were waived and SCR 1312 was read the second time by title, unanimously adopted, and certified to the House.

By Senators Barron, Askew, Bafalis, Barrow, Bell, Boyd, Broxson, Chiles, Clayton, Cross, Deeb, de la Parte, Edwards, Elrod, Fincher, Fisher, Friday, Gibson, Gong, Griffin, Gunter, Haverfield, Henderson, Hollahan, Horne, Johnson, Knopke, Lane, McClain, Mathews, O'Grady, Ott, Plante, Pope, Poston, Reuter, Saylor, Shevin, Slade, Spencer, Stockton, Stolzenburg, Stone, Thomas, Weber, Weissenborn, Wilson and Young—

SCR 1313—A concurrent resolution in Memoriam of Donald Stuart Gillis.

WHEREAS, there has departed from our midst one who in all of his official capacities exemplified such a high order of ability, unswerving fidelity to the duties of his positions and marked energy in their discharge that his life and achievements might well have inspired the words: "The lives of great men all remind us, We can make our lives sublime and departing leave behind us footprints on the sands of time.", and

WHEREAS, we would record that esteem and respect in which he was held by all who knew him and that loss to the county of his residence and to the State which he so long and unselfishly served, and the bereavement of his going out from amongst us, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida, the House of Representatives Concurring:

That this concurrent resolution be spread upon the pages of the Journals of the Senate of the State of Florida and the House of Representatives as a permanent record.

IN MEMORIAM—DONALD STUART GILLIS

D. Stuart Gillis, as he was usually known, attended the public schools of Walton County, following which he pursued a course at the Florida State Normal College at DeFuniak Springs. While attending the normal school he also taught school in the county. In 1902 and 1903 he attended the Boston Conservatory of Music, where he took vocal lessons, with the intention of entering upon a musical career. Due to the development of a throat trouble he was forced to give up his cherished ambition to become a singer. He returned to DeFuniak Springs and took up the study of law. In 1904 he was made deputy clerk of the court, which position he held in 1905 and 1906 while also serving as town clerk and town treasurer, a member of the National Guard, (1900-1906, discharged as a 1st Lieutenant) and applying himself assiduously to the study of law in the office of Judge L. J. Reeves. He later attended Cumberland University at Lebanon, Tennessee, from which he received a LL.B. degree in 1908. He took his examination in law before the Supreme Court of Florida, was admitted to the Florida Bar on June 12, 1908, and began the practice of law at DeFuniak Springs that same year. In 1909 he was appointed Judge of the Criminal Court of Record of Walton County by Governor Albert W. Gilchrist. He resigned from this position in 1910 and resumed the active practice of law, but in 1912 was elected Judge of the Criminal Court of Record and occupied that position until the court was abolished by the Legislature in 1913, Chapter 6656, Special Acts.

He served as Mayor of DeFuniak Springs 1912-1914.

On April 3, 1912, at DeFuniak Springs, he was married to Miss Bernice Morrison, daughter of Malcolm M. and Chrissie (Bowers) Morrison of Eucheeanna, Walton County, Florida. Mrs. Gillis predeceased him in 1962. Two children were born of this marriage: Lucy, born in August, 1913, died in April, 1919; and Catherine Stuart, now Mrs. Robert Perry, of Silver Spring, Maryland.

He was an Assistant Attorney General 1919-1921; 1941-1943.

He was a member of the House of Representatives of the State of Florida 1918-1920; 1928-1930, and experienced his first service in that body at a special session called in November, 1918, by Governor Sidney J. Catts. In 1924 he was elected to the Florida Senate and served a four-year term. He was again elected to the Senate in 1932 and served through the Session of 1939. In 1937 he was elected President of the Senate, over which he presided with dignity and impartiality.

In 1945 he was elected to the office of Judge of the Circuit Court for the First Judicial Circuit which office he held until he retired in 1966, only a short time before his death on March 26, 1967.

He was a member of the Presbyterian Church in which he served as Deacon; and a member of the Walton County Chamber of Commerce; State Chamber of Commerce; Council of State Governments; Masonic Lodge; Knights of Pythias; Kiwanis and Quarterback Clubs. WHEREAS, by his courage, honesty and distinguished ability he endeared himself to friend and adversary alike, to fellow townsman and state-wide populace, either in person or by reputation, and was to his friends always fair, to his opponents, considerate and in devotion to duty ever firm and unswerving, and

WHEREAS, the record of his life, his achievements and contributions to his townsmen, his county and his state, are such that the recounting thereof must needs afford an inspiration to posterity, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida, the House of Representatives concurring:

That the Legislature in Session assembled does hereby record this testimonial of esteem and expression of bereavement:

IN MEMORIAM

SCOTT DILWORTH CLARKE

Scott Dilworth Clarke, who was referred to by his host of friends and acquaintances by the appellation of either "Judge", "Dil", or "Senator", according to the locality, was born at Monticello, Florida, on March 31, 1881, on the same lot on West Washington Street where he lived until the time of his death on December 28, 1966. He was the son of T. L. Clarke, Sr. and Daisy Bird Clarke. In 1906 he was married to Miss Carrie D. Bailey and to them was born a son, S. D., a daughter, Elise, now Mrs. W. W. Alexander; and a son, Edward Bailey, who died in 1917.

He was the first president of the Monticello Kiwanis Club, a past Worshipful Master of Hiram Lodge No. 5, F. and A. M., a Shriner and an Elk. He was elected Junior Warden of Christ Episcopal Church in 1916 and was a faithful member and officer in the Monticello church the greater part of his life.

He was graduated from the Monticello High School and South Florida Military Institute and studied law at the University of Virginia. In 1901 he was admitted to the practice of law in Florida, and at the time of his death laid claim to being Florida's oldest practitioner. In 1903 he was elected to his first political office, that of Mayor of Monticello. He served fifteen years on the City Council of Monticello and in 1907 was elected to the House of Representatives, where he served two terms before being appointed County Judge of Jefferson County by Governor Gilchrist in 1909, which latter position he held for twelve years. In 1909 he was also appointed county attorney, a position he still held at the time of his death.

In 1916 he succeeded his father as president of the Farmers and Merchants Bank of Monticello, the position he held until 1966 when he sold the major part of his stock to a friend of many years, Senator Wilson Carraway of Tallahassee.

One of the many evidences that as banker, legislator, neighbor and friend he held first place in the hearts of his townsmen was the silver plaque they gave him in 1958 for his then 43 years of service entitling him their "First Citizen".

In 1931 he was elected to his first term in the Senate, in which he probably served more years than any other man in the state's history, and he was the first member of the Senate to be honored with the title of "Dean". That he was held in esteem by friend and adversary alike is attested by the fact that during his last Session, 1965, when the unroseate clouds of reapportionment had long come to roil the Senate horizon, SCR 1100 was adopted, designating that portion of US 90 eastward from Monticello to the Madison County line as the S. D. Clarke Highway. Upon adoption of the Resolution, regardless of political views, Senator after Senator arose and paid tribute to him for personal help received and for the wisdom and fairness as a legislator and kindness as a friend which had so marked his long and faithful service in the Florida Senate. Amid the applause of the Senate, Senator Clarke ascended the rostrum and expressed his thanks to the membership for the unexpected recognition given him.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Concurrent Resolution, signed by the President and the Secretary of the Senate and by the Speaker and the Clerk of the House of Representatives be forwarded to the family of our departed friend.

Was read the first time in full. On motions by Senator Askew, the rules were waived and SCR 1315 was read the second time by title, unanimously adopted, and certified to the House.
