Prayer by the Senate Chaplain, Reverend T. Newton Wise:

God of our fathers, we pray thee today for the nation that the fathers founded. We thank thee for the heritage that has come down to us, bought by other toil and other tears than ours. For great character that has been woven into the fabric of this nation, blessed be thy name! For great leaders whom in crucial times thou hast lifted up to direct our paths, blessed be thy name! Help us today with vivid vision to see the heroes of old who feared thy name. Steady our hands to grasp the torch of the nation's righteousness, which they bequeathed to us. Make stable and wise our minds to understand the high en-trustment, that the light of this people may not fail. Amen.

By direction of the President, the Secretary of the Senate read the following report of Select Committee appointed on April 17, 1967:

REPORT OF SELECT COMMITTEE PURSUANT TO
SENATE RULE 15.2

*The Honorable Verle Pope
President, The Florida Senate
Tallahassee, Florida*

On the 14th day of April 1967, the Honorable Claude R. Kirk, Jr., Governor of the State of Florida transmitted to the Florida Senate for consideration an Executive Order of Suspension in the case of Woodrow J. Darden, member of the Board of Regents of Florida, wherein he recommended the removal of Woodrow J. Darden.

The basis of said recommendation was the return of four indictments against the said Woodrow J. Darden by the Brevard County Grand Jury charging him with "the commission of a felony reflecting misfeasance, malfeasance and incompetency in his office."

Because this Select Committee did not desire to prejudge the guilt or innocence of the said Woodrow J. Darden and being informed that said defendant would be tried prior to the adjournment of this Honorable Body, the committee therefore decided to withhold its investigation until such time as Woodrow J. Darden should be found either guilty or not guilty of said charges.

Your committee has been advised that on the day, May 26, 1967, Woodrow J. Darden was found guilty on one count in said indictment, to wit: unlawfully and feloniously taking, stealing and carrying away certain personal property, the property of the Board of Public Instruction of Brevard County, Florida.

It is therefore the recommendation of this Select Committee of the Florida Senate that the recommendation of the Honorable Claude R. Kirk, Jr., as Governor of the State of Florida, be adopted and that Woodrow J. Darden be removed from the office of the Board of Regents of the State of Florida.

Dated this 30th day of May, 1967.

Signed:
WILLIAM T. STOCKTON, JR.
Senator, 11th District

BETH JOHNSON
Senator, 29th District

LAWTON M. CHILES, JR.
Senator, 28th District

DICK FINCHER
Senator, 47th District

Senator Stockton moved the adoption of the report, and that pursuant thereto the recommendation of the Governor be adopted and Woodrow J. Darden be removed from office as a member of the Board of Regents of the State of Florida. The vote was: Yeas—46 Nays—None

SCR 1329—A concurrent resolution observing Memorial Day.

WHEREAS, since 1868 the thirtieth of May has been observed as a day for giving respect and reverence to those who have died in the military service of our country, and

WHEREAS, this day has especial significance as we presently are engaged in conflict with a communist enemy whose aim is to enslave the world, and

WHEREAS, Americans this day are fighting and dying in Vietnam in the struggle for freedom, and

WHEREAS, it is the desire of this legislature to urge observance of Memorial Day by all citizens of the state, and

WHEREAS, it is the desire of this legislature to honor our dead servicemen and to express appreciation for those who are fighting in Vietnam, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida, the House of Representatives Concurring:

1. That the legislature of Florida recognizes the significance and importance of Memorial Day at a time when members of our armed services are on guard around the world and are fighting and dying in the defense of freedom in southeast Asia and urges all Floridians to join in honoring our war dead on Memorial Day, this May 30, 1967.

2. That the Senate and the House of Representatives meet in joint session at the hour of 11:00 A. M. on Tuesday, May 30th, to solemnly observe Memorial Day and pay tribute to our soldiers on foreign soil to whom we are so heavily indebted and we sincerely present a tribute to those who have preserved our freedom.

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE AND OTHER RESOLUTIONS

SCR 1310—A concurrent resolution to recognize the distinguished contribution made by Dr. J. Wayne Reitz, President of the University of Florida, to the State of Florida and the advancement and promotion of higher education in Florida.

WHEREAS, for the past twelve (12) years, Dr. J. Wayne Reitz has ably served the University of Florida and the State of Florida as president of the University, and

WHEREAS, under his vigorous leadership the University of Florida has grown in both size and stature until it is now recognized as one of the leading universities in our nation, and

WHEREAS, Dr. Reitz is ending his distinguished tenure as president of the University of Florida as an internationally respected leader in higher education, and

WHEREAS, his tireless efforts have resulted in the assembling of a truly distinguished faculty and student body, and

WHEREAS, through his guidance, the human and material resources of the State of Florida have been greatly augmented by the contribution of the University in research and extension as well as on-campus instruction, and

WHEREAS, he has served long and faithfully to promote and advance the cause of higher education for the benefit of all mankind; NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida, the House of Representatives Concurring:

That the 1967 legislature of Florida recognize and pay tribute to the distinguished record of service made by Dr. J. Wayne Reitz in the twelve (12) years he has devoted himself to the service of the young people of Florida.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the legislature commend Dr. J. Wayne Reitz for his unselfish and distinguished service in advancing the good causes of education, and thus contributing immeasurably to the progress of Florida.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this concurrent resolution be sent not only to Dr. J. Wayne Reitz as an expression of the gratitude of this legislature, but to all of the institutions of higher learning in the state of Florida as an inspiration to their students and faculties.

Was taken up and read the second time in full. On motion by Senator Cross, SCR 1310 was unanimously adopted and certified to the House.

On motion by Senator Cross that a committee be appointed to escort Dr. Reitz to the rostrum, the President appointed Senators Cross, Mathews and Askew.

The Committee escorted Dr. Reitz to the rostrum where he received a standing ovation and addressed the Senate.

HCR 1549—A concurrent resolution declaring Saturday, July 22, 1967, Festival State Day; recognizing the economic, education, entertainment and cultural benefits of the Florida International Music Festival at Daytona Beach and urging all serious music students and interested citizens of the State to take advantage of this outstanding and exceptional opportunity.

WHEREAS, prior to the summer of 1966 there was no major music festival in the southeastern United States although that region of our country has a population of more than 38,000,000 and

WHEREAS, a major music festival provides entertainment for all as well as many opportunities for serious music students, music teachers and professional musicians to enjoy good music, sharpen their musical skill and receive college credits for doing so, and

WHEREAS, a group of citizens of Volusia county, recognizing the need for a music festival and the obvious benefits that would flow from a successful program, organized, in 1966, the Florida International Music Festival at Daytona Beach, and

WHEREAS, in July and August, 1966, the London Symphony Orchestra, Great Britain's oldest and most distinguished orchestra, appeared in sixteen concerts under the direction of Colin Davis, music director of the BBC Symphony Orchestra and a regular London Symphony Orchestra conductor, and

WHEREAS, the 1966 Florida International Music Festival was attended by thousands of music lovers and was so well received and was so successful that it has been determined to make it an annual affair, and

WHEREAS, the London Symphony Orchestra has consented to return for the 1967 festival to be held July 12 through August 6, 1967, and to appear in sixteen concerts, four chamber concerts, four open rehearsals and to provide three solo concerts and a music institute, and

WHEREAS, the Florida International Music Festival at Daytona Beach provides an opportunity for excellent entertainment for residents and visitors and an educational experience for those seriously interested in music, and

WHEREAS, the Florida International Music Festival has already become nationally and internationally well-known and brings to Florida the kind of publicity that benefits the State and adds to its economic growth, and

WHEREAS, July 22, 1967, will be Festival State Day marked by a reception, banquet and concert in honor of the elected leaders of our State, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida, the Senate Concurring:

That the 1967 Legislature of the State of Florida in regular session, in recognition, honor and appreciation of the Florida International Music Festival for its contribution to entertainment, education, cultural development and economic assistance, does hereby declare Saturday, July 22, 1967, Festival State Day.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that all Florida citizens are urged to take advantage of this outstanding and exceptional opportunity.

Was taken up and read the second time in full. On motion by Senator O'Grady, HCR 1549 was adopted and certified to the House.
