Prayer by the Senate Chaplain, Reverend Alva H. Brock:

As we pray, let us recall the words of Paul: "I have strength for anything through Him who gives me power." Philippians 4:13.

God of grace and God of power, let your divine energy and strength flow into each of these, your servants. May they sense your light surrounding them, your love enfolding them, your power protecting them. Our prayer on this Monday morning is that of the Brittany fishermen, "Keep us, O God! The sea is so big and our boats are so little!"

May these, O God, as they labor in turbulent waters know without any question that you labor with them and in them and through them. May they bring their best to the highest they know and there find: wisdom to see the truth, courage to make the right decisions, power to comprehend with compassion the real needs of our state.

May they know that they have the strength for anything through you, O God, who gives them power. In the name of Jesus, Amen.

The Senate pledged allegiance to the flag of the United States of America pursuant to Senate Rule 4.3.
