MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Governor advised that on May 13 he had filed in the Office of the Secretary of State SB 194 which will become law without his approval.

The Governor advised that on May 13 he had filed in the Office of the Secretary of State SM 249 and Senate Concurrent Resolutions 502 and 568.

MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The Honorable John E. Mathews, Jr. May 12, 1969
President of the Senate

Sir:

I am directed to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has adopted—SM 343

Respectfully,
ALLEN MORRIS
Clerk, House of Representatives

The bill, contained in the above message, was ordered enrolled.

The Honorable John E. Mathews, Jr. May 12, 1969
President of the Senate

Sir:

I am directed to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has adopted—

By Representative Craig and others—

HCR 935—A concurrent resolution commemorating the passing of Harold Wilfred Colee.

WHEREAS, the House of Representatives has learned with deep regret of the passing of Harold Wilfred Colee, who gave years of vigorous and thoughtful action to the promotion of Florida's growth in many fields, and

WHEREAS, with the death of Harold Colee at Jacksonville on December 17, 1968, Florida lost a distinguished citizen, whose service was characterized by unusually high devotion to the state's betterment, and

WHEREAS, Harold Colee was born October 11, 1894, in St. Augustine, of a pioneer Florida family; attended school in St. Augustine; joined the Florida East Coast Railroad staff and rose to the position of Director of Public Relations at the age of thirty-two, and at forty-one commenced a four year tour of duty as President of the Florida State Chamber of Commerce, after which he continued as the State Chamber's Executive Vice President until his death, a thirty-three year span of distinguished performance, and

WHEREAS, the Right Reverend Monsignor Nolan expressed this exceedingly well when, at a memorial service for Mr. Colee, he said: "I think there is no man in the State of Florida who could claim to be so well known and to have so many friends," and

WHEREAS, Monsignor Nolan went on to say, "I considered Harold Colee to be a citizen of two worlds. He was first of all a citizen of this world and he carried out his citizen's duties in a very steady, remarkably faithful manner, all through the years," and

WHEREAS, Monsignor Nolan continued, "I knew Mr. Colee possibly a little more as a citizen of the other world. He was a citizen of the next world, a citizen of the eternal world, and I always remarked that, despite how busy he might be with the affairs of this world, he never allowed them to interfere with his duties and responsibilities as a citizen of the next world. He was not only a man of faith, of deep spiritual faith in his God, but he was a faithful man, and, believe it or not, there is a difference between a man of faith and a faithful man. A man may have faith and, in spite of his faith, be very careless, negligent of his duties, of his spiritual duties. Whereas, a faithful man who has faith is diligent in observance of all his religious duties and responsibilities to his God," and

WHEREAS, as the Florida State Chamber of Commerce declared, by a resolution of its Board of Directors, Harold Colee was a builder. He was concerned not only with the physical, as expressed by the construction of the State Chamber's headquarters building, as expressed in his life, as implemented through his religion, his family, his love of public speaking, and the establishment of such programs as the Student-Teacher Achievement Recognition Program known as "STAR," NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring:

That the Legislature express its regret over the passing of Harold Wilfred Colee and acknowledge with appreciation and gratitude his life and services.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this concurrent resolution, signed by the Speaker and attested to by the Clerk of the House of Representatives and by the President and Secretary of the Senate, be forwarded with the sympathy and condolences of the Legislature, to Mrs. Harold Colee and to Mr. Harold W. Colee, Jr.

—and requests the concurrence of the Senate therein.

Respectfully,
ALLEN MORRIS
Clerk, House of Representatives

EXPLANATION OF VOTE

My vote against SB 891 was not based on the merits, for or against, the proposed legislation. I voted against the bill because the legislative delegation made a decision (publicly stated) that no legislation affecting Nassau County would be introduced unless the proposed legislation was duly advertised and properly considered before a public hearing.

The subject contained in this bill has not been discussed at public hearings as agreed beforehand.
