Senator Shevin also offered and moved the following amendment:

In Section 9, lines 8-24, page 13, strike entire sub-paragraph (b) and insert the following:

(b) During such time as the legislature is not in session, a person shall be in contempt of any standing or select committee or any sub-committee thereof who:

1. shall fail to respond to the lawful subpoena or subpoena duces tecum of any such committee, or having responded fails to answer all lawful inquiries or turn over any documents or other evidence that has been subpoenaed, as required by any such committee, or

2. shall display a disorderly or contemptuous conduct in the presence of or towards any such committee.

(c) Upon such contemptuous conduct as set forth above in subparagraph (b) 1 or (b) 2, the committee or sub-committee may file a petition, sworn to by the chairman of such committee or sub-committee, with the circuit court having jurisdiction over the place where such hearing is being held or was held or where such act or refusal to act occurred, setting forth such failure or refusal of the witness to respond or the facts constituting the disorderly or contemptuous conduct.

(d) On the filing of such petition the court shall take jurisdiction of such person and the subject matter of such petition.

1. Upon the allegation in such petition that the witness failed to respond to the lawful subpoena or subpoena duces tecum or having responded failed to answer all lawful inquiries or turn over documents or other evidence as required, the court upon determining the legality of the committee process, or the lawfulness of the questions propounded to the witness, shall direct the witness to respond to such lawful questions or to produce all documentary evidence in his possession, or to respond to the lawful process. The failure of any witness to respond pursuant to the order of the court shall constitute a direct and criminal contempt of the court and the court shall punish said witness accordingly.

2. Upon the allegation in such petition alleging the disorderly or contemptuous conduct in the presence of or toward such committee or sub-committee, or select committee, the court shall determine the severity of such conduct and upon finding that the witness is guilty thereof punish such witness for contempt by fine not exceeding one thousand dollars ($1,000) or by imprisonment not exceeding one (1) year or by both such fine and imprisonment.
