MESSAGES FROM THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The Honorable John E. Mathews, Jr.

December 2, 1969

President of the Senate

Sir:

I am directed to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has admitted for introduction and consideration by the required constitutional two-thirds vote of all members and has adopted—

By Representative Fleece and others—

HCR 2-A—A concurrent resolution commemorating the passing of the Honorable W. A. "Bill" Ballentine, Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives.

WHEREAS, the Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives, W. A. "Bill" Ballentine, passed away on September 15, 1969, and

WHEREAS, the House and its Members, collectively and individually, suffered a grievous loss through Sergeant Ballentine's death, and

WHEREAS, during his service to the House, beginning in 1961 as an aide assigned to the Office of the Clerk and in 1962 and thereafter as Sergeant at Arms, Bill Ballentine was a man utterly devoted to the House and its Members, and

WHEREAS, Bill Ballentine was possessed of a warmth of personality and a strength of judgment that made it possible for him to enforce the Rules and regulations of the House with impartiality and yet retain the friendship of those who at times wanted special treatment, and

WHEREAS, Sergeant Ballentine personified the ideal legislative officer in that he always was mindful of the fact that the 119 Members of the House of Representatives and the 48 members of the Senate were equals among equals, and he treated each alike with fairness, courtesy, and efficiency, and

WHEREAS, Sergeant Ballentine likewise was mindful of the fact that those who serve the Legislature also serve the general citizenry and will be remembered as a public servant who was thoughtful, courteous, hardworking, and a true watchdog of the treasury, and

WHEREAS, Sergeant Ballentine exemplified the careerists among those who serve the Legislature, in that he never was a partisan and gave even-handed consideration to Members from both political parties, and

WHEREAS, Bill Ballentine will be remembered, too, as an individual in that he was a devoted husband and father with a quiet and resolute dedication to Christian principles, and

WHEREAS, there is among those who serve in the House, as Members or as staff, a bond of affinity which well may set them apart as colleagues in a common cause, thus it may be said with John Donne that the lives of each of us was diminished with the death of Bill Ballentine because all of us were involved with him in a memorable experience, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the House of Representatives of the State of Florida, the Senate Concurring:

That the Legislature record its heartfelt regret over the passing of W. A. "Bill" Ballentine, Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives, and

That the Legislature express this sense of loss to Mrs. Ballentine, known to most of its members as Mildred, and to the others of Sergeant Ballentine's family, and

That, in token of the Legislature's sympathy, a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to Mrs. Ballentine.

—and requests the concurrence of the Senate therein.

Respectfully,
ALLEN MORRIS
Clerk, House of Representatives
