Prayer by Senator Barrow:

Good morning Lord—What a great and beautiful day
Because I walked with you this morning
On my way to capitol hill;
In the dim-lit glow of dawning

With your world yet hushed and still.
Through dew-covered, cow-grazed meadows—
Through fields of month old corn
I measured life's death shadows
And gave thanks that I was born.
Thy sun shattered today's horizon
Bathing clouds in hues of gold;
All nature sang life's mating songs
Earth's future to uphold.
So, God, I kneel, head bowed with tear-dimmed
Eyes, this humble thanks to give—
That ere life comes eternal,
Today on earth I live. Amen.

Mr. President, many of the Senators know the inspiration behind the prayer I wrote and delivered to the Senate today. Because of my great love for the two sons of the Senator from the 4th, Steve and Stuart Barron, I presented them with copies of my prayer in the form of a poem before delivering it to the Senate with appropriate remarks. Steve Barron responded by writing a poem for me which I now read to the Senate. The words contained in the poem of Steve Barron is a tribute to the young people of today and shall always be an inspiration to me. I request his poem be spread upon the Journal of the Senate following my prayer.

In the growing shadows of the setting sun,
Knowing that my life is a grateful one;
I thank the Lord who watches from his mighty throne,
To be able to grow up in the world that I have known.
And as I kneel in the grass to pray,
The final ending comes to the glorious day.
That's when I lift my eyes to the sky above,
And give thanks to the Lord, the one that I love.

Steve Barron

SCR 1206—A concurrent resolution expressing the admiration and respect of the Legislature of the State of Florida to Charles F. Hesser, upon his retirement, after 25 years of reporting the news from Tallahassee during legislative sessions, and a total of more than 30 years in newspaper reporting.

WHEREAS, Charles F. Hesser, who is affectionately known to his many friends as "Charlie" Hesser, is retiring this year from a career spanning more than three decades in newspaper reporting, and

WHEREAS, after "Charlie" was graduated from the University of Florida in 1935, he began his journalism career by publishing a weekly newspaper in High Springs, Florida, and

WHEREAS, thereafter "Charlie" did news reporting for "The Lake City Herald", "The Columbus Ledger Enquirer", and "The Jacksonville Journal", and

WHEREAS, after serving with the U. S. Navy in World War II, "Charlie" joined "The Miami Daily News" (now "The Miami News") in 1946, and

WHEREAS, during "Charlie's" 25 years with the "Miami News", he covered almost every legislative session held during said period, being the only reporter the "Miami News" would send to Tallahassee to cover the Legislature between the years 1946 and 1970, and

WHEREAS, "Charlie" was recognized by his professional colleagues in 1957 by being elected president of the Legislative Press Club, and

WHEREAS, "Charlie" was, at all times during his career, "a newspaper reporter" in the finest sense of that term, his qualifications including:

A passion for the truth; aggressiveness in seeking out the complete truth; accuracy in reporting that truth; and at the same time, a deep respect for his fellow man as has been evidenced by his steadfast refusal "to make news" at the expense of a person's reputation, and

WHEREAS, "Charlie" is retiring from his position with "The Miami News" in May of this year, Now Therefore

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida, the House of Representatives Concurring:

That we, the members of the Florida Legislature, in our own behalf and in behalf of those who preceded us as members of the Senate and House of Representatives, salute "Charlie" Hesser on the occasion of his retirement after 30 years of dedicated service to his chosen profession of newspaper reporting; we express our thanks to him for being the nice guy that he is; and we wish him the very best in all of his future endeavors.

On motion by Senator Weissenborn, the following remarks were ordered spread upon the pages of the Journal:

Senator Gong: Mr. President and Senators, I know we are very, very busy but this will take only a few minutes. This concurrent resolution recognizes the 30 years of service in the journalism balcony of this legislature by Charlie Hesser, who is retiring from the Miami News. He has been the "man in the legislature" on this newspaper which has won the Pulitzer Prize more than any newspaper in the State of Florida. Charlie is retiring on the 28th of May. Many of you know him personally and that is one member of the press who has always been extremely fair, under all trying controversial circumstances and issues before the Senate and the House. He is a person who has lived up to the highest ideals of journalism to report what he sees fairly and objectively and to give both sides of the question, even though he feels strongly in some respects. I think those of us who served in reapportionment sessions know that Charlie Hesser has always had empathy and sympathy for all points of view. Mr. President, there are others of my colleagues who would like to say something, so I won't attempt to take up all their time but I urge all of you to support this resolution.

Senator Hollahan: Mr. President and Senators, perhaps more than any other member of the press corps, all honorable men and women in their professions, Charlie Hesser had the confidence of us of the Dade delegation—I know he had mine. As dean of that delegation, I respected him as dean of the press corps, you might say, but more than that, as a personal friend. I knew whenever I said "off the record" to Charlie Hesser it was respected that way and this is a mighty important confidence for anyone to have in another fellow human being. I just have to say that I admired him tremendously. I hate to see him retire. He was one of those who really served his profession, his county and his state well and we will always remember that service.

Senator Haverfield: Mr. President, I want to reiterate with regard to paying tribute to a great man and a great newspaper reporter through the years that I have had the privilege and pleasure of knowing him. I want to say that Charlie Hesser is one of those rare individuals who has the faculty of being reporter in all respects, discharge his responsibilities as a reporter, and at the same time have the confidence of those people he talks to in developing his stories and in his duties as a reporter. I have known Charlie for many, many years and he is one of the few people I feel who has obtained a status in responsible reporting where if you receive a call from Charlie Hesser you look forward to talking to him. This is a rare experience for elective officials.

Senator Stolzenburg: Often times, Mr. President and Senators, we pick up a newspaper and read a report of some action as taken in the Senate and it appears to be untruthful or a coloring of the facts. Now I have never yet read an article written by Mr. Hesser that I had to wonder whether or not the information contained in that article was factual or not. Never once have I questioned any remarks that he has made in written form in the newspapers as being coloring of the truth, and I would like to add my congratulations to him and the best in the future.

Senator Boyd: Mr. President and Senators, I would just like for Charlie Hesser to know that during the 13 years I have spent here I feel that the press has just as much responsibility to the people of Florida as those of us on this Senate floor, and he has my complete admiration and respect and I hate to see him leave the halls of this legislature.

Senator Pope: Charlie Hesser was here when I first came to this Senate and I don't know how long he had been here prior to that time. He impressed me from the start as a man who was always seeking to do the right thing to represent the news story as it actually was and always seeking the truth. Through the years I learned to respect him, we became very great friends, we're going to miss him insofar as the news media is concerned but I look forward to spending some time with him possibly fishing out of a boat somewhere to continue our very favorable companionship which we have had through the years.

Senator Karl: Mr. President, I would simply like to add a remark along the same lines and say that I think freedom of the press is a great freedom, one that we ought to preserve, but we all realize that in the name of freedom of speech and freedom of the press there are sometimes abuses and I can say, without equivocation, insofar as Charlie Hesser is concerned, I am willing to and always have been willing to repose the full freedom of the press in his hands for, in my opinion, he is not capable of abusing it.

Senator Weissenborn: Just to add a few remarks. All the members of the Dade delegation and Senators Thomas, Karl, Pope and Horne and now Senator Stolzenburg have co-introduced this resolution. Some of you who are newer might not know Charlie Hesser. He is retiring after some 30 years in the newspaper business. He is retiring this month. I have known him for all the years I have been in politics, which goes back 15 years perhaps, and I just say to you that sometimes when these resolutions come up and you don't know the person being talked about sometimes, you wish we would move along...but, you know, when one has so well reported the scene for 25 years in Tallahassee, I think it is not inappropriate that those of us who have known him ought to pause a few minutes and say "we're going to miss you" and I would just simply say that in all the years that I have known him he's not only reported the truth accurately but he never went out of his way one time, ever, to take an unfair cut at somebody. If he couldn't say something nice, he reported factually, but he never tried to slant the news, and I would just simply say that not only was he a darned good newspaper man but he was one of the most decent human beings I have ever known. I will miss him here on the scene in Tallahassee and in Miami.

Senator Gong: Mr. President, I think that in closing in talking about Charlie Hesser, one thing we should mention is that he's always tried to encourage young legislators and help them. There are many in this body and in the House of Representatives—people that Charlie helped by giving advice and counsel...but in doing that he never did hesitate if he thought it was the truth, to report, even though it hurt someone that he liked very much, and had tried to help up the ladder of public service. He is a fine person, a fine family man and we are going to miss him. I think, most of all, the people who have read Charlie Hesser the last 25 years are going to perhaps suffer the loss in the area of fair and objective outstanding reporting.

President: When Senators vote, their vote will indicate their desire also to be shown as a co-sponsor of this resolution commending this fine journalist.
