Prayer by Senator Karl:

As we begin the difficult and divisive consideration of re-districting and reapportionment, let us say again the familiar prayer of St. Francis:

“LORD, Make me an instrument of Thy Peace;
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is darkness, light; and
Where there is sadness, joy.
Divine Master,
Grant that I may not so much seek to be
Consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love;
For it is in giving that we receive;
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.”

The Journal of March 21 was corrected and approved as follows.

Sir:

I am directed to inform the Senate that the House of Representatives has concurred in Senate amendment 2 and in Senate amendment 1 as amended by House amendment and passed as further amended—

By the Committee on Education and Representative Sessums—

CS for HB 2986—A bill to be entitled An act relating to education; amending section 231.10, Florida Statutes, abolishing the teacher education advisory council and creating the Florida council on teacher education; providing for twenty-three (23) members; providing for a chairman; prescribing the procedure for appointments and terms of office; providing for reimbursement for expenses; prescribing duties of the council; providing an effective date.

Senate Amendment 1

On page 1, line 20, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:

Section 1. Section 231.10, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

"Substantial rewording of section. See section 231.10, Florida Statutes, for present text."

231.10 Florida council on teacher education—There is hereby created the Florida council on teacher education to consist of twenty-three (23) members appointed by the state board of education, pursuant to section 20.15(10), Florida Statutes. A panel of three (3) nominees for each place on the council shall be submitted to the commissioner of education by each of the following:

(1) Eight (8) members shall be designated from institutions of higher learning in the state which offer programs for the preparation of teachers;

(a) Five (5) members representing the institutions of higher learning shall be from the colleges of education of public institutions nominated by the board of regents or its successor;

(b) Two (2) members representing the institutions of higher learning shall be from the colleges of education of private institutions nominated by the independent colleges and universities of Florida, Inc.;

(c) One (1) member representing the institutions of higher learning shall be from the colleges of arts and sciences of public institutions nominated by the board of regents or its successor;

(2) One (1) member shall be a representative of the public junior colleges nominated by the council of presidents of the public junior colleges;

(3) One (1) member shall be a high school principal nominated by the Florida association of secondary school principals;

(4) One (1) member shall be an elementary school principal nominated by the Florida elementary school principals association;

(5) Seven (7) members shall be teachers nominated by the Florida education association, two (2) of whom shall be high school teachers, two (2) of whom shall be middle school or junior high school teachers, two (2) of whom shall be elementary school teachers, and one (1) of whom shall be a vocational-technical education teacher;

(6) One (1) member shall be a director of in-service staff development in a school district nominated by the director of in-service staff development;

(7) One (1) member shall be a county superintendent nominated by the Florida association of county superintendents; and

(8) One (1) member shall be a lay person and a member of a county board of public instruction nominated by the Florida school boards association, Inc., and two (2) members shall be lay persons who are parents of children attending the public school system and who are not employed in the educational system of the state or any district therein, said two (2) lay members to be nominated by the commissioner of education.

(9) If in making nominations to the state board of education the commissioner determines that the nominees received as designated herein do not constitute fair and just representation of all employee personnel in a category he shall notify the governor of this fact and the governor shall nominate a panel of two (2) for the membership designated by the commissioner.

Section 2. Members shall serve for three-year overlapping terms and shall be entitled to reimbursement for expenses of attending meetings of the council. Reimbursement for such expenses shall be made by the state treasurer from funds appropriated for the state department of education on warrants drawn by the state comptroller upon requisitions approved by the department of education.

Section 3. If a member is absent from any four (4) regularly scheduled meetings in any calendar year, his office as a member of the council shall be deemed vacant.

Section 4. The council, by majority vote of all its members, shall elect its own chairman from among its members and adopt bylaws for its own governance.

Section 5. The council shall report to the commissioner of education and shall have the following duties:

(1) Make recommendations for desirable standards relating to programs and policies for the development, certification, improvement, and maintenance of competencies of educational personnel;

(2) To aid in planning and conducting an annual review of man power studies regarding teaching personnel and report findings to the commissioner of education;

(3) Make recommendations for objective, independently verifiable standards of measurement and evaluation of teaching competence; and

(4) Make recommendations to the commissioner of education for alternative ways to demonstrate qualifications for certification which insure fairness and flexibility while protecting against incompetence.

Section 5. The council shall invite the public, the teaching profession, and interested professional groups and associations to appear before it and submit proposals for council action, and to assist it in accomplishing its duties.

Section 6. The council shall present to the commissioner of education on or before January 1 of each year its recommendations.

Section 7. This act shall take effect July 1, 1972.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE

The Committee on Rules, Calendar, Privileged Business and Ethics recommends the following amendment to the Senate Rules:

Add a new rule to be Rule Fifteen:

15.1. This rule applies to all bills relating to legislative and congressional redistricting, shall become effective upon its adoption and shall prevail for the term of the 1972 regular session, any extension thereof and during any 1972 special session.

Notwithstanding any rule to the contrary, any Senator or the Committee on Reapportionment and Redistricting may introduce a bill relating to reapportionment or redistricting upon delivery to the Secretary of the Senate for the next ensuing order of introduction and reference of bills.

The Committee on Reapportionment and Redistricting shall meet on call of the Chairman after announcement of the time and place during an open session of the Senate.

The failure to consider or a negative vote upon any plan by the Committee on Reapportionment and Redistricting shall not preclude an amendment by a Senator embracing such plan.

On motion by Senator Hollahan, the foregoing report was adopted.

Senator Hollahan, chairman of the Committee on Rules, Calendar, Privileged Business and Ethics, stated that the self-destruct clause contained in the foregoing rule governed sessions only as specified therein.

Senator Scarborough obtained unanimous consent to place HB 4104 prior to SB 99 on the calendar.
