EXPLANATION OF VOTE ON CS for SB 629

CS for SB 629 is a bill that concentrates more power in state government, usurps the zoning and planning powers of local government (after two legislative sessions geared toward placing more power in local government), discriminates against owners and developers of land and all the employees in construction and related industries, while it specifically exempts from its tentacles the giant land sale developers in the state. CS for SB 629 was a usurpation of the property rights of individuals when it was first introduced and it was the same usurpation of property rights when the first substitute amendment was adopted.

I tried the full legislative day to amend this confiscatory bill to give it some semblance of fairness to the property owners of this state but I failed in every amendment try. On final passage I was still opposed to the confiscatory features of this bill but voted "yes" on final passage with the hope that some members of the Senate might be prevailed upon to change their vote and I would be on the prevailing side to ask for reconsideration on Wednesday morning.

Richard Deeb, 22nd District

On motion by Senator Daniel, HB 3937 was withdrawn from the Committee on Governmental Efficiency by two-thirds vote and placed on the calendar.
