We remind ourselves, almighty God, of the wise man Solomon who taught us that the person who is slow to anger is stronger than the mighty and whoever controls his emotions than the soldiers who capture a city. Grant us these capacities that we may govern with understanding and compassion.

Help us, our God, to weigh our decisions in the balances of our wisdom then courageously defend our cause. If our cause be overcome grant us the grace of tolerance so necessary to the greater good of our democratic freedom. We thank you for the privilege of the democratic process which even in its deficiencies still gives us a happier way of life. Amen.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 401

A CONCURRRNT RESOLUTION IN MEMORIAM MARION BARTLEY KNIGHT

WHEREAS, in the annals of those who have been motivated by high resolve and a determination to achieve an objective, no record exceeds that of Marion Bartley Knight, known to friends and contemporaries simply as Bart, and

WHEREAS, his was a life devoted to the faithful service of his family, church, community and state, and

WHEREAS, as a member of the legal profession and of the legislature, Bart Knight left an indelible impression on those who knew him for tenacity in accomplishing a given undertaking and for earnest attention to duty in matters entrusted to him, and

WHEREAS, we would record our gratitude for his contributions to society and express our condolences in his demise, NOW, THEREFORE,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF FLORIDA, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING:

That this resolution be spread upon the Journals of the Senate and the House of Representatives of the State of Florida—

IN MEMORIAM MARION BARTLEY KNIGHT

—who was born in Cottdondale, Florida, on July 24, 1901, the son of Emma O. Henderson and Francis Marion Knight, a newspaper publisher in Blountstown, and grandson of the Rev. John Thomas Knight, organizer of some 50 Free Will Baptist churches in south Georgia and Alabama and northwest Florida. Bart Knight was educated in the public schools of Calhoun County; attended the University of Florida, where he edited the Florida Alligator; and saw service in World War I. During the 1920's he worked as a linotype operator and reporter for the Atlanta Constitution in Georgia and for the Meridian Star in Mississippi and was the owner and editor of The County Record in Blountstown and of a newspaper at Chipley. He attended Cumberland Law School in Tennessee and was admitted to the Florida Bar in 1929.

At the beginning of his legal career, he was married to Virginia Guilford of Blountstown, Florida, who survives him together with their sons, Rev. Francis A. Knight of Blountstown, Dr. Marion B. Knight, Jr. of Panama City, and Phillip J. Knight, an attorney, of Blountstown, and a stepson, William A. Cayson of Tampa. The death of their only daughter, Mary Virginia, a brilliant student, who died from an incurable illness shortly before her 24th birthday, was an almost insurmountable tragedy for Mr. Knight.

His successful law practice, commenced in Blountstown in 1929, spanned 45 years. An ardent opponent of capital punishment, Bart Knight became renowned as one of the best criminal lawyers in north Florida. For many years, he served as county attorney and as county prosecuting attorney for Calhoun and Liberty Counties, city attorney for Blountstown, and school board attorney for Calhoun County. He was a past president of the 14th Circuit Bar Association.

Bart Knight was a devout member, steward and lay speaker of the United Methodist Church of Blountstown, where he taught the Men's Bible Class for over 30 years and maintained an unbroken record of attendance in Sunday School for more than 40 years. He held the Silver Beaver Award of the Boy Scouts of America. He was a charter member, past president and past zone chairman of the Lions Club; a member of the Moose, American Legion, Masons, Order of the Eastern Star, Scottish Rite Temple in Panama City and Hadji Temple in Pensacola; and in 1932-1935, a member of the State Democratic Executive Committee.

Bart Knight's legislative career began in 1952 when he was elected to represent Calhoun County in the House of Representatives, in which he served two terms. In 1956, he was elected to the Senate from the 25th Senatorial District, comprised of Bay, Calhoun, Gulf and Washington Counties. During his tenure in the Senate, Knight held many important committee assignments, including service as Chairman of the Committee on Motor Vehicles and as Vice-Chairman of the Committee on Welfare, but it was his chairmanship of the Judiciary Committee, which became known as "The Killer Committee" from the now-prohibited practice of proxy voting, that gained Bart Knight, in those days of reapportionment tension, statewide and longlasting notoriety.

In his legislative service, Knight was ever-faithful to the interests of the majority bloc of which he was counted a leader. There is an interesting anecdote which demonstrates this. Always punctual and regular in attendance at legislative sessions, Senator Knight once risked his life in his determination to answer roll call. Governor LeRoy Collins had called an Extraordinary Session to be convened on Monday, September 30, 1957, at 12:00 o'clock, Noon, for the purpose of constitutional revision and statutory implementation of new provisions dealing with reapportionment. To reach Tallahassee, it was necessary for Knight to cross the rain-swollen Ochlocknee River. Although the road was under water, he attempted to cross the bridge. Suddenly, the dam at the west end of Lake Talquin broke, and a wall of water descended upon him. He climbed out through the window of his car, but was swept away by the angry waters until he grasped a tree to which he clung for several hours before his rescue by a boatman. From his hospital bed in Quincy, he sent word to his fellow senators not to reapportion until he arrived, which he did on October 2, the second day of the session, seemingly none the worse for his ordeal.

Marion Bartley Knight, veteran legislator, criminal lawyer and newspaperman, died in Blountstown on April 8, 1974. We pay tribute to the gallantry of his spirit; he will live on in the minds and hearts of his friends and colleagues.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that copies of this concurrent resolution, duly attested, together with the condolence of these bodies, be presented to the family of our esteemed former colleague, Marion Bartley Knight.

The President introduced to the Senate the following members of Senator Knight's family: his wife, Mrs. Marion B. Knight; his sons, the Reverend Francis A. Knight of Blountstown, Dr. Marion B. Knight, Jr., and his wife DeAnn of Panama City, and Mr. Philip J. Knight and his wife Betsy of Blountstown.

Senator MacKay presiding.
