Senators, this morning I will ask God to bring to your remembrance, especially during our bicentennial year, things that made America great in the past—Faith in God, freedom from too many laws and good hard work.

Our Heavenly Father, we thank thee for your many blessings to us. We ask, Lord, that you would give these men and women strength and wisdom for the job they have before them. We pray, Lord, that the laws they make will only be those necessary to maintain our freedoms; and that your word, the Holy Bible, will be their guide. Help these men and women to be the leaders they should be. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.
