Excused: Senator Neal

Prayer by Joe Brown, Secretary of the Senate

O Lord, it's hard to be humble, so grant these Senators an extra measure of humility in order that they may place the interests of the people above self-adoration. Grant them the will to do it and then comfort in the knowledge that they were right. Amen.

MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR AND OTHER EXECUTIVE COMMUNICATIONS

June 10, 1980

*Honorable Philip D. Lewis
President, Florida Senate*

Dear Mr. President:

In accordance with Article III, Section 3 of the Florida Constitution and Section 11.011, Florida Statutes, I hereby formally advise and communicate that the following matter is to be included in the Special Legislative Session as called by the Proclamation signed June 8, 1980 by the President and the Speaker and filed on June 9, 1980 with the Secretary of State.

(a) Legislative Apportionment

Sincerely,
Bob Graham
Governor

INTRODUCTION

By Senator Lewis—

SJR 14-D—A joint resolution proposing an amendment to Section 16, Article III of the State Constitution, relating to apportionment by the Legislature.

—was read the first time by title and referred to the Committee on Rules and Calendar.

By Senators Holloway, Peterson, W. D. Childers and Myers—

SB 15-D—A bill to be entitled An act relating to transportation; transferring certain employees of the Public Service Commission and of the Florida Highway Patrol to the Bureau of Weights of the Department of Transportation; amending s. 316.535(6), Florida Statutes; providing for enforcement by the Department of Transportation; amending s. 316.545(1), (6), (8), Florida Statutes; specifying authority of agents of the Department of Transportation; changing membership of the board of review; adding s. 321.05(6), Florida Statutes; requiring the Florida Highway Patrol to adopt rules relating to safety; specifying duties of members of the Florida Highway Patrol; providing a retroactive effective date.

—was read the first time by title and referred to the Committee on Transportation.

On motion by Senator Holloway, by two-thirds vote SB 15-D was withdrawn from the Committee on Transportation and placed on the calendar.

On motion by Senator Holloway, by two-thirds vote SB 15-D was read the second time by title.

Senator Scarborough presiding

Senator Steinberg moved the following amendment:

Amendment 1—On page 4, between lines 12 and 13, insert: Section 5. Taxicabs—

(1) Definitions.—As used in this section:

(a) "Taxicab" means every motor vehicle of nine passenger capacity or less, including the driver, engaged in the general transportation of persons for compensation not generally prepaid, on occasional trips, not on a regular schedule or between fixed termini or over regular routes.

(b) "Jitney" means every motor vehicle having a maximum seating capacity of 20, transporting passengers for compensation on a semi-fixed route between fixed terminals not on a regularly scheduled basis.

(2) Any municipality licensing and regulating taxicabs and jitneys on July 1, 1980, shall retain all its existing powers except as provided in this section, unless such authority is transferred to the county as provided by law.

(3) Any county may license and regulate taxicabs and jitneys in the unincorporated area and the county and in those municipalities that do not regulate such vehicles.

(4) The governing body of any county which provides both county and municipal services as authorized under ss. 10, 11, or 24, Art. VIII of the State Constitution of 1885, may by written resolution filed with the commission, preempt regulation by municipalities in the county of taxicabs, jitneys, and mass transit operating solely within a single county. Any county preempting such regulation shall adopt an ordinance after holding public hearings, which ordinance may provide for regulation of the areas defined herein.

(5) Taxicab operators shall be allowed to furnish self-insurance when authorized. The appropriate regulatory body may grant a full or partial exemption to taxicabs from the requirements to file a bond or insurance policy, provided such operator or company supplies such financial data as the appropriate regulatory body may require and provided the appropriate regulatory body determines the financial data demonstrates that the operator or company is sufficiently stable or solvent to be granted the authority to fully or partially self-insure. The appropriate regulatory body shall grant or renew the full or partial authority to self-insure subject to reasonable requirements such as provisions for the filing of periodic financial statements to the appropriate regulatory body demonstrating no substantial deterioration of the company's stability, and a finding that the company is not

(6) Persons operating taxicabs within this state shall equip each taxicab with a properly functioning fare meter or clearly visible map of zone rates, and shall post on the exterior of each taxicab, in easily readable form and in plain view, a schedule of fares.

(Renumber subsequent section.)

Senator Williamson raised a point of order that the main bill dealt with highway safety and the amendment proposed to regulate taxicabs, so the amendment was not, therefore, germane.

The Presiding Officer ruled the point well taken and the amendment out of order.

Senator Scott moved the following amendments which were adopted:

Amendment 2—On page 4, between lines 12 and 13, insert: Section 5. The authority of the Florida Highway Patrol to adopt safety rules shall expire on July 1, 1982.

Amendment 3—On page 1, line 16 in title, following “;” insert: providing for Legislative review;

On motion by Senator Holloway, by two-thirds vote SB 15-D as amended was read the third time by title, passed, ordered engrossed and then certified to the House. The vote on passage was:

—was read the first time by title and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

On motion by Senator Maxwell, by two-thirds vote HB 4-D was withdrawn from the Committee on Ways and Means and placed on the calendar.

On motion by Senator Maxwell, by two-thirds vote HB 4-D was read the second time by title.

Senator Maxwell moved the following amendments which were adopted:

Amendment 1—On page 94, lines 27-31 on page 95, lines 1-31, and on page 96, lines 1-8, strike all of said lines and insert: by any district school board may be equal to:

(1) If approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the membership of the school board, 103 percent of the rolled back rate calculated pursuant to s. 200.065(1), Florida Statutes, but in no event more than 1.6 mills. If a district school board did not levy the maximum allowable nonvoted discretionary millage during fiscal year 1979-80, the maximum millage allowed shall be 108 percent of the rolled back rate which would have been calculated if the nonvoted discretionary millage levied during fiscal year 1979-80 had been 1.6 mills.

(2) If approved by affirmative vote of at least a majority plus one of the membership of the school board, 110 percent of the rolled back rate calculated pursuant to s. 200.065(1), Florida Statutes, but in no event more than 1.6 mills. If a district school board did not levy the maximum allowable nonvoted discretionary millage during fiscal year 1979-80, the maximum millage allowed shall be 110 percent of the rolled back rate which would have been calculated if the nonvoted discretionary millage levied during fiscal year 1979-80 had been 1.6 mills.

(3) If approved by the affirmative vote of at least a majority plus one of the membership of the school board, a millage rate, not to exceed 1.6 mills, sufficient to provide the revenue necessary to achieve the statewide average percentage increase in the revenue per weighted full-time equivalent student over the fiscal year 1979-80. The percentage increase in the revenue per weighted full-time equivalent student over the fiscal year 1979-80 shall be calculated for each district and for the state as a whole as follows:

(a) Add the revenue produced from the following sources:

1. The state funds appropriated for the Florida Education Finance Program for fiscal year 1979-80;

2. The required local effort, including the vocational fees as computed pursuant to chapter 79-212, Laws of Florida, which required local effort is contained in the official Department of Education April 1980 calculation of the 1979-80 Florida Education Finance Program; and

3. The actual 1979-80 discretionary millage levy.

(b) Divide the sum calculated in paragraph (a) by the weighted full-time equivalent student contained in the official Department of Education April 1980 calculation of the 1979-80 Florida Education Finance Program.

(c) Add the revenue produced from the following sources:

1. The state funds appropriated for the Florida Education Finance Program for fiscal year 1980-81;

2. The required local effort as required by the 1980-81 supplemental appropriations act, including the vocational fees as computed pursuant to chapter 79-212, Laws of Florida; and

3. The maximum allowable discretionary millage for fiscal year 1980-81 as calculated pursuant to subsection (2).

(d) Divide the sum calculated in paragraph (c) by the weighted full-time equivalent students as calculated pursuant to the 1980-81 supplemental appropriations act, as included in the official Department of Education estimated calculation of the 1980-81 Florida Education Finance Program in July, 1980.

(e) Calculate the percentage increase in revenue per weight full-time equivalent student for 1980-81 by dividing the quotient obtained in paragraph (d) by the quotient obtained in paragraph (b).

Any school board electing to levy a discretionary millage pursuant to subsection (3) shall conduct a management study of the budget requirements for its district. The management study shall include, but not be limited to: a review of the various educational, personnel and support program requirements and decisions; the financial impact of existing and future collective bargaining agreements; and the financial and other quantifiable factors affecting urban school districts. Said management study shall be completed by February 1, 1981 and provided to the Florida Department of Education, the Florida Legislature, and the Executive Office of the Governor. Any school district which elects to levy its nonvoted discretionary millage pursuant to subsection (3) shall be entitled to reimbursement from the School District Homestead Exemption Trust Fund as though said millage were 25 percent of the millage required pursuant to s. 236.081(4), or 110 percent of the rolled back rate calculated pursuant to s. 200.065(1), Florida Statutes, as amended by this act, whichever is greater.

Amendment 2—On page 96 after line 13, insert: Section 62. Subsection (2) of section 196.194, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

196.194 Property appraisal adjustment board; notice; hearings; appearance before the board.—

(2) At least 2 weeks prior to the meeting of the property appraisal adjustment board, but no sooner than May 15, notice of the meeting shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation within the county, or if no such newspaper is published within the county, notice shall be placed on the courthouse door and two other prominent places within the county. Such notice shall indicate list:

(a) Applicants for exemption under this chapter that have had their applications wholly or partially approved by the property appraiser with the street address or, if no street address is available, another designation of location of the property granted the exemption, its assessed value, and the extent of the exemption granted. However, this notice shall not apply to exemptions granted pursuant to s. 196.031, s. 196.081, s. 196.091, s. 196.101, s. 196.199, or s. 196.202. The notice shall indicate That a list maintained by the property appraiser of all applicants for exemption under the above-mentioned sections who have had their applications for exemption wholly or partially approved is available to the public, at a location specified in the notice, and the hours during which the list may be seen. The notice shall further indicate, by name, the types of exemptions which are included in the list.

(b) Applicants for exemption under this chapter that have had their applications denied by the property appraiser, with the street address or, if no street address is available, another designation of location of the property so denied and its assessed value. However, this notice shall not apply to exemptions authorized pursuant to s. 196.031, s. 196.081, s. 196.091, s. 196.101, or s. 196.202. The notice shall further indicate That a list maintained by the property appraiser of all applicants for exemption under the above-mentioned sections who have had their applications for exemption denied is available to the public, at a location specified in the notice, and the hours during which the list may be seen. The notice shall further indicate, by name, the types of exemptions which are included in the list.

On motion by Senator Trask, the following was printed in the Journal:

Good Guys Don't Always Finish Last!

Thank you, Lord, for giving us Phil,
 He runs our Senate with extraordinary skill.
 Watching and listening and patiently waiting,
 While we on the floor are fiercely debating,
 His love for his family, his home, and his land,
 Shows the depth of this courageous man.
 He's a man of principles, strong and true,
 Showing his constant dependence on You.
 I remember the day he joined us here,
 'Twas obvious then he had no fear.
 When the folks back home asked him to serve,
 They knew him already as a man of great nerve.
 In his own quiet way, he was usually mild,
 On some subjects, tho, he was absolutely wild.
 But whatever the battle, whatever the fight,
 He always did what he thought was right.
 Then came a time, as we sought one to lead,
 'Twas obvious so soon, he's the one we did need.
 A giant among men, he stood so tall,
 When he couldn't speak good, he wouldn't speak at all.
 Our love for this man has constantly grown,
 He's the fairest leader we've ever known.
 It's good to discover, as time has passed,
 That good guys don't always finish last.

CORRECTION AND APPROVAL OF JOURNAL

The Journal of June 10 was corrected and approved as follows:

At the top of column 1 on page 6 insert: Senators Peterson and Trask offered the following substitute amendment for Amendment 2 which was moved by Senator Peterson and adopted:

Amendment 4—

Page 14, column 2, from bottom, strike lines 4 through 6 and insert:

vote by which—

SB 7-D—A bill to be entitled An act relating to ad valorem tax relief; creating part II of chapter 196, Florida Statutes; providing for relief from ad valorem taxes by means of grants to qualified renter households for taxes paid indirectly through rent; providing definitions and procedures; providing for administration by the Department of Revenue; providing penalties; providing for attorneys' fees; providing for confidentiality; providing a penalty; providing an appropriation; providing an effective date.

—passed this day. On motion by Senator Barron, the Senate reconsidered the vote by which HB 7-D was read the third time.

The Senate adjourned at 11:46 a.m. sine die.
