Prayer by the Rev. David Carter, Pastor, First Baptist Church, Clermont:

Lord, when we consider the opportunities we have when we turn to you, we thank you that we can get wisdom from you. Lord, minister to this body of people who have come with all kinds of special responsibilities. Minister to them as they need the physical stamina to maintain a busy schedule. Minister to their families as they share their lives with other people and with responsibilities that come with these opportunities. Lord, do touch to the needs they have individually and personally. Help them to handle the criticism that comes their way because of the positions of leadership they hold. Help them to know you are there to look to their needs and to guide them in decision-making and problem-solving. Lord, give them the wisdom they need to consider the facts of decisions that are made, not only now, but in the future when our lifetimes are over.

Lord, we look to you and depend upon you to find the courage we need to face life's situations. Help us to be able to face the situations of life with the courage you give us and not just based upon our own human courage. Help us to find the stability that comes with a maintained relationship with you. It's personal and rewarding and beneficial in strengthening our day-to-day active lives. Lord, we look to you for direction in all we do, not only decisions that affect other people, but those decisions that affect us alone. Help us with the lives we live that they would be characteristic of that which would bring respect to the position of those whom we represent and especially to you.

Lord, I ask that you would touch these people in ways that words cannot express nor prayers can call down from Heaven. We know, O God, that you hear the moanings and groanings which cannot be uttered so we seek your leadership in those areas in which we cannot express ourselves as we would desire. Lord, give special wisdom and special knowledge in a special way to these people. Thank you for them. Thank you for the positions they are willing to hold. Thank you for their active lives and support of people.

In your holy and precious name, we pray, Lord Jesus. Amen.
