Prayer by the Rev. Thomas E. Farmer, Jr., Pastor, John Wesley United Methodist Church, Tallahassee:

Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, from whom we come and to whom we shall surely return for a just assessment of our lives on earth; we come into the opening moments of this new session today pausing in prayer to honor your presence in our midst, and to seek your divine guidance in all that shall follow.

Bless we pray, our Father, these Senators who have gathered for their day's work in the Senate. Endow each of them with a sense of joy and fulfillment in their office and work. Quicken within each of them a sensitivity to what is right and good; and through the work of their hands establish justice and mercy for the many lives dependent on their deliberations and decisions.

Father, we are mindful of the heavy load of public service; we know that these men and women carry responsibilities that often burden the mind and spirit. Lift them with your loving arms and uphold them in their high calling.

We also pray for the families of these Senators who also pay the price of public service. Now, may all that is pleasing and acceptable in your sight be a part of this day. We humbly give it to you in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.
