

Journal of the Senate

Number 1

Tuesday, April 5, 1983

Beginning the Fifteenth Regular Session of the Legislature of Florida convened under the Florida Constitution of 1968, at the Capitol, in the City of Tallahassee, Florida, on Tuesday, the Fifth day of April, A.D., 1983, being the day fixed by the Constitution of the State of Florida for convening the Legislature.

The Senate was called to order by Senator Curtis Peterson, President of the Senate, at 10:00 a.m. A quorum present—40:

Mr. President	Frank	Jennings	Myers
Barron	Gersten	Johnston	Neal
Beard	Girardeau	Kirkpatrick	Plummer
Carlucci	Gordon	Langley	Rehm
Castor	Grant	Malchon	Scott
Childers, D.	Grizzle	Mann	Stuart
Childers, W. D.	Hair	Margolis	Thomas
Crawford	Henderson	Maxwell	Thurman
Dunn	Hill	McPherson	Vogt
Fox	Jenne	Meek	Weinstein

Excused: Senator Rehm, for the afternoon session.

Prayer by the Rev. Philip E. Lykes, Pastor, Southside Baptist Church, Lakeland:

Heavenly Father, it is good to give thanks unto the Lord—for you are our maker and provider and saviour.

And as this session of the Florida Senate opens its heart, its mind, its ear to the incredible needs of Floridians and the endless requests and demands of the people of this state, we would first stand still in your presence, acknowledging humbly and wisely your first claim on our honor and our lives, and listen to your quiet offer of wisdom and insight to all who are interested.

May the State of Florida be a greater state because a great Senate has met and accomplished great things, thought great thoughts, dreamed great dreams, and fought and won great battles against the enemy of mediocrity. At the conclusion of this session, may it be well said that the powerless have been represented and the powerful have been creatively channeled.

Grant health and vigor to the President of the Senate, Curtis Peterson. Give him a hand that is characterized by steel and velvet. Grant health and vigor to President Pro Tempore Gordon, and all the Senators and the supporting cast, I pray in the name of the God of Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and Jesus. Amen.

Senator Hill led the Senate in the pledge of allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.

Special Performance

The President recognized the Florida Southern College Chorale, directed by Dr. Bennett Penn and featuring Beverly Wolfe, internationally-known contralto and artist-in-residence at Florida Southern. Following the presentation by the Chorale, the President introduced Dr. Robert Davis, President of Florida Southern College.

Presentation of the St. Petersburg Times Award

The President invited Sanford H. Stiles of the St. Petersburg Times to the rostrum.

Senator Hill moved that a committee be appointed to escort Senator Barron to the rostrum. The motion was adopted and the President appointed Senators Hill, Meek, Jennings, Maxwell and Thomas.

Mr. Stiles, on behalf of the St. Petersburg Times and those legislative correspondents and newspaper editors who participated in the poll, presented Senator Barron with a plaque symbolizing his selection as the "Most Valuable Member" of the 1982 Senate.

On motion by Senator Hill, the following remarks were ordered printed in the Journal:

Mr. Stiles: Mr. President, members and guests of the Florida Senate, once again it's a pleasure for us to be with you on opening day in this the twenty-fifth presentation of the St. Petersburg Times "Most Valuable Legislator Award". This program dates back to 1947 when it was suggested by Nelson Poynter, the late chairman of the board of the Times Publishing Company to recognize accomplishment in the Senate and in the House. Since that time we have been privileged to take part in this salute to a special group of men who have gained recognition from journalists for their contributions to the well-being of the entire state of Florida. Our thanks to President Peterson for providing the opportunity to present this annual award and to the legislative correspondents and editors of Florida's daily newspapers who nominate and cast final ballots to select the winners. In balloting to determine the most valuable Senator of the 1981 session, Senator Dempsey Barron came within one vote of first place. In 1982 he was a clear-cut choice for the honor. During the past session, Senator Barron made conspicuous contribution to a Senate reapportionment plan based on single-member districts and to the successful defense of the no-fault automobile insurance. His long career, dating back to his election to the House in 1956, has been marked by support of legislation beneficial to the State of Florida as a whole; a criteria of most valuable legislator balloting. In the 1950's, he voted against those who wanted to close the schools rather than to allow them to be desegregated. In the 1960's, Senator Barron opposed the rural Pork Chop gang by fighting for fair reapportionment of the legislature. In the 1960's, Senator Barron opposed the Pork Chop gang and in the 1970's, he was instrumental in reform of an outdated inefficient court system and in establishing no-fault insurance. In the 1980's, he has continued to make valuable contribution to good government. For this, we offer our congratulations to Senator Barron and invite you, Senator Barron, to the podium to present this plaque recognizing your 1982 achievements in promoting progressive legislation.

Senator Barron, it is our honor to present this award based on the personal and public integrity of the recipient, as well as the ability and courage in promoting progressive legislation.

Senator Barron: Thank you, Mr. Stiles. Things are a little slow on opening day so the President has asked me to make a few remarks. This award is very difficult to come by. It only took me a quarter of a century to acquire it and, frankly, I'm sure the St. Petersburg Times has done its last dastardly act because it'll hurt me a lot in my district.

I'll have to tell you that it's hard to lobby for this award. If you say too much to those guys, they'll put it in the paper. I was sitting one evening, late in the evening, doing what the reporters who cover the Capitol usually do, drinking coffee and tea and milk and things. I said to Sam, "Why don't you vote for me for the St. Petersburg Times Award?" He said, "I'm not going to do it because you asked me to." I turned to the others and said, "Well, how about you?" And they said, "You didn't ask us." So you just can't get there from here. I thought about trips to the Caribbean and those kinds of things, but that would have been worse. I tried to figure out why they finally gave it to me and it is hard to do. I think it's because the press is a conveyor of bad news. They like to write about bad things; rapes and robberies and earthquakes and wars and depression. Even the President the other day said, "Let's have good news for a week." They said, "No deal. No good news." But really, they're doing us all a favor because each day when you read the papers and compare what's happening around the world, you think how much better off you are. You know it's not happening to you. So you go away happier for it. Finally, though, I decided why I got this award today. And the reason is this, so saith Moffitt. The reason is this that Reuben Askew and the St. Petersburg Times spent eight years passing the worse law in the nation—the Sunshine Amendment. We all hated it, every one of us to a person. Some of us were brave enough to vote against it. Gordon, Phil Lewis, Ken Plante and I were mad enough to take that sorry bill all the way to the United States Supreme Court. They had more bad things to write about us for a longer time than anybody in the history of the legislature. Two of those guys who were not crooks got so mad that they just left as you know—Plante and Lewis. Gordon and I stayed. Now, they haven't caught one crook. They've kept millions of good people out of public office with that bill and they've written tons about it. We still have it with us. They finally decided, "Well, Gordon and Barron gave us the most bad news to write about for the longest time, so one of them is entitled to the St. Pete Times Award." They matched and Gordon lost.

But seriously, Mr. Stiles, I am grateful to you and my colleagues because you have put my name alongside people like Jerry Thomas, who was nominated; Verle Pope, who won the award in '61; Harry Johnston, our next President; Phil Lewis, Louis de la Parte, Buddy MacKay, Bob Graham, Fred Karl, Jack Mathews and Ed Price. Those are the people that I've had the honor, privilege and joy of serving with in the Florida Legislature and I'm grateful to you and to those of you who voted for me. Thank you very much.

On motion by Senator Barron that a committee be appointed to notify the House of Representatives that the Senate was convened and ready to proceed with the business of the session, the President appointed Senators McPherson, Mann, Crawford, Fox, Girardeau, Myers and Plummer. The committee was excused.

On motion by Senator Barron that a committee be appointed to notify the Governor that the Senate was convened and ready to proceed with the business of the session, the President appointed Senators Barron, Maxwell, Castor, Gordon and Johnston. The committee was excused.

A committee from the House of Representatives composed of Representatives Tobiassen, Bell and Gallagher was received and informed the Senate that the House of Representatives was convened and ready to proceed to the business of the session. The committee then withdrew from the chamber.

The President presented the Governor to the joint assembly.

The Governor's Address

Every odd-numbered year since 1885, the Florida Legislature has assembled on this Tuesday in April. All legislatures make some mark on Florida's history. But a few legislatures have the chance to achieve greatness by marking Florida's future.

Yours is such a legislature.

The ingredients for greatness begin with you. We bring together today the right people, and the right agenda.

Your membership includes veteran legislators like Senate President Curtis Peterson and House Speaker Lee Moffitt, whose leadership and commitment to the institution of the Florida Legislature are major assets of the State of Florida.

More than 50 of you are first-term Representatives or Senators. You bring a freshness of personality, an independence of mind, and an enthusiasm that have characterized the great legislatures of the past.

All of you come from single-member districts, for the first time in Florida's history. You are the legislature that best represents the diversity of our state. You have forged a special bond with the people who placed their trust in you.

You were elected by them because they had faith in your judgment.

Because they shared your vision. Because they shared your belief that the art of government is an honorable profession, and one of the greatest forms of human service.

You in the class of 1983 are a distinguished group. You include among your number a woman who has been a middle school mathematics teacher, a mother, and the mayor of her community—Senator Karen Thurman.

You include a real estate executive who has earned a graduate degree in business, who has served on the Florida Housing Finance Agency, and the Downtown Development Authority in Tampa—Representative Jim Hargrett.

All of you first-time legislators are members of a distinguished group.

You are here on temporary duty in Tallahassee at a time of high-velocity change.

Florida once was a peripheral state, but it is becoming a megastate. Florida once had a narrow-bound economy; today we share in the global economy.

Once we were a poor state; today, we are a state with a great potential for widely distributed prosperity. Once we were a state where opportunity was tightly rationed; we are becoming a state where opportunity and justice are widely shared.

Florida once was a small state. Today, we are the fastest growing urban state in America.

Once our destiny was out of our control. Today, you and I and all Floridians can choose the future we desire.

I am here today to report to you that the state of our state is good and getting better.

Only last week we received the good news that we are on the leading edge of economic recovery. Once Florida was the last to enter a recession and the last to exit.

Today, we are last in and first out.

We stand almost a point and a half below the national average in unemployment—that's 70,000 people. There are enough people in Florida today who have jobs because we're better off than the nation as a whole to make up the populations of Fort Walton Beach, Winter Park and Key West—combined.

Florida has been designated the state with the best business climate in America—not once, but twice in the past two years.

I say there will be no retreat on improving our economy, because you and I do not intend to retreat.

The state of our economy is strong and getting stronger.

And so is the state of our criminal justice system.

And the good news is that crime is down in Florida today by almost 5 percent. That's twice as big a drop as 1981, when Florida's decline in crime was twice as fast as the nation's.

I say there will be no retreat on fighting crime in Florida, because you and I do not intend to retreat.

And there is good news on our environment.

I wish I could share with you the excitement I felt a week ago last Sunday in Destin.

Representatives Jim Ward and Bo Johnson and I stood on Henderson Beach State Recreation Area and were swept up in the enthusiasm of the people. Their dream had become their beach.

And I wish each of you could have been with Chuck Nergard and me in Martin County, where we dedicated one of the first of public beaches under the Save Our Coasts Program.

Just as I look forward to sharing that same sense of excitement and accomplishment with Senator Jim Scott, and Representative Tom Gustafson, and Ken Jenne, and Fred Lippman, when we dedicate North Beach in Broward County.

And you and I know there will be no retreat on preserving our environment, because you and I do not intend to retreat.

And the good news is in about our roads and bridges. Florida has chosen a future with better highways, safer bridges and better public transportation.

Because of what you have done already this year, we're four-laning 13.8 miles of State Road 80 in Palm Beach County.

We're six-laning Biscayne Boulevard in Dade County, and we're widening U.S. 1 in the Florida Keys.

We're four-laning U.S. 98 in Okaloosa and Walton Counties, and widening Dale-Mabry Expressway in Hillsborough County.

And we're realigning U.S. 301 in Manatee County for three and a half miles.

All over Florida today, our transportation dollars are at work.

I say there will be no retreat on transportation, because you and I do not intend to retreat.

And there is good news in education, we have a long way to go until every student in Florida is challenged to the limits of his or her ability, but look at the successes we have to build on.

In Jacksonville, the Raines High School is an example of how a combination of community interest and adequate resources can turn a school around.

A gentleman who serves on the Academic Boosters there told me that once there were only about 150 students on the honor roll. Now there are 300.

In Monroe County, Plantation Key Elementary School has Florida's only elementary school program in computers. And it is part of the county-wide program of teaching Spanish in every elementary school.

In Sarasota, Riverview High School operates the nation's only radiation science program. And Sarasota High School operates a floating classroom in marine science, and monitors Sarasota Bay marine life.

Manatee Community College brings the classroom to the workplace at American Beryllium Company, teaching precision machining techniques to students in a real-life environment.

At the Washington-Holmes Area Vocational-Technical Center, a Food-Service Training Center helps make our young people ready for jobs that are waiting for them.

And at the St. Augustine Technical Center, the culinary arts program is so effective that the American Culinary Federation has located its national headquarters in Florida to take advantage of it.

And at the University of Florida, programs in robotics, and in biomedical engineering, are national pacesetters.

Today in Florida, 1.27 percent of our high school juniors receive commendation from the National Merit Scholarship Program. The honor they bring to Florida can become the standard of excellence every student seeks, and which more of them attain.

I say there will be no retreat on our commitment to educational excellence, because you and I do not intend to retreat.

And it is in education that you and I will face our greatest opportunity. This is the agenda and you are the people that together can result in historic achievement.

By improving our public schools, community colleges and state universities, you can help Florida attract the new high-technology businesses that will dominate the economy of the United States into the 21st century.

By improving our schools, you can capitalize on Florida's geographical and linguistic advantages in international commerce—as Florida becomes the bridge among the continents of Europe, Asia, North America and South America.

And by improving our system of education, you can raise our standard of living, provide well-paid, future-oriented jobs for our citizens, and improve our quality of life.

By combining our brainpower, our natural environment for agriculture and our position as the world's number one tourist destination, we can and will strengthen our economy and continue to create new jobs in Florida.

I am pleased that an old friend and a veteran of this legislative process is responsible for accelerating that momentum. Wayne Mixson, our Lieutenant Governor and Secretary of Commerce, will direct that growth and move Florida into the future.

Wayne Mixson knows, and the business people he talks to know, that there is no greater investment you and I can make than the investment in people that education represents.

The values of education are the traditional values of America. Education is the traditional road to personal and economic self-improvement, and to extending the benefits of democracy to all citizens.

Education, in general, and public schools, in particular, set a tone in a community and a state. What a community does about its schools is an index of how that community feels about itself. How it regards its children, and how it sees its future.

The statement we make about ourselves through education is heard clearly by those who decide where new high-technology industry will locate.

These decision-makers are well educated.

They want good schools for their own children. And they know they can't recruit the scientific, technical and management personnel they need—without good schools for their children.

This is a year to reinforce Florida's fundamental policy on education.

Our policy, as expressed in our constitution, is to provide for a uniform system of free public schools;

To provide community colleges and state universities accessible to our citizens geographically and financially;

To provide resources needed to achieve excellence;

And to demand accountability from our students, our teachers and our managers at every level of education.

Our policy is to reach the upper quartile in the nation, to be among the top 12 states in America, by the 1985-86 school year;

To reach the top 12 states as measured not only by the resources we provide, but by the quality we achieve;

Our policy is to demand the best—for our society is served not only by those who achieve excellence, but also by those who aspire to excellence.

Every one of us knows today that, despite our successes, Florida has not yet achieved excellence in education. We know it as Senators and Representatives, we know it as parents, and—most important—we know it as citizens.

Our shortfalls stem from a common source:

Our schools lack rigorous standards.

Students and faculty both respond to our expectations. And our expectations must be raised to a level that will extend every student to reach his or her potential.

It is time to end an era of remedial education and begin a period of quality education for all.

It is time to demand that each element of our system of education handle its own problems.

It is time to stop the cycle of social promotion that forces our community colleges to teach high school graduates how to read.

To continue to certify their failures as success is to send them a message of dishonesty.

To give an illiterate student passing grades is to tell that student that reading doesn't matter.

That is a lie!

Lies like that will accumulate in the life of a student, until one day the small increments of falsehood will create a lifestyle of ignorance, of failure and, potentially, of crime.

The Department of Corrections spent more building the cages that hold those two inmates than we spent failing to teach them how to read. This is the kind of human tragedy—and waste of taxpayers' dollars—that I want to stop.

We will not continue to permit our schools to promote students who are failing, and to graduate students who can't read.

We must reverse our past neglect of the physical sciences, of mathematics and of language study.

For just as arithmetic is a survival skill for an individual, calculus and physics are survival skills for a nation in a nuclear age.

They are standards of academic rigor that we in Florida must demand.

And we must demand better and broader teaching of foreign languages. Florida today is the crossroads of international commerce. We are the marketplace where Japan sells to Latin America. Where the Caribbean buys from Europe. Language skills are vital tools of this new international commerce, and essential job skills for late 1980's.

Florida has a role as a state government to see that these rigorous standards are met.

The State Board of Education has set the measure by which our progress will be judged. Upon the recommendation of Commissioner Ralph Turlington, the board has established signposts on the road to national leadership.

Let every school board, community college and university administration take note:

I will propose on Wednesday—at tomorrow's cabinet meeting—that the State Board of Education demand a new dimension of accountability.

I want a written report to Commissioner Turlington from every school district, every community college, and every university showing our progress toward our upper quartile goal. We must demonstrate that progress semester by semester and year by year in order to show the public that our promise has been kept.

Our public schools, community colleges and state universities must improve the performance of their students, as measured by nationally accepted standards.

For example: Our public schools must increase the number of students honored in the National Merit Scholarship Program. They must raise the scores of Florida students on the scholastic aptitude test.

Our vocational schools must provide training that leads to a job today and a future tomorrow. Vocational education must retool for the age of high-technology and international commerce.

In our community colleges, we demand an increase in the number of academic scholarships and fellowships awarded to graduates. And we insist on raising the percentage of degree-seeking students who actually earn degrees.

We expect our universities to test incoming freshmen and to test them again as sophomores, to find out how they perform. And we expect improvement in graduate record examination scores, and in the scores on the professional licensing examination our graduates take.

Our policy is to raise the overall level of education in Florida. Every student in every classroom in Florida will feel the lift that rising expectations bring.

That policy will be advanced still further by committing our state to become a world-class center of excellence in areas that are especially appropriate and important to Florida.

We will add to our overall momentum when we strive toward international leadership in gerontology—the study of the aging process.

We will become a world leader in unlocking the secrets of our oceans.

We must understand Latin America better than any other state and any other country.

To accompany these raised standards and new accountability, our schools must have additional resources.

Three years ago you began to emphasize kindergarten through third grade. Since then you have allocated 230 million dollars for the primary education program.

In that time, average class sizes have dropped from 26 pupils per class to 21 pupils per class. And in that time, performance on the third grade standard school aptitude test has risen an average of six and a half points, and 90 percent of our third graders are passing today.

Our experience with the primary education program shows that we can get results when we provide resources, set standards, and demand accountability.

To accompany these raised standards and new accountability, our schools must have additional resources.

Prep shows what we can do. What we now must do is create the opportunities for learning that additional resources provide.

Engineering is the basic discipline of a high-technology age, and we must increase the number of graduate engineering students in Florida today. We have experienced a decade of decline. We must initiate a decade of improvement.

Our schools, community colleges and universities require laboratories, libraries and computer terminals of a national standard.

Their needs for transporting students and operating the schools must be met. And we must provide increased financial aid for those who require it to complete their education.

As we did in prep for primary schools, we must do for freshman and sophomore math and language classes. We must pay what it costs to reduce the class sizes so more learning can take place.

And we must prepare to train tomorrow's work force for a new world of skills and opportunity.

Most of all, we must begin to compete to attract the best minds and keep them in the classroom.

We must begin a program of scholarships to attract mathematics and science teachers, especially.

Now we ask our technically-minded college students to choose between a job in private industry as an engineer—at 25,428 dollars a year—or as a computer programmer—at 22,260 dollars a year—or as a high school math teacher in Jefferson County—at 11,000 dollars a year.

That's half the average pay offered to engineering and computer students who will graduate this June.

In 54 of our 67 counties, the starting salary for a teacher with a Bachelor's degree last September was 13,000 dollars a year or less. In 10 of our counties, beginning teachers earned 12,000 dollars or less.

Those who teach always make sacrifices. But this sacrifice is too great.

When we offer half as much money as a computer programmer can make, we are asking too much and paying too little.

Listen to Jamey Osborn. He's 22, a senior at Florida State majoring in mathematics education. He's serving a professional internship at East Bay High School in Hillsborough County.

Jamey says, "You don't get rich teaching, but it's a life rich in satisfaction and personal rewards."

Jamey says it doesn't bother him to start at 13,000 dollars a year. But when he sees his classmates start at 25,000 dollars a year, that does get to him.

"I'll never make that as a school teacher in Florida if I teach for forty years. That's one thing I hope they solve," he told a member of my staff yesterday.

At the same time, we have the opportunity to expand our pool of qualified teachers by reaching out to those who are trained in technical areas.

To our senior Floridians who want to share their knowledge and wisdom.

To men and women at mid-career who would take up the challenge of the classroom.

Establishing an adjunct faculty program will tap the talents of those with the skills we need today.

This year Florida is about 400 dollars per student behind the 12th-ranking state in kindergarten through high school. Our program is based on staying even with inflation, and closing that 400 dollar gap over the next three years.

The biennial budget I have submitted to you will close that gap by one-third in each of the next two years. That budget will put us within striking distance of the final installment in 1985-86.

And we must make similar progress in our community colleges and in our universities, where we must close the faculty salary gap.

It would be naive of us to think, and dishonest of us to represent to the public, that we can achieve these goals without additional resources.

We have to talk sense to the people of Florida.

That is why I have proposed new taxes.

I don't take any more pleasure in this than you do. But the reality is that we have endured a national recession. That reduced our revenues by $400 million.

The new taxes I am requesting are required to keep us on schedule in our five-year commitment to reach the top 12 states in per-pupil expenditures.

As you decide what to do during the next 60 days, remember last fall, when you and I went before the people of Florida seeking their votes. We signed a contract with the people of Florida. You and I campaigned on a platform for better schools.

Here is how one of you expressed your hopes for a better Florida to the voters last November:

"I am a proponent of the Governor's and Commissioner of Education's program to bring teacher salaries and pupil performance to within the top one-fourth of the states over a five-year period. . . no other issue has a higher priority than improving Florida's school system." And you were elected.

Another of you advertised that you "led the campaign to increase teacher salaries and the quality of education in Florida." And you were elected.

Still another of you wrote me personally during the campaign urging that our schools be spared the cutback all state agencies were forced to make.

"I feel the State of Florida is committed to work to get to the upper quartile nationally over the next few years," you wrote. And you were elected.

Those are words upon which you were elected. Your actions here in the legislature are what you go home with. Take back to your constituents as evidence that you have lived up to your contract.

Meeting these goals will not be an easy task. But it is what our future requires. Tomorrow's work force for Florida is in our schools today.

As we look around our state, we can see the demands tomorrow's work force must meet. We can no longer expect to give a person specific skills that will last a lifetime.

But we must demand hard work by teachers and hard work by students to prepare tomorrow's work force to think.

Nine of Florida's top ten manufacturing employers are high-technology businesses—companies like Martin Marietta, the Harris Corporation, IBM and United Technologies—which has announced its third facility in Florida, a laser optics plant in Palm Beach County.

Three out of every four foreign tourists in 1982 came to Florida from a non-English-speaking country.

Miami has more international banks focused on commerce with Latin America than any other city in America. In the past five years, international trade in Florida has more than doubled—rising from 8.8 billion in 1977 to 18 billion last year.

There is no disagreement among us today about the direction we must take. Mathematics, science and languages must become the backbone of Florida's curriculum.

President Peterson and Speaker Moffitt and I all agree on the primary importance of education. We all recognize, each in his own way, the need to make a historic investment in education.

By your vote, you must make that investment the same way you made an investment last year to fight crime in Florida.

I know you are mindful of a misguided proposal to roll back taxes in Florida, to undo what you have already accomplished today is not the time, nor this the place, to begin the battle against that ill-conceived scheme.

But today is the day to begin the fight against a ghost. That ghost is the fear of political retribution that could paralyze our will.

Ask yourselves—suppose this issue had come up a year ago. Suppose, out of fear of a ghost, the legislature had failed to put more police officers on the street and prosecutors in the courtroom. I can assure you, crime would not be down today.

Would you like to go back to the people of Florida and say, we turned our back on the problem because we were afraid to face it?

I don't want to have to go back and make that speech. Neither do you.

I want to be able to tell the public that we can see our goal of national excellence in education on the horizon.

That we can see the international commerce and the high-technology jobs that mean a bright future to Florida.

This is the position of honesty, frankness, and plain common sense that I want to take to the people of Florida.

For Florida has chosen a future of leadership, of struggle, of hard work and honesty.

For now is our time of excellence. Now is our moment of truth.

Thank you.

Following the Governor's address, the committee previously appointed escorted the Governor from the rostrum and from the House chamber, followed by the Lieutenant Governor, members of the Cabinet and Justices of the Supreme Court.

Welcome to the 85th regular session of the Florida Legislature. As Governor, it is my constitutional duty to report to you on the condition of the state and to recommend measures in the public interest.

I have discussed the demanding needs of our public education system—and the dependence of economic prosperity on education—in my opening address. This supplemental message focuses on other priorities before you: growth management, public safety and human services.

These priorities for Florida are consistent with the 1983-85 biennial budget I submitted to the Legislature on February 21, 1983.

I urge your attention to these issues. I pledge my best efforts and cooperation toward their achievement.

MANAGING GROWTH

The challenges we face in providing a fine education for our young people, a prosperous economy, public safety and human services are a function of Florida's remarkable growth. During this legislative session, I urge you to adopt certain measures to manage Florida's growth and natural resources wisely, continuing the tradition of the past decade.

Florida's explosive growth requires us to enact the best mechanisms in the nation to manage that growth. We must continue to seek a balance between the legitimate needs of development and the demands for protecting the state's natural systems. An outstanding growth management program provides such a balance.

Water Task Force

House Speaker Moffitt, with the able assistance of former State Representative Bill Sadowski and the Water Task Force, has developed a package of proposed legislation that will go far toward protecting our precious water resources. This legislation represents a brave and farsighted approach to resolving some very sensitive and difficult problems. I support this legislative package.

This legislation will significantly enhance the Department of Environmental Regulation's (DER) role in monitoring and protecting the quality of surface and groundwater. It provides for a much needed constitutional amendment to enable the Northwest Florida Water Management District (NWFMD) to assess ad valorem taxes in amounts comparable to the other four water management districts. This legislation will also provide funds for hazardous waste site cleanup and sewage treatment plant construction.

The legislative proposals on hazardous waste would provide funds for the clean-up of existing, uncontrolled hazardous waste sites. These funds would be matched by federal "Superfund" monies and would provide incentives to local governments to identify and manage generators of small quantities of hazardous wastes.

The provisions in the proposed Florida Water Pollution Control and Sewage Treatment Grant Act will enable local governments to construct sewage treatment or disposal facilities or cost-effective alternatives.

I urge approval of this important legislation as a means of protecting the quality and quantity of our water resources; water is vital to continued economic and social prosperity and to the natural systems and environment of Florida.

Hazardous Wastes

Over 90% of Florida's drinking water is derived from groundwater. The major groundwater source for most of central and north Florida is the Floridan Aquifer. Southeast Florida's primary source of freshwater is the Biscayne Aquifer, while the sand-and-gravel aquifer supplies the western portion of the panhandle.

The protection of Florida's drinking water supplies from toxic substances remains a high priority. The state's groundwater and hazardous waste management activities must be strengthened to assure an adequate, affordable and safe supply of water is available to the people of Florida.

Our 1983-85 budget recommends enhancements of $9.5 million to the state's groundwater and hazardous waste programs. I urge you to enact this budget recommendation.

Simplified Land Acquisition Program

Having operated under expanded land acquisition laws since 1979, the state has restored credibility in its land purchase program. This program should be further improved through modifications to the existing law to enable the program to function more effectively while maintaining safeguards against misuse. State land acquisition agents, representing the public, need to be able to negotiate acquisitions on a basis similar to the private parties from whom property is being acquired. The property selection, appraisal and negotiation procedures should be improved.

The purchase of environmental land continues to be a major priority in 1983-85. This biennial budget recognizes the critical need for public ownership of additional river floodplains and wetlands, beachfront property, outdoor recreational areas and environmentally endangered lands.

A total of $170 million is recommended for continued purchase of lands under the Save Our Rivers, Save Our Coasts and Conservation and Recreation Lands (CARL) programs in 1983-85.

The Save Our Rivers program was initiated in 1981 to acquire more than $300 million of land for water management, water supply and the conservation and protection of water resources. Funds for the program are derived from the documentary stamp tax and disbursed from the Water Management Lands Trust Fund to the five water management distracts. Recent acquisitions under the Save Our Rivers program include lands in St. Johns River and Anclote River Basins and in Green Swamp.

The Save Our Coasts program represents an effort to acquire $200 million worth of Florida's rapidly diminishing undeveloped beachfront property for public recreational enjoyment and benefit. The program is funded through the sale of revenue bonds in $25 million increments. The bond indebtedness is funded by documentary stamp tax revenues deposited in the Land Acquisition Trust Fund. Recent acquisitions in Okaloosa, Martin and Broward counties were accomplished with Save Our Coasts funds.

The CARL program provides the means to acquire lands for a variety of purposes such as environmentally endangered lands, archaeological and historical sites, parks, forests, wilderness areas, wildlife management areas and other lands. The program receives up to $20 million a year from mineral severance tax revenues that are deposited in the CARL Trust Fund. Previous acquisitions under the program include Little Gator Creek (Pasco County); the ITT Snapper Creek property (Dade County); and portions of the Apalachicola River Basin, Rookery Bay, St. George Island and Fakahatchee Strand.

Planning for Growth

Balancing Florida's natural beauty with its population growth requires careful planning and foresight. Without this planning, it will be impossible to meet the inevitable demands for housing, infrastructure and other growth support systems in accordance with Florida's growth management policies.

To provide this planning and foresight, I urge you to support the recommendations of the ELMS II Committee by providing $249,000 in 1983-84 and $126,000 in 1984-85 to increase monitoring and enforcement efforts for Areas of Critical State Concern and $32,000 each year of the biennium to provide adequate funds for Resource Planning and Management Committees in Areas of Critical State Concern.

I also recommend $829,000 over the biennium to provide resources to monitor and evaluate the enforcement of Developments of Regional Impact and an additional $1 million in each year of the biennium to provide funds to improve the coastal zone protection elements of local comprehensive plans.

To enable regional planning councils to complete four elements of their comprehensive regional policy plans, I recommend an appropriation of $1.9 million over the biennium. These elements are: public facilities, transportation, natural resources and developmental framework. The plans will provide the link between local comprehensive plans and state planning efforts.

Eminent Domain for Environmental Land Acquisition

Environmentally significant and recreational lands are becoming increasingly expensive and the demand for such areas is growing along with the population. The acquisition of complete and manageable units of land is critical to the enhancement of the purpose of the CARL program and in many cases is not possible without eminent domain authority. Eminent domain is necessary on a project-specific basis to achieve our goal of acquiring land for the public benefit.

Prohibition Against Oil and Gas Drilling in Estuaries

Current law prohibits drilling for oil and gas in freshwater lakes, rivers and streams. However, the vagueness of the law has resulted in a court decision that allows drilling in bays and estuaries. Our bays and estuaries are biologically the most productive marine habitats in the state and are the nursery grounds for 75% of the marine recreational and commercial species. The statutes should be amended to clearly prohibit the drilling or exploring for oil and gas in the bays and estuaries of Florida.

Coastal Protection by Mandating Coastal Zone Elements in Local Government Comprehensive Plans

Florida's beautiful coastline has become synonymous with our state. Our Gulf and ocean fronts are magnets attracting people and development. Unfortunately, some of this development has taken place in a manner that harms the scenic values of the area, accelerates beach erosion and results in people residing in areas that are subject to storm and hurricanes jeopardizing their safety and property. For these reasons, we need to strengthen our coastal protection management programs requiring local governments to prepare comprehensive plans that address these issues. Legislation is necessary to ensure that the administration of the state's coastal construction control line regulations are related to local comprehensive plans that assure a maximum degree of protection to the value of coastal resources and adequately protects people, safety and property.

PUBLIC SAFETY

Together, we have directed attention to our criminal justice system in the past four years, increasing state agencies' resources to fight crime by 89% and providing additional resources for local law enforcement agencies.

As one example of our enhancement of criminal justice system capabilities, the total number of staff for the 20 State Attorneys' Offices increased from 1,756 in 1978 to 2,764 positions in 1982-83—a 57% increase. My budget proposes an additional increase of 141 positions in 1983-85. As a result of our initial augmentation, criminal filings have increased by 65% since 1978. The number of circuit court judges has increased 16% since 1978, and the number of criminal dispositions has increased by almost 90%.

Our investment in criminal justice over the past four years is beginning to pay dividends. The index crime rate has declined in each of the past two years from its peak in 1980; in 1981, it declined 3.6% and in 1982 another 7.3% decline has further reduced the total rate. Considering that Florida's crime rate decline in 1981 was more than twice the national average, the 10.7% decline since 1980 is estimated to be one of the most significant per capita crime reductions in the nation.

Florida's fight against crime has produced tangible benefits for the citizens, but there is still more to be done. We must address the issues of sentencing and prison overcrowding. It is also time to turn our attention to minimizing the causes of crime, including child abuse and alcohol and drug abuse.

Sentencing of Criminals

An effective criminal justice system requires public confidence in the sentencing of criminals. Yet, throughout Florida, sentencing disparity exists among and within individual judicial circuits.

Such disparity is, in part, a result of the fact that trial judges have generally unrestricted sentencing discretion within liberal statutory limits.

To ensure public confidence in the criminal justice system, the sentences imposed by the courts must be definitive and significant. We cannot, for example, expect the public to be confident in a system in which the average sentence for burglaries is 42 months, but the average time served is only 24 months.

I urge the implementation of sentencing guidelines that are consistent and meaningful in determining the length of an offender's actual stay in prison. The Sentencing Guidelines Commission is to be commended for its dedicated work in devising an appropriate sentencing policy for statewide judicial applicability. The assistance of the Legislature and judiciary are necessary to ensure refinement and implementation of Sentencing Guidelines by September 1983.

Prison Overcrowding

Between 1974-82, the number of offenders incarcerated in the state corrections system expanded from 11,335 to 26,161, an increase of 130%. Comparatively, the overall population of the state increased only 23%.

If these increases continue to go unabated, the inmate population will exceed available capacities permitted by the federal courts. We must act now to ensure that dangerous criminals will not be released merely because there is not enough space in which to house them.

By June 1982, this inordinate growth rate in prison population had become so critical that a special legislative session was called to address prison overcrowding. In addition to providing a special appropriation of $24.5 million, primarily for bed construction to alleviate immediate overcrowding, the Legislature created a Corrections Overcrowding Task Force to develop recommendations concerning long-range corrections policy.

The product of this task force is a series of 57 recommendations that address prison admissions, release mechanisms, program delivery and population forecasting techniques. Implementation of these recommendations requires changing administrative procedures, revising statutory provisions and providing additional resources.

I have worked closely with the legislative members of the Task Force to develop legislation that implements its recommendations. Adoption of this legislation is an important first step toward averting an overcrowding crisis in our prison system.

I urge your serious consideration of these recommendations.

Diversionsary Alternatives

Further, we must prepare to divert offenders into community-based programs consistent with the public interest and safety. To accomplish this, we have recommended statutory revisions, incorporated into a corrections reform act, which will be before you for action during this session.

Additionally, I encourage you to adopt our budget recommendation, providing $681,000 in 1983-84 and $1.5 million in 1984-85 for eight new probation and restitution centers. This commitment represents a 92% expansion in the number of residential probation treatment slots throughout the state. Further, the recommendation includes $3 million in 1983-84 and $5.9 million in 1984-85 for improving the supervision ratios for felony probationers, and, more importantly, implementing a community control program. This intense supervision program will give the judiciary a viable option for sanctioning convicted offenders in the community who would otherwise be sent to prison. In effect, the program will reduce prison overcrowding and provide punishment and rehabilitation at minimal state costs.

Facility Construction

While it is estimated that these initiatives will reduce the forecasted prison population for 1985 by at least 1,323 inmates, the requirements in the settlement agreement stemming from the Costello v. Wainwright case dictate construction of additional prison space. The court is requiring us to eliminate approximately 4,000 prison beds from the current inventory by the end of the biennium. Addressing this need, our budget provides $51 million over the biennium to construct, 2,448 new prison beds.

Emergency Release Mechanism

Complementing these initiatives, the Task Force recommended a mechanism to provide immediate relief in emergency overcrowding situations. The proposed legislation authorizes implementation of an emergency release procedure when the inmate population is in danger of exceeding the court-imposed maximum capacity. This legislation includes stringent criteria to minimize the risk to the public, and is a desirable alternative to any possible indiscriminate release order that might otherwise be forced upon the state by the federal courts.

Prison Work Program

To reduce inmate idleness and increase the self-sufficiency of the prison system, while concurrently providing expanded job training opportunities for incarcerated offenders, our 1983-85 budget recommendation provides $3.5 million in 1983-84, $5.3 million in 1984-85 and $6.8 million in fixed capital outlay for the expansion or addition of 25 correctional work programs creating 800 new inmate work stations.

Additionally, issues funded in the recommendation include $750,000 to establish a revolving fund to accelerate the transition of industries to the private non-profit corporation authorized in Chapter 81-125, Laws of Florida, to lease and operate the prison industries programs of the Department of Corrections, and $1.2 million in general revenue funds to enhance industries production.

Child Abuse Prevention

During 1981-82, there were over 71,000 Florida youngsters reported as being abused or neglected. In Florida, half of all children in foster care were removed from their homes due to neglect. Physical abuse accounts for about 15% of these removals and sexual abuse accounts for about 3% of the removals.

Of the children reported abused or neglected, 38% later developed histories of truancy and running away or delinquent behavior. Almost 65% of the children admitted to Florida's state mental hospitals in 1978 had histories of abuse and neglect. National studies on prison populations indicate that a majority of the inmates were abused children.

For these reasons, I have recommended and urge you to appropriate $2.9 million in 1983-84 and $4.4 million in 1984-85 to provide programs to prevent child abuse and neglect.

Preventative Alternatives to Street Crime

ALCOHOL ABUSE PREVENTION

The majority of the statewide alcohol rehabilitation services are devoted to older, more chronic clients, yet an estimated 8% of Florida's youth between the ages of 14-19 are in need of treatment services. There are no specialized services for children of alcoholics who are statistically at high risk of becoming alcoholics and/or developing significant emotional and special problems as a result of parental alcoholism. Currently, only 2.2% of all admissions to alcohol rehabilitation programs are under 18 years of age. The $600,000 recommended for each year for residential and outpatient services for Alcohol Abusing Youth would provide four residential treatment programs and also funding for outpatient services and an additional $480,000 in 1984-85 for specialized services for children of alcoholics.

The criminal justice system refers 32% of all the admissions to the statewide community alcohol services programs. In addition, 11% of the referrals are clients from the DUI/DWI Driving Schools. The impact of alcoholism and related problems has emphasized the need for improved liaison between the courts/law enforcement and community alcohol services and additional resources for the increased driving school referrals. For these reasons I have included $240,000 each year to improve liaison functions and $689,000 in 1983-84 and $773,000 in 1984-85 for increased alcohol client referrals.

DRUG ABUSE PREVENTION

Problems associated with drug abuse involve much more than the health and well-being of the individual. The impact on society includes everything from the involvement in drug abuse of younger and younger children, to crimes against Florida's citizens as a means to support the ever-increasing expense of the continued abuse. Currently, the program Treatment Alternatives to Street Crime serves as a resource to both the criminal justice system and to drug abusers. My budget proposal continues this successful program, but recommends the consolidation of its administration, which is currently split between the Departments of Community Affairs and Health and Rehabilitative Services. In addition, improvements in our services to youth should include additional residential treatment in several areas of the state and increased staffing improvements within existing residential treatment facilities, for which I have provided $972,000 in 1983-84 and $1.6 million in 1984-85.

Finally, public awareness and education can do much to deter future drug involvement and the recommendation has combined existing resources with additional funding to provide for a statewide campaign to reduce drug abuse among our citizens.

Specialized Services for Runaways, Truants, Children Beyond Control

In 1981-82, approximately 23,000 youths were referred to the Department of Health and Rehabilitative Services for what is termed "status offender behavior". These include runaways, truants and children who are beyond the control of their parents. This group of children represents 10.3% of the juveniles referred to single intake for alleged delinquency or dependency. Due to a lack of resources, 66.4% of these juvenile cases are disposed of without the provision of any services to deter this behavior or its causes. So that the needs of this group can be addressed in the communities where the need is felt most acutely, I have recommended $790,000 in 1983-84 and $1.6 million in 1984-85 to provide specialized programs for children who are status offenders.

HEALTH AND HUMAN SERVICES

As we continue to concentrate our efforts on fighting crime, we must not ignore the needs and concerns of those law-abiding citizens who depend upon us—particularly the elderly, the disadvantaged, children and those with mental and physical health problems.

Community Care for the Elderly

Approximately 2,300,000 Florida citizens, or 24% of the total population, are over 60 years of age. This group, particularly those older than 75, is Florida's fastest-growing population segment. To live productively within the community, Florida's older citizens need a range of housing alternatives, easy access to shopping and health care facilities, and a variety of services including recreation, continuing education, homemaking and family support services.

To meet the needs of Florida's elderly citizens, I urge you to appropriate $16.1 million over the biennium to increase community care for the elderly core services to more than 34,000 individuals by 1985. I am also recommending additional funding for subsidies to relatives or other persons caring for the elderly, for provision of adult day care and enforcement of congregate living facilities regulation, and for reimbursement to community-based facilities.

Constituency for Children

Approximately 25% of the state's population is below the age of 18. In the interests of these young people, I am recommending $200,000 over the biennium to establish a constituency for children program. Its purpose is to cut across the traditional structures of government and private sector programs for children.

This program is designed to focus on the unmet needs of children—in education, in drug and alcohol abuse prevention, in the courts and in the human services bureaucracy.

The constituency for children program will emphasize local community action and will encourage coordination between voluntary, private groups and public agencies. I urge your approval of this recommendation.

Deinstitutionalization

COMMUNITY MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES

The client population within Florida's mental health institutions has been reduced by over 40% in the last 10 years. The alternatives to institutional placement have increased substantially in that time and now include 13 deinstitutionalization projects throughout the state. However, there are still approximately 3,500 civil clients residing in our mental institutions, many of whom meet the requirements for placement in community alternatives. My recommendation provides 9 new projects to be phased in over the biennium, 4 for geriatric clients and 5 projects for adult clients, at a cost of $2.2 million in 1983-84 and $7.8 million in 1984-85.

DEVELOPMENTAL SERVICES

During the last 10 years we have reduced the Sunland Training Center population by 45%. We are presently in the process of replacing the two multi-floor centers, Tallahassee and Orlando Sunlands, with smaller, more homelike facilities nearer the clients' homes. In addition, we are proposing a phaseout plan for the Fort Myers Sunland, which will replace the center with smaller community facilities. These recommendations show a continued commitment to Florida's deinstitutionalization policy of limiting the effects of large impersonal institutions on clients. For these reasons I am recommending and urge you to appropriate $4.3 million to complete the construction of the developmental clusters and 3 positions, $77,000 in 1983-84 and 6 positions, $5.2 million in 1984-85 to begin the phaseout of the Fort Myers Sunland.

AFDC-Aid to Families with Dependent Children

Approximately 290,000 Florida residents depend on the AFDC financial assistance program to meet their basic daily needs. The purpose of the program is to help needy families to become self-supporting while allowing children to remain in their own homes. To continue a reasonable standard of living for these low income families, I recommend an appropriation of $6.2 million in 1983-84 to increase the payment standard for a family of four from $263 to $273 per month and an appropriation $29.7 million in 1984-85 to provide annualization and an additional 5% increase to $286 per month.

Health Care Costs

In meeting the demands of Florida's Medicaid Program, and in focusing attention on medical malpractice insurance, we are seeking to cure the symptoms of a more generalized illness: escalating health care costs. It is urgent that we begin to address these issues.

MEDICAID

The Florida Medicaid Program provides necessary basic health care for approximately 550,000 low income families, aged, blind and disabled adults. To control the spiraling cost of the Medicaid Program, a variety of innovative cost containment and cost avoidance strategies are being developed and implemented. The Task Force on Competition and Consumer Choices in Health Care is assessing proposed and potential Medicaid cost containment initiatives as part of their comprehensive study of medical care cost control issues.

To continue essential benefit coverage, I am recommending appropriation of $57.1 million in FY 1983-84 and $129.7 million in FY 1984-85 to provide for projected increases in the average unit cost for medical care services. I recommend $74.1 million in FY 1983-84 and $118 million in FY 1984-85 to provide for increased utilization of Medicaid services for projected increases in the Medicaid caseload, and $17.4 million in FY 1983-84 and $20.7 million in FY 1984-85 to annualize the nursing home reimbursement plan implemented in FY 1982-83. The recommendation contemplates various cost containment initiatives designed to accomplish a $20 million reduction in program costs in FY 1983-84 and a $25 million reduction in program costs in FY 1984-85.

Medical Malpractice

Last year some physicians in Florida threatened to strike because of the high cost of medical and malpractice insurance. Multi-million dollar malpractice awards have placed the Patients Compensation Fund in jeopardy. Again, the medical malpractice crisis is but a symptom of a health care delivery system whose costs are out of control. I urge you to consider this issue carefully, mindful that the health care industry is to care for people, and should not be designed to serve the interest of physicians, hospitals, insurance companies or trial attorneys. I support Insurance Commissioner Bill Gunter's program to reform medical malpractice insurance as a sound basis for legislative action.

These are among the most important issues before you. In my 1983 State of the State speech, I address the need to improve our education system, a system upon which Florida's prosperity depends.

All of these issues are interrelated. Our economy depends upon a fine system of public schools. Prosperity will enable us to afford such a school system, along with other essential services including public safety and care for the elderly.

Economic development will, as well, place growing demands upon us to provide such services. And population increases will require us to skillfully manage growth, to maintain the quality of life that makes Florida so attractive.

The following Executive Orders were filed with the Secretary:

EXECUTIVE ORDER NUMBER 83-1

(Executive Order of Suspension)

WHEREAS, DANIEL H. BENNETT is presently serving as the duly elected Sheriff of Flagler County, Florida, and

WHEREAS, allegations of misconduct in office have been made against DANIEL H. BENNETT, and

WHEREAS, after evaluating the evidence presented to the Governor from various law enforcement agencies relative to the above allegations, the Governor believes that justice would best be served, and that it is in the best interest of the citizens of the State of Florida, that DANIEL H. BENNETT be suspended from public office, upon the grounds hereinafter set forth:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BOB GRAHAM, as Governor of Florida, pursuant to the Constitution and Laws of the State of Florida, do hereby find, determine, and for the purposes of Section 112.41, Florida Statutes, allege as follows:

A. DANIEL H. BENNETT is, and at all times material hereto was, the duly elected Sheriff of Flagler County, Florida, pursuant to Article VIII, Section 1, Florida Constitution.

B. The Sheriff of Flagler County is within the purview of the suspension powers of the Governor pursuant to Article IV, Section 7, Florida Constitution.

C. The Sheriff is the county's chief conservator of the public peace and safety whose powers, duties, and obligations are specifically enumerated in Chapter 30, Florida Statutes.

D. This suspension is predicated upon the following incidents:

1. On or about August 22, 1981, DANIEL H. BENNETT did willfully and without lawful authority enter the dwelling of Paul Lisicki. After searching the premises, DANIEL H. BENNETT instructed two of his deputies to obtain a search warrant and further instructed them to withhold information about the prior entry and search.

2. Prior to hearings in the case of State v. Paul Lisicki, held on or about March 26 and April 20, 1982, DANIEL H. BENNETT directed several of his deputies to testify that they had not entered affected premises prior to obtaining a search warrant or that they could not recall doing so.

3. On or about June 9, 1981, an order was entered by the Circuit Court of the Seventh Judicial Circuit directing the Office of the State Attorney to turn over to DANIEL H. BENNETT several pornographic films for destruction. Among these films was a film entitled "Black Rape". Instead of destroying this film, and in direct violation of a lawful court order, DANIEL H. BENNETT gave it to another person, to-wit: Mark Patrick, knowing the film to be obscene.

4. On or about June 18, 1981, DANIEL H. BENNETT, while on an official investigation and while in an official patrol boat, exposed his genitalia to one Jo Anne Harvey in a vulgar and indecent manner.

5. On or about June 18, 1981, DANIEL H. BENNETT, while on an official investigation, actually and intentionally touched Jo Anne Harvey against her will.

6. During the term of his office, DANIEL H. BENNETT has failed to require each deputy to post a $1,000 bond payable to the Governor of the State of Florida, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Board of County Commissioners and filed with the Clerk of the Court as required by Section 30.09, Florida Statutes.

E. DANIEL H. BENNETT's acts and actions, as set forth above, contravene his oath of office as set forth in Article II, Section 5, Florida Constitution, to "... support, protect, and defend the Constitution and Government of the United States and of the State of Florida; . . . and faithfully perform the duties of Sheriff of Flagler County. . .".

F. The acts alleged herein constitute the offenses of malfeasance, misfeasance, neglect of duty, and/or incompetence as such offenses are used in Article IV, Section 7, Florida Constitution.

G. The interests of the citizens of the State of Florida and the ends of justice can best be served by the immediate suspension of DANIEL H. BENNETT from the public office of Sheriff of Flagler County, Florida, which he now holds.

BEING FULLY ADVISED in the premises, and in accordance with the Constitution and Laws of the State of Florida, this Executive Order is hereby promulgated effective 10:00 A.M., January 6, 1983.

1. DANIEL H. BENNETT is hereby suspended from the public office which he now holds, to-wit: Sheriff of Flagler County, Florida.

2. DANIEL H. BENNETT is hereby prohibited from performing any official act, duty or function of public office, from receiving any pay or allowances, and from being entitled to any of the emoluments or privileges of public office during the period of this suspension, which period shall be from the effective date hereof, until further executive order, or as otherwise provided by law.

1. On or about August 22, 1981, DANIEL H. BENNETT did unlawfully enter the dwelling or curtilage of one Pete Lisicki and directed or allowed one or several of his deputies to unlawfully enter the premises of Pete Lisicki and to search said premises. That subsequent to said search said DANIEL H. BENNETT did direct or allow deputy sheriffs Bass and Terrell to procure a search warrant from Judge Kim Hammond to search said premises knowing that said premises had already been unlawfully entered. He further directed said deputies to state that they had not been on the property of said Pete Lisicki prior to observing illegal activity on the property earlier in the day, knowing that they had in fact trespassed on said property.

2. Prior to hearings on the defendant's Motion to Suppress in the case of State of Florida vs. Pete Lisicki held before Circuit Judge Kim Hammond on or about March 26, 1982, and April 20, 1982, DANIEL H. BENNETT instructed several of his deputies to testify that they had not been on the property of Pete Lisicki, or to state they did not remember being on said property prior to observing illegal activity on the said property, knowing full well they had been on said property.

3. On or about June 9, 1981, an order was entered by the Circuit Court of the Seventh Judicial Circuit directing the Office of the State Attorney to turn over to DANIEL H. BENNETT several pornographic films for destruction. Among these films was a film entitled "Black Rape." Instead of destroying this film and in direct violation of a lawful court order, DANIEL H. BENNETT gave it to another person, to-wit: Mark Patrick, knowing the film to be obscene.

4. On or about June 18, 1981, DANIEL H. BENNETT, while on official investigation and while in an official patrol boat, exposed his genitalia to one Jo Anne Harvey in a vulgar and indecent manner.

5. On or about June 18, 1981, DANIEL H. BENNETT, while on an official investigation, actually and intentionally touched Jo Anne Harvey against her will.

6. During the term of his office, DANIEL H. BENNETT has failed to require each deputy to post a $1,000 bond payable to the Governor of the State of Florida, with two or more good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the Board of County Commissioners and filed with the Clerk of the Court as required by Section 30.09, Florida Statutes.

All Senators were recorded as co-introducers of SR 420.

The President presented a copy of SR 420 to Dr. Waldheim.

On motion by Senator Gordon, the following remarks were ordered printed in the Journal:

Dr. Waldheim: President Peterson, Senator Thomas, distinguished members of the Senate, I'm indeed deeply moved by the action the Senate of the State of Florida has just taken. I have listened carefully to the text of the resolution and I wish to express to all of you my deep and most sincere gratitude for having taken this action. The adoption of that resolution links me even closer to the State of Florida. I feel very much attached to your state having come here so often to relax a little during the ten years of my Secretary-chairmanship in New York. When I had all those travels, I came down to your beautiful state to get encouragement for my future work and it always helped me. That was not only for the last ten years, but already before when I was Ambassador for my country to the United Nations, I discovered Florida and came down here and learned to love this beautiful state. And then developed a new way that I got connected in another way to your state through my visiting professorship at Florida State University. I'm very happy to see President Sliger here and Vice President Hogan and Vice President Turnbull. It is a marvelous feeling for me that you consider me part of your beautiful state. Let me also tell you how much I appreciate what the State of Florida is doing internationally, because you are really a bridge between North America and Central America and that it is so important. We in the United Nations have learned how important it is to help each other and to understand the problems of other nations. Now you are doing this here in Florida. The State of Florida is not only using nice words for those poorer people in the South, but it is helping with deeds in the humanitarian field in practical ways and also helping these people psychologically. So many thousands are coming to your state and you are helping them. You are giving a wonderful example to other states, not only in your country, but to the other countries of the world that they see what can be done through this kind of solidarity between the North and the South. We feel the problem in the South now and we must come to the conclusion that these problems can only be solved on a global basis. Nobody can solve its problems in an isolated way. Once the British said, "let's live in splendid isolation". Well, those times are over. Today, you are one international community and you have to help each other. This is what the State of Florida is doing and you are giving a marvelous example in this way. I think that this will have its impact on other nations in the world to help the suffering people and in this way make a contribution to the great challenging problems of our time. As long as this deep duct between the rich and poor exists there can be no political stability in the world. Only if we can aid justice and equality amongst nations we have a chance to solve the problems of our time in economic, social and humanitarian fields—and let me add immediately, also in the political field, because there is no political stability as long as there isn't economic and social stability in the world. So again, let me thank you for your kindness and for your generosity in adopting that resolution which I consider recognition of what we have done in the United Nations to try to help suffering people in the world. Let words thank you because through this resolution you have helped me in becoming a citizen of your great State of Florida. I'm really very happy that in this way I'm coming much closer to you and I assure you that it will always be a pleasure for my wife and for me to return to this great state of the United States of America. I extend to you my warmest and best wishes for a happy and prosperous future. Thank you, Mr. President.

The Committee on Natural Resources and Conservation recommended the following amendment which was moved by Senator Neal:

Amendment 1—On page 1, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

Section 1. Section 378.031, Florida Statutes, 1982 Supplement, is amended to read:

378.031 Nonmandatory Land Reclamation Trust Fund.—

(1) It is the intent of the Legislature to provide an economic incentive to landowners to reclaim all lands mined or disturbed by the severance of phosphate rock prior to July 1, 1975, which lands are not subject to mandatory reclamation under s. 211.32(1)(a), in a timely manner and to encourage the reclamation of a maximum number of acres to a reclaimed state in accordance with the master reclamation plan.

(2)(4) Money paid into the Nonmandatory Land Reclamation Trust Fund shall be made available for the costs expended for reclamation accomplished in accordance with programs approved by the Department of Natural Resources for lands mined or disturbed by the severance of phosphate rock prior to July 1, 1975, which lands are not subject to mandatory reclamation under s. 211.32(1)(a). The Comptroller is authorized to make periodic reimbursements. The landowner may select a method of reimbursement from the alternatives adopted by the Comptroller (3). The Comptroller shall, upon verifying that such costs are eligible for reimbursement and upon receiving certification from written verification by the Department of Natural Resources that the reclamation conforms to the standards in the master reclamation plan and to the approved reclamation program, of completion of an approved program for reclamation of lands not subject to mandatory reclamation, and upon verification of the cost of the reclamation, grant payments of funds from the Nonmandatory Land Reclamation Trust Fund in an amount equal to 100 percent of such the costs, less any retainage the Comptroller deems reasonable to ensure completion of incurred in completing the reclamation program, subject to the following limitations:

(a) A landowner shall not be entitled to payments in excess of the funds available in the Nonmandatory Land Reclamation Trust Fund.

(b) No moneys shall be paid to the landowner in excess of amounts actually expended and reasonably necessary to effect reclamation, or to effect reclamation that exceeds standards in the master reclamation plan.

(c) As to lands which are deemed reclaimed without the necessity of reclamation after the adoption of the master reclamation plan, no moneys shall be paid to the landowner.

(d) Moneys shall be paid only for reclamation which is consistent with the master reclamation plan to be developed under s. 378.021 and adopted as a rule.

(3)(2) Money paid into the Nonmandatory Land Reclamation Trust Fund may also be used by the Department of Natural Resources to purchase land included within the master plan developed and adopted as a rule under s. 378.021, at a negotiated price, when the Department of Natural Resources reasonably determines that such purchase will serve the public interest because of the exceptional need to accomplish particular reclamation and restoration and finds that the landowner is unable or unwilling to restore or reclaim the land in accordance with the master plan. In the event that a sale price cannot be agreed upon, the Department of Natural Resources is authorized to exercise the power of eminent domain and to proceed to condemn said property in accordance with the provisions of chapter 73. Where property is acquired under this subsection, the Department of Natural Resources shall reclaim and restore such land as soon as practicable, with the costs of such reclamation and restoration to be paid in advance from the Nonmandatory Land Reclamation Trust Fund. Such land shall within a reasonable time thereafter be resold at public sale, at a price not less than that expended by the state for reclamation. The proceeds of such sale shall be payable to the Nonmandatory Land Reclamation Trust Fund.

(4)(3) The Department of Natural Resources shall not accept any application for approval of a reclamation program which includes a request for reimbursement of funds from the Nonmandatory Land Reclamation Trust Fund after January 1, 1985.

(5)(4) Money paid into the Nonmandatory Land Reclamation Trust Fund may further be used to purchase lands, or any interest in lands, which have been mined or disturbed by the removal of phosphate rock prior to July 1, 1975, for the purpose of acquiring such lands or interest therein for hunting, fishing, or other outdoor recreational purposes. Any interest in lands purchased may be less than a fee interest so long as the fee will vest in the state upon the occurrence of an event or date. An amount not to exceed 1 percent of the amount of the fund at the beginning of the fiscal year may be used by the designated manager of the lands for the purposes for which the lands were purchased, including reclamation or restoration of all or portions of the lands to enhance their wildlife values.

Section 2. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law.
