PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by James C. Vaughn, Jr., Reading Clerk:

Hear O Israel, our Lord, our God is one. O God, our leader, our master and our friend, we humbly ask that you forgive us of our imperfections and our shallow motives. Take us and make us one with your great purpose. Lord, use these noble women and men of the Florida Senate for the upbuilding of our great state.

Heavenly Father, when these elected servants begin to feel that their spirits are weak and their efforts are in vain, remind them that—"the ultimate measure of any woman or man is not where he or she stands in moments of comfort and convenience, but rather, where he or she stands in times of challenge and controversy." In your name we submit. Shalom.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

The Committee on Reapportionment recommends the following pass: SJR 2-G with 1 amendment

The bill was placed on the calendar.

RECESS

On motion by Senator Thomas, the Senate recessed at 2:16 p.m. to reconvene at 7:00 p.m.

At the request of the Rules Chairman and the Minority Leader, the President polled the members of the Senate and a majority of the membership asked that the Senate reconvene at 10:00 a.m. Wednesday, April 8 in lieu of 7:00 p.m. because necessary amendments to the reapportionment bill would not be ready until 10:00 p.m.

The President announced that the Senate would reconvene at 10:00 a.m., Wednesday, April 8.
