CONSIDERATION OF RESOLUTIONS

On motion by Senator Williams, by unanimous consent—

By Senator Thomas—

SR 2660—A resolution in memory of Alonzo Smith “Jake” Gaither, Florida A&M University football coach.

WHEREAS, at Knoxville College in Middlesboro, Kentucky, Alonzo Smith Gaither took the name “Jake,” met Sadie, who would become his wife of 62 years, was a champion debater, became acquainted with football, and went on to become an instructor of high school math, civics, and debate and a football coach at Henderson Institute in North Carolina, where he won five state football titles in 8 years, and

WHEREAS, after earning a Masters degree at Ohio State, Jake Gaither became an assistant coach and instructor at Florida A&M University in 1937 and became head coach in 1945, and with ingenious motivational tactics and shrewd maneuvers he lifted the school to national prominence, winning 203 games, six black college national championships, and 22 Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference titles, producing 35 All-America players, and sending 42 players to the ranks of professional football, including Willie Galimore, Bob Hayes, Ken Riley, Clarence Childs, Al Denson, Hubert Ginn, Hewritt Dixon, and Al Frazier, and in 1969 he retired, and

WHEREAS, under Coach Gaither, FAMU never had a losing season and was unbeaten in 1957, 1959, and 1961, and during his tenure, Coach Gaither’s clinics attracted such famous coaches as Bear Bryant, Woody Hayes, Ara Parseghian, Darryl Royal, Bobby Bowden, and Frank Howard, and

WHEREAS, Coach Gaither was national coach of the year three times, a National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame member, a Florida Sports Hall of Fame inductee, and an Amos Alonzo Stagg Award and Walter Camp Award recipient, and

WHEREAS, Coach Gaither was a father figure to several generations of FAMU students and athletes and a magnificent orator whose famous quotation, “I want my players mobile, agile and hostile,” became a universally known slogan, and

WHEREAS, Coach Gaither was a stabilizing influence during the integration of southern college football teams in the 1970’s and was also a force behind the scenes for civil rights in Tallahassee, and

WHEREAS, college football lost one of its greatest coaches and Tallahassee lost one of its legendary citizens February 18, 1994, with the death of 90-year-old Alonzo Smith “Jake” Gaither, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:

That the Florida Senate pause in its deliberation to express its deep sense of loss and sadness upon the death of Coach Jake Gaither, Florida A&M University football coach and father figure and friend to all those fortunate enough to have been touched by his life, and to pay its respects to this coaching legend.

—was introduced out of order and read by title. On motion by Senator Williams, SR 2660 was read the second time in full and adopted.

On motion by Senator Grogan, by two-thirds vote SR 520 was withdrawn from the Committee on Rules and Calendar.

On motion by Senator Grogan—

SR 520—A resolution commending Tracey Bailey for his selection as National Teacher of the Year.

WHEREAS, Satellite High School science teacher Tracey Bailey was recently selected from representatives of all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and Defense Department dependent schools abroad as the 42nd annual National Teacher of the Year, and

WHEREAS, in presenting the award, President Clinton praised Tracey Bailey as a science teacher who has “inspired all kinds of students, including those previously known as low-achieving or at-risk, to reach for excellence and to attain it,” and

WHEREAS, Tracey Bailey was chosen Brevard County’s Teacher of the Year in the spring of 1992 and, several months later, was named Florida’s Teacher of the Year, and

WHEREAS, Tracey Bailey’s experience during the past year as Florida’s Teacher of the Year has helped prepare him for the national role of spokesman for education and representative of the nation’s 2.5 million teachers, and

WHEREAS, Tracey Bailey, with only 5 years of teaching experience, has achieved this level of success through an enthusiasm that motivates his students to get involved, learn, and enjoy science and school, and

WHEREAS, by his achievements, Tracey Bailey has brought National honor and recognition to Satellite High School, Brevard County, and the State of Florida, NOW, THEREFORE,

Be It Resolved by the Senate of the State of Florida:

That the Florida Senate commends Tracey Bailey for his outstanding accomplishments in the classroom and his selection as National Teacher of the Year.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution, with the Seal of the Senate affixed, be presented to Tracey Bailey as a tangible token of the sentiments of the Florida Senate.

—was taken up out of order by unanimous consent, read the second time in full and adopted.

HB 731—A bill to be entitled An act relating to confidentiality of information held by the Florida Commission on Human Relations; amending ss. 760.11, 760.34, and 760.36, F.S., which provide for confidentiality of complaints filed with the commission under the Florida Civil Rights Act of 1992 and the Fair Housing Act and of conciliation agreements under the Fair Housing Act; specifying that such confidentiality is required by federal law; providing an effective date.

—a companion measure, was substituted for SB 326 and by two-thirds vote read the second time by title.

Senator Weinstein moved the following amendment which was adopted:

Amendment 1 (with Title Amendment)—On page 1, line 16, strike everything after the enacting clause and insert:

Section 1. Notwithstanding the October 1, 1994, repeal specified in section 119.14(3)(a), Florida Statutes, subsection (12) of section 760.11, Florida Statutes, is reenacted and amended to read:

760.11 Administrative and civil remedies; construction.—

(12) All complaints filed with the commission and all records and documents in the custody of the commission, which relate to and identify a particular person, including, but not limited to, a complainant, employer, employment agency, labor organization, or joint labor-management committee shall be confidential and shall not be disclosed by the commission, except to the parties or in the course of a hearing or proceeding under this section. The restriction of this subsection shall not apply to any record or document which is part of the record of any hearing or court proceeding. The exemption from s. 119.07(1) specified in this subsection is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act in accordance with s. 119.14.

Section 2. Notwithstanding the October 1, 1994, repeal specified in section 119.14(3)(a), Florida Statutes, subsection (1) of section 760.34, Florida Statutes, is reenacted and amended to read:

760.34 Enforcement.—

(1) Any person who claims to have been injured by a discriminatory housing practice or who believes that he will be injured by a discriminatory housing practice that is about to occur may file a complaint with the commission. Complaints shall be in writing and shall contain such information and be in such form as the commission requires. Upon receipt of such a complaint, the commission shall furnish a copy to the person or persons who allegedly committed the discriminatory housing practice or are about to commit the alleged discriminatory housing practice. Within 100 days after receiving a complaint, or within 100 days after the expiration of any period of reference under subsection (3), the commission shall investigate the complaint and give notice in writing to the person aggrieved whether it intends to resolve it. If the commission decides to resolve the complaint, it shall proceed to try to eliminate or correct the alleged discriminatory housing practice by informal methods of conference, conciliation, and persuasion. Insofar as possible, conciliation meetings shall be held in the cities or other localities where the discriminatory housing practices allegedly occurred. Nothing said or done in the course of such informal endeavors may be made public or used as evidence in a subsequent proceeding under ss. 760.20-760.37 without the written consent of the persons concerned. Any employee of the commission who makes public any information in violation of this provision is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree, punishable as provided in s. 775.082 or s. 775.083. The exemption from s. 119.07(1) specified in this subsection is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act in accordance with s. 119.14.

Section 3. Notwithstanding the October 1, 1994, repeal specified in section 119.14(3)(a), Florida Statutes, section 760.36, Florida Statutes, is reenacted and amended to read:

760.36 Conciliation agreements.—Any conciliation agreement arising out of conciliation efforts by the Florida Commission on Human Relations pursuant to the Fair Housing Act must be agreed to by the respondent and the complainant and is subject to the approval of the commission. Notwithstanding the provisions of s. 760.11(11) and (12), each conciliation agreement arising out of a complaint filed under the Fair Housing Act shall be made public unless the complainant and the respondent otherwise agree and the commission determines that disclosure is not required to further the purposes of the Florida Fair Housing Act. The exemption from s. 119.07(1) specified in this subsection is subject to the Open Government Sunset Review Act in accordance with s. 119.14.

Section 4. This act shall take effect October 1, 1994.

And the title is amended as follows:

In title, on page 1, strike all of lines 1-12 and insert: A bill to be entitled An act relating to public records; reenacting and amending s. 760.11(12), F.S., which provides for confidentiality of all records and documents in the custody of the Florida Commission on Human Relations which relate to and identify a particular person; providing for the continued confidentiality of such records and documents; providing for future legislative review and repeal; reenacting and amending s. 760.34(1), F.S., which provides for confidentiality of everything said or done in the course of informal conciliation and makes a violation a first degree misdemeanor; providing for the continuing confidentiality of such information; providing for future legislative review and repeal; reenacting and amending s. 760.36, F.S., which provides for confidentiality of conciliation agreements; providing for the continuing confidentiality of such information; providing for future legislative review and repeal; providing an effective date.
