PRAYER

The following prayer was offered by the Rev. Robert J. Schneider, Holy Family Catholic Church, St. Petersburg:

Today, representatives from faiths around the world have met in Assisi, Italy, the home of Francis of Assisi, to join together for peace. In that spirit, let us begin this day here with thoughts of peace and justice for all. We gather together today, conscious of our need for help and guidance beyond our own abilities.

Almighty God, our understandings and perceptions of you are varied, different and often impossible to fully explain or reconcile, but even if we profess no faith, we seek wisdom, insight, integrity and courage. The lives and welfare of so many depend upon decisions made in this chamber.

Give wisdom to our Senators' decisions, that they may seek to do what is right and just for all. Give insight to their judgment, that they may look to the greatest good for all. Give integrity to their debate, that they may seek truth and not expediency. Give courage to their hearts, that they will seek to live by principles and laws that recognize human dignity and freedom.

This Senate has been entrusted with important tasks of government for the State of Florida. May they be open to wisdom, insight, integrity and courage and be effective leaders. May our state, nation and world know freedom from terror and war and may we build a better society by what is done here today.

We make this prayer in faith. Amen.

Senate Pages Steve York of Tallahassee, James Sanders of Live Oak and Casey Lawson of Sarasota, led the Senate in the pledge of allegiance to the flag of the United States of America.
