

Penalties for violations otherwise provided by law, any person determined to have violated the requirements of this Rule shall be censured, reprimanded, placed on probation or prohibited from lobbying for the duration of the session and from appearing before any committee of the Senate. Said determination shall be made by a majority of the Senate, upon recommendation of the Committee on Ethics. The Committee on Ethics, before making said recommendation, shall conduct a hearing, after notifying the person alleged to have violated this Rule and granting such person an opportunity to appear at the hearing.

9.9—The Secretary shall provide blank affidavits for the convenience of registrants but the burden of compliance nevertheless always shall be upon the person required to register.

9.10—Committees shall be diligent to ascertain whether those who appear before them in other than an obviously individual capacity have conformed with the requirements of this Rule, and to report violations. No Committeeman knowingly shall permit an unregistered lobbyist to be heard.

Rule Ten

CHAMBER OF THE SENATE

10.1—No person shall be admitted to the main floor of the Senate Chamber while the Senate is in daily session except present members of the Senate and all officers and employees of the Senate in the performance of their duties, and persons charged with messages or papers to the Senate. A special section of the gallery shall be reserved for members of the families of Senators. Also entitled to admission are the Governor or one (1) representative designated by him, the Lieutenant Governor, Cabinet officers, former governors, present and former United States Senators, members or former members of the House of Representatives of the United States and of this State, Justices of the Supreme and Appellate Courts of Florida, Circuit Judges of Florida, former State Senators of Florida, and persons by invitation of the President.

10.2 None of the persons entitled to admission shall be admitted if registered pursuant to Rule 9, nor shall such person engage in any activity for or against any bill, motion, or other proceeding upon the floor of the Senate while in session.

10.3—Representatives of the press and of radio and television stations, in performance of their duties, shall be assigned to a press section specifically set aside for them and shall not be allowed on the Senate floor while the Senate is in daily session, except with the approval of the President. All male persons on the main floor of the Senate and in the gallery (with the exception of visitors in that portion of the gallery set aside for the general public) shall wear coats at all times while the Senate is in session.

10.4—No person shall be introduced unless he is escorted to the rostrum with concurrence of the Senate. This rule shall not apply to the first day of each regular session.

Rule Eleven

CONSTRUCTION AND WAIVER OF RULES

11.1—It shall be the duty of the President, or the presiding officer for the time being, to interpret all rules. Motions for the previous question and to lay upon the table shall not be entertained.

11.2—These Rules shall not be waived or suspended except by a two-thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) vote of all Senators present, which motion, when made, shall be decided without debate. A motion to waive a rule requiring unanimous consent of the Senate shall be construed to be an amendment to these Rules and shall be referred to the Committee on Rules and Calendar except by unanimous consent of those present.
