

Majority Vote of the Members Present:

To ratify proposed amendment to the U.S. Constitution; majority of members in each house must have been elected after the proposed amendment was submitted for ratification
[Art. X, s. 1]

Show of Hands:

Five (5) Senators may immediately question a vote declared by the President, requiring an electronic roll call
[Art. III, s. 4(c)]

Two (2) committee members may question a vote declared by the chairman, requiring a roll call vote [Art. III, s. 4(c)]

Two (2) committee members may request a roll call vote on any matter properly before the committee [Art. III, s. 4(c)]

CONSTITUTIONAL PUBLIC REVIEW PERIODBills Increasing State Revenues

Seventy-two (72) hour period after third (3rd) reading before final passage [Art. VII, s. 1(e)]

General Appropriations Bills

Seventy-two (72) hour public review period required before final passage [Art. III, s. 19(d)]

UNITED STATES CONSTITUTION

Before the proposed amendment can be ratified by the Florida Legislature, a majority of the members voting must have been elected after the amendment was submitted for ratification
[Art. V]