The Office of Executive Clemency is not included in the reorganization act, nor specifically so called in the Constitution. Article IV, Section 8, Florida Constitution, provides:

   Except in cases of treason and in cases where impeachment results in conviction, the governor may, by executive order filed with the custodian of state records, suspend collection of fines and forfeitures, grant reprieves not exceeding sixty days and, with the approval of two members of the cabinet, grant full or conditional pardons, restore civil rights, commute punishment, and remit fines and forfeitures for offenses.
