WATER & RESOURCE MANAGEMENT ANALYSIS

BILL #: HB 4031 (Formerly PCB RC 00-16)

RELATING TO: Florida Statutes/Repeals

SPONSOR(S): Rules and Calendar Committee and Rep. Constantine

TIED BILL(S):

ORIGINATING COMMITTEE(S)/COMMITTEE(S) OF REFERENCE:

- (1) RULES & CALENDAR YEAS 15 NAYS 0
 - (2) WATER & RESOURCE MANAGEMENT
 - (3)
 - (4)
 - (5)

I. SUMMARY:

Various statutory provisions in chapters 327, 370, and 373, Florida Statutes, are obsolete because they have served their purpose or have been superseded by subsequent legislation. HB 4031 would repeal these obsolete provisions and make necessary updates to cross-references resulting from the repeals.

HB 4031 has no fiscal impact on state government or local governments.

It would take effect upon becoming a law.

II. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS:

For any principle that received a "no" above, please explain:

B. PRESENT SITUATION:

Various statutory provisions in chapters 327, 370 and 373, Florida Statutes, have become obsolete because they have served their purpose, had their intended effect, or repealed or superseded by subsequent legislation.

C. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

HB 4031 would delete obsolete provisions in chapters 327, 370 and 373, Florida Statutes, and correct cross-references affected by those deletions.

D. SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS:

Section 1: Section 327.53, F.S., establishes requirements for marine sanitation devices on certain vessels. Paragraph (b) of subsection (2) and subsection (8) of section 327.53, F.S., had established deadlines for compliance with the law for different types of vessels; those deadlines have passed.

Section 2: Section 370.031, F.S., directed the Department of Environmental Protection in 1969 to conduct an economic, ecological and biological study of Choctawhatchee Bay. The study has been completed.

Section 3: Section 370.033, F.S., adopted in 1970, specified legislative intent regarding the registration of dredge-and-fill equipment with the old Department of Natural Resources. This language has been rendered obsolete by the subsequent passage of law in chapters 370 and 403, F.S., regarding dredge and fill permitting requirements.

Section 4: Paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of section 370.037, F.S., is amended to correct a cross-reference.

Section 5: Section 370.038, F.S., is amended to correct a cross-reference.

Section 6: Section 370.0805, F.S., passed by the Legislature in 1995, created a net buyback and other assistance programs for commercial fishermen adversely affected by passage of the 1994 constitutional limitations on gill and other nets. These programs have expired.

Section 7: Section 370.135, F.S., created in 1998 a moratorium on issuance of blue-crab harvesting licenses to new applicants. Several of the early deadlines have expired, and so have been deleted from this section of law.

Section 8: Subsection (12) of s. 370.14, F.S., is deleted to remove an obsolete historical reference.

Section 9: Subsection (4) of s. 370.142, F.S., refers to the "Trap Certificate Technical Advisory and Appeals Board," for spiny lobster harvesters, which was created in 1990. Deadlines for several of its actions have passed, so those provisions are deleted.

Section 10: Section 373.029, F.S., passed in 1963, directed the governor to appoint a Floridian to the Southeast River Basins Resources Advisory Board. The board no longer meets.

Section 11: Section 373.0735, F.S., adopted in 1988, modified the staggered terms of the 11 members of the Southwest Florida Water Management District, as of July 1, 1990. The section of law has accomplished its purpose, and so is obsolete.

Section 12: Section 373.191, F.S., created in 1957, allowed counties to enter into Water development projects with the long-defunct Division of Interior Resources of the Department of Natural Resources. The provision is obsolete because the division was dissolved in 1972, and because other, newer provisions of law in chapter 373 address local-state partnerships for Water development.

Section 13: Section 373.033, F.S., corrects cross-reference and makes grammatical changes.

Section 14: Subsection (11) of section 373. 2295, F.S., created in 1987, was intended to exempt a pending interdistrict transfer project from the permitting provisions of the rest of the section. The reference has been obsolete for many years.

Section 15: Subsection (3) of section 373. 415, F.S., directed the St. Johns River Water Management District to develop by March 1, 1991, a groundwater basin availability inventory for the Wekiva River Protection Area. The district met the deadline.

Section 16: Specifies this act shall take effect upon becoming a law.

VI. AMENDMENTS OR COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE CHANGES:

In order to reduce duplication, House substantive committees have been directed to remove from repealer bills, such as HB 4031, any provisions that are identical to those in reviser's bills. Sections 1 and 11 of HB 4031 also appear in a Division of Statutory Revision "reviser's bill" to be sponsored by the House Committee on Rules and Calendar, so two amendments have been filed to remove those duplicative sections.
