B. PRESENT SITUATION:

The Committee on Business Development & International Trade was asked to review a number of sections of the Florida Statutes to determine if those sections have become obsolete, have had their effect, have served their purpose, or have been impliedly repealed or superseded. The committee identified a number of such sections and referred that information to the House Committee on Rules and Calendar, which resulted in the drafting and passage of Proposed Committee Bill RC 00-019 by that committee.

That Proposed Committee Bill is now before the Committee on Business Development & International Trade as House Bill 4037.

C. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

See "Section-by-Section Analysis".

D. SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS:

Section 1 Repeals obsolete funding provision relating to Empowerment Zones. [s. 290.0491(5), F.S.]

Section 2 Repeals obsolete provisions relating to the Cape San Blas Spaceport property. The language addressed environmental concerns. Since that time, the concrete launch pad was washed away by a hurricane. Spaceport Florida has no plans to develop the facility. [s. 331.307, F.S.]

Section 3 Repeals a dated report requirement. [s. 414.030(9)(b), F.S.]

Section 4 Repeals a provision relating to exemption from leased real property requirements which expired June 30, 1999. [s. 414.25, F.S.]

Section 5 Repeals dated provision relating to automated fingerprint imaging. [s. 414.391, F.S.]
