I. SUMMARY:

This bill reenacts the provision regarding the Public Counsel's representation before the Public Service Commission in water and wastewater proceedings at the county level.

The bill does not appear to have a new fiscal impact on state or local governments.

SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS:

For any principle that received a "no" above, please explain:

The bill reenacts section 12 of chapter 2000-350, Laws of Florida, establishing an additional responsibility for the Office of Public Counsel.

B. PRESENT SITUATION:

Under section 367.171, Florida Statutes, county government may regulate the rates, charges, services, and territorial authorization of privately owned water and wastewater utilities operating within the county, or the local government may opt to cede jurisdiction of these utilities over to the Public Service Commission (PSC). Privately owned water and wastewater utilities in thirty-six out of 67 counties in Florida are regulated by the PSC.

Prior to the 2000 Regular Legislative Session, section 350.0611, Florida Statutes, provided that the Public Counsel's duties include providing legal representation for the people of the state in proceedings before the PSC. For water and wastewater issues, the Public Counsel represents the affected citizens or the general body of utility customers in PSC cases.

Section 350.0611, Florida Statutes, was amended by section 12 of chapter 2000-350, Laws of Florida, to provide that the Public Counsel's duties include representing the public in proceedings before counties pursuant to section 367.171(8), Florida Statutes. Chapter 2000-350, Laws of Florida, has been challenged as a violation of the single subject requirement in Article III, section 6, Florida Constitution, in that "(e) very law shall embrace but one subject and matter properly connected therewith, . . ." A single subject violation is cured by either the biennial adoption of the statutes or by reenacting the provision separately. See Salters v. State, 758 So.2d 667 (Fla. 2000). Amendments enacted in the 2000 Regular Session will be adopted in 2002.

C. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

The bill reenacts the amendment to section 350.0611, Florida Statutes, to provide that the Public Counsel's duties are expanded to include citizen representation in water and wastewater issues before county government.

D. SECTION-BY-SECTION ANALYSIS:

Please see Present Situation and Effect of Proposed Changes sections.

The language of this bill is identical to the language enacted by the Legislature in section 12 of chapter 2000-350, Laws of Florida, with the exception of changing the ending punctuation of subsection (1) – (4) from periods to semi-colons.
