II. Summary of Amendments Contained in Message:

Adds provision stating that, until January 1, 2006, if a SSN or bank account/credit card # is contained in a court file, the clerk of court does not have to redact the information in that file unless requested by the holder of the number. The request must state the location in the record of the number for redaction. The clerk is not required to verify identity of the requestor or to charge a fee for complying with the request.
