SB 190

Small Business Health Care Insurance Assistance Pilot Program

by Senator Fasano

Creates the Small Business Health Care Insurance Assistance Pilot Program as a statewide 2 year program to provide a one-time rebate to small businesses that provide comprehensive major medical health insurance coverage for employees. Requires employer and employee participation in certain costs. Limits authorization to provide rebates under the program pursuant to a specific appropriation. Provides for administration of the program by the Agency for Health Care Administration. (See bill for details)
