SB 652 Task Force on Workplace Safety by Senator Lynn

Creates the Florida Public Task Force on Workplace Safety within the Office of Insurance Regulation. Provides that it's purpose is to develop findings and issue recommendations regarding ways by which the state may ensure that all departments, agencies, and local governments, comply with subparts C through T and subpart Z of the Occupational Safety and Health Administration Standards, 29 C.F.R. s. 1910, as revised July 1, 1993. Exempts compliance with those standards pertaining to firefighters and fire departments which are inconsistent with any rules adopted by the office. (See bill for details)
