SB 1354 Pornographic Materials/Commercial Distribution by Senator Siplin

Creates the "Florida Commercial Anti-Pornography Act" to provide a civil remedy to prohibit the willfull and knowing distribution of pornographic materials for profit and commercial purposes, and to recover civil penalties and damages. Extends these remedies to any church or religious organization, or other representative group or organization within this state.

Provides that this act does not apply to the noncommercial distribution of materials through Internet service providers, Internet users, or others, and does not regulate, limit, or prohibit residents from possessing obscene materials for personal use in their own homes. (See bill for details)
