SB 1536

Internet Predator Awareness and Online Safety Act by Senator Storms

Requires online dating service providers to offer Florida members a safety-awareness notification containing, at a minimum, information that includes a list and description of safety measures designed to increase awareness of safer dating practices. Provides that if a provider does not conduct criminal background screenings on its communicating members, the provider shall disclose this information.

Provides for the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services to serve as a clearinghouse for intake of information from consumers. Provides civil penalties for online dating service providers for noncompliance with this act. (See bill for details)
