SB 1188

Florida Retirement System/Senior Management Service Class
by Senator Wise

Provides that election to participate in the Senior Management Service Class by elected county officers does not affect the statutory limit on the number of nonelective full-time positions that may be designated for inclusion in the class by a school district.

Authorizes the designation of up to 15 nonelective full-time positions for each school district serving as the fiscal agent for a regional consortium service organization established under state law for inclusion in said class.
