SUMMARY ANALYSIS

The bill authorizes the establishment of a pharmacy school at the University of South Florida (USF). USF plans to enroll the first class of 50 students in Fall 2011, 75 students in 2012, and 100 students annually thereafter until reaching full capacity at 400 students in 2016. Once students are enrolled, the program will have to become accredited in order for students to meet the licensure requirements for a pharmacist. The university will begin requesting state funding in fiscal year 2011-2012.

The bill takes effect upon becoming law.

HOUSE PRINCIPLES

Members are encouraged to evaluate proposed legislation in light of the following guiding principles of the House of Representatives:

- Balance the state budget.
- Create a legal and regulatory environment that fosters economic growth and job creation.
- Lower the tax burden on families and businesses.
- Reverse or restrain the growth of government.
- Promote public safety.
- Promote educational accountability, excellence, and choice.
- Foster respect for the family and for innocent human life.
- Protect Florida's natural beauty.

FULL ANALYSIS

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

The bill authorizes the establishment of a doctor of pharmacy (PharmD) degree at the University of South Florida (USF), Tampa Campus.

Section 1004.03(3), F.S., requires the Legislature to approve the establishment of new colleges, schools, or functional equivalents of any program leading to a degree that:

- Is offered as a credential for a specific license granted; and
- Will receive support from tuition and fees or from funds appropriated by the Legislature.

Thus, a public institution wishing to establish a doctoral program for a licensed profession such as pharmacy has to receive authorization from the Legislature before offering the program.

PharmD Programs

PharmD programs currently exist at five institutions in Florida—two public universities (University of Florida and Florida A & M University) and three independent institutions (Nova Southeastern University, Palm Beach Atlantic University, and Lake Erie College of Medicine-Bradenton Campus). According to the Board of Governors (BOG), the University of Florida and Florida A & M University awarded 635 pharmacy degrees in 2008 and 557 pharmacy degrees in 2007. [The three independent institutions graduate approximately 382 pharmacy students each year.¹]

Licensed Pharmacists

The Florida Pharmacy Act² establishes the educational requirements for a person desiring to be licensed as a pharmacist. Any PharmD graduate desiring to become licensed must apply to the Florida Department of Health to take, and successfully pass, the licensure examination. In order to sit for the examination, an individual must submit proof that they have:³

- Earned a degree from a school or college of pharmacy accredited by an accrediting agency recognized and approved by the United States Office of Education; or

¹ Board of Governors, 2010 Legislative Bill Analysis of House Bill 101 (January 27, 2010).

² Chapter 465, F.S.

³ Section 465.007(1)(b), F.S.

- Earned a degree from a 4-year undergraduate pharmacy program from a school or college of pharmacy located outside the United States and completed a minimum of 500 hours in a supervised work activity program in Florida under the supervision of a pharmacist licensed by the Department of Health.

Projected Need for Pharmacists in Florida

According to the Agency for Workforce Innovation (AWI), the annual growth rate of pharmacists statewide is 3.10 percent.⁴ By 2017, AWI projects that there will be 20,795 available jobs, which is an increase 4,128 positions or a 25 percent increase. AWI attributes the increased demand to the higher incidence of middle-aged and elderly individuals who use more prescription drugs; to scientific advances that will make more drug products available; and to the coverage of prescription drugs by a greater number of health insurance plans and Medicare.⁵

B. SECTION DIRECTORY:

Section 1. Creates s. 1004.387, F.S., authorizing a doctor of pharmacy degree program at the University of South Florida.

Section 2. Provides an effective date of upon becoming a law.

II. FISCAL ANALYSIS & ECONOMIC IMPACT STATEMENT

A. FISCAL IMPACT ON STATE GOVERNMENT:

The following fiscal impact reflects the minimum amount USF projects will be needed to fund the direct costs related to start-up and continuing operations of the PharmD program.⁶ The charts below summarize the projected costs associated with three planning years and four implementation years to start a new PharmD program at USF.⁷ According to BOG staff, USF is on track to enroll its first pharmacy class in Fall 2011.⁸

1. Revenues and Expenditures during Planning Years:

The University of South Florida, reflected in the chart below, expects to receive $1.3 million and spend $1.9 million in FY 2010-11 to complete their planning activities. According to the BOG, the difference of approximately $575,000 in FY 2009-10 is expected to be addressed through fundraising.

2. Revenues and Expenditures during Implementation Years:

USF plans to request recurring appropriations based on a per student rate of $8,000.⁹ USF anticipates the first class will start in 2011-2012 (year 1) with an enrollment of 50 students. By 2016-2017 (year 6), USF anticipates reaching capacity of 400 students and projects a total recurring General Revenue (GR) need of $3.2M. In fiscal years 2011-2012 and 2012-2013, USF projects needing additional funds and will likely request $2,792,059 in non-recurring GR from the Legislature. According to the proposal, the largest instructional and research expenditures consist of faculty salaries and benefits followed by administrative and operational costs.

B. FISCAL IMPACT ON LOCAL GOVERNMENTS:

1. Revenues:

None.

2. Expenditures:

None.

C. DIRECT ECONOMIC IMPACT ON PRIVATE SECTOR:

The proposed PharmD program at USF may provide graduates for retail outlets and other pharmacy related industries throughout the state. The proposed PharmD program may reduce the number of enrollments at independent colleges and universities in Florida that currently offer a PharmD program (i.e. Nova Southeastern University; Palm Beach Atlantic University; and Lake Erie College of Medicine-Bradenton Campus).

D. FISCAL COMMENTS:

Lake Erie College of Medicine-Bradenton Campus (LECOM)

In recent years, LECOM has received state funding to support health programs. In the 2009-2010 General Appropriations Act, LECOM received $785,106 in GR and $332,000 in Federal Stimulus funds to support Florida residents who are enrolled in the Osteopathic Medicine or Pharmacy Program at the ⁹ USF PharmD Business Plan, FBOG Table 2P, Summary of Costs for Proposed Doctor of Pharmacy (January 2009).

LECOM/Bradenton.¹⁰ According to the FY 2009-10 spending plan submitted by LECOM, they allocated $334,605 to the pharmacy program to provide tuition subsidies for students.¹¹

Nova Southeastern University (Nova)

In recent years Nova has also received state funding to support health programs. In the 2009-2010 General Appropriations Act, Nova received $3.4M in GR and $1.6M in Federal Stimulus funds to support Florida residents who are enrolled in the Osteopathic Medicine, Pharmacy, or Nursing Programs at Nova.¹² According to the FY 2009-10 spending plan submitted by Nova, they allocated $801,012 to the pharmacy program to provide tuition subsidies of $1,665 to 481 students.¹³
