SUMMARY ANALYSIS

Section 334.071, F.S., provides for legislative designations of transportation facilities for honorary or memorial purposes, or to distinguish a particular facility. The legislative designations do not "officially" change the current names of the facilities, nor does the statute require local governments and private entities to change street signs, mailing addresses, or 911 emergency telephone-number system listings.

The bill designates the portion of Biscayne Boulevard Way between S.E. 2 Avenue and U.S. 1 (Biscayne Boulevard) in Miami-Dade County as "Julia Tuttle Way."

The bill also directs DOT to erect suitable markers designating "Julia Tuttle Way."

DOT estimates that the cost to erect two suitable road designating markers is approximately $800; this assumes the placement of a marker at each end of each designated road segment. The expenditure is from the State Transportation Trust Fund and includes installation and maintenance costs.

The bill does not create any constitutional or other legal issues. It takes effect July 1, 2010.

I. SUBSTANTIVE ANALYSIS

A. EFFECT OF PROPOSED CHANGES:

Current Situation

Section 334.071, F.S., provides for legislative designations of transportation facilities for honorary or memorial purposes, or to distinguish a particular facility. The legislative designations do not "officially" change the current names of the facilities, nor does the statute require local governments and private entities to change street signs, mailing addresses, or 911 emergency telephone-number system listings.

The statute requires the Department of Transportation (DOT) to place a marker at each termini or intersection of an identified road or bridge, and to erect other markers it deems appropriate for the transportation facility. The statute also provides that a city or county must pass a resolution in support of a particular designation before road markers are erected. Additionally, if the designated road segment extends through multiple cities or counties, a resolution must be passed by each affected local government.

Effect of Proposed Change

The bill designates the portion of Biscayne Boulevard Way between S.E. 2 Avenue and U.S. 1 (Biscayne Boulevard) in Miami-Dade County as "Julia Tuttle Way."

The bill also directs DOT to erect suitable markers designating "Julia Tuttle Way".

The bill takes effect on July 1, 2010.
