Senator Aronberg moved the following:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Between lines 547 and 548
insert:

Section 6. The Legislature recognizes that due to varying local conditions, local governments have different planning needs that cannot be addressed by a uniform set of minimum planning criteria. Therefore, the state land planning agency may amend chapter 9J-5, Florida Administrative Code, to establish different minimum reporting criteria that are applicable to small or fiscally constrained local governments and may establish a waiver provision to satisfy ongoing reporting requirements if no significant changes occur, based upon the 14 following factors:

15 (1) Current and projected population;

16 (2) Size of the local jurisdiction;

17 (3) Amount and nature of undeveloped land;

18 (4) The scale of public services provided by the local 19 government; or

20 (5) Annual budget.
