The Committee on Banking and Insurance (Bennett) recommended the following:

Senate Amendment (with title amendment)

Between lines 18 and 19
insert:

Section 1. Subsection (2) of section 30.2905, Florida Statutes, is amended to read:

30.2905 Program to contract for employment of off-duty deputies for security services.-

(2) (a) Any such public or private employer of a deputy sheriff shall be responsible for the acts or omissions of the deputy sheriff while performing services for that employer while off duty, including workers' compensation benefits.

771610

13 (b) However, for the workers' compensation purposes of this 14 section:
15

16 1. A deputy sheriff so employed who sustains an injury
17 while enforcing the criminal, traffic, or penal laws of this 18 state shall be regarded as working on duty.

19 2. The term "enforcing the criminal, traffic, or penal laws 20 of this state" shall be interpreted to include providing 21 security, patrol, or traffic direction for a private employer.

22 3. A sheriff may recover from a private or public employer
23 of an off-duty deputy sheriff, who is regarded as working on 24 duty under this paragraph, any increase in the sheriff's 25 workers' compensation expenses that results directly from the 26 off-duty employment.
