SB 162 Disability Retirement Benefits by Senator Baker

Provides that the following members of the Special Risk Class who retired under the disability retirement provisions of the Florida Retirement System may be reemployed and continue to receive their disability retirement benefits:

- law enforcement officer
- firefighter
- correctional officer
- emergency medical technician
- paramedic or
- community-based correctional probation officer.

Prohibits such retired member from being reemployed in the position he or she held at the time of the disabling illness or injury or in a position in the Special Risk Class.

Provides a declaration of important state interest. (See bill for details)
