SB 212

Claims by Law Enforcement Officers, Correctional Officers, or Correctional Probation Officers
by Senator Oelrich

Provides conditions under which a law enforcement officer, correctional officer, or correctional probation officer who suffers from a specified medical condition (e.g., tuberculosis, heart disease, or hypertension) and has materially departed from the prescribed treatment for that condition shall lose a specified presumption for claims made on or after July 1, 2010. (See bill for details)
