SB 794

School Food Services/Nutritional Awareness
by Senator Sobel

Cites this act as the "Cafeteria Nutritional Awareness Act."

Provides that district school board policies for school food service programs shall include the requirement that information regarding the nutritional content and value of daily meals be provided to parents and students. Provides that such information shall be posted in a prominent place in each school cafeteria and shall include, but not be limited to, the sugar, fat, calorie, and vitamin contents in each breakfast and lunch meal. (See bill for details)
